JUNIOR NOTES

By Arthur J. Collingsworth

LAST FRIDAY NIGHT FROM 8:30 to 11:30, the high school was the setting for the junior high May Dance.

About 200 junior high students turned out for the successful dance.

In the center of the gym was the traditional May Pole, also crepe-paper streamers were draped across the dancing area. On the side, card tables were placed for the comfort of the students.

At the west end of the gym the double throne for the king and queen was placed. Linda Dicks and Carl Wilt of the eighth grade were chosen king and queen by an junior high election.

Others candidates who served on the court were Robert French Mary Jean Cleveland, Mary Wing, Tom Simmons, Susan Owen, Ross Stephenson, Lois Handy, Robert Oswald, Bonny Staup, Philip Radant, Mary Ann Meade, Richard Carter, Brenda Gallent, Jack Rutherford, Tim Sission, Janice Hall, Ruth Davis and Lee Frost.

John Elliott, president of the high school student council, crowned the king and queen.

The king and queen followed by their attendants, and all the others made the grand march around the gym.

Refreshments of fruit punch and cookies were served. The Little Indians furnished the music.

Second Tecumseh Man Wins Award

On April 30, Verner Winslow Crane, a former resident of Tecumseh, gave the annual Henry Russel Lecture at the University of Michigan.

He spoke on Benjamin Franklin, in his field of American History.

Last year at this time another Tecumseh man, Elman Roger Service, received the annual Henry Russel Award for his outstanding work in the field of anthropology.

The Henry Russel Awards and Lectures are supported by a fund established by Henry Russel, a Detroit lawyer who graduated from the University in 1875.

The appointment to the lectureship signifies the highest achievement in academic and scientific competence.

The Russel Award is a cash grant presented to an instructor or assistant professor who is thought to be outstanding in his field.

DR. CRANE was born in Tecumseh, August 28, 1889.

He received his Bachelor of Arts from the University in 1911, and his Master of Arts from Harvard in 1912. He received his Ph D in. History from the University of Pennsylvania in 1915.

He has taught American History at the University for about 27 years at different times.

Dr. Crane is one of the world's leading authorities on Benjamin Franklin. His wife, a Tecumseh woman, passed away in 1953.

Dr. Service, last year's Award winner, was born in Tecumseh, May 18, 1915. He received his Bachelor's degree in 1941 from the University, and his Ph D from Columbia in 1950. He began teaching at the U. of M in 1953.

Tecumseh can well be proud of these former residents.

Strictly Independent!

In a nutshell, here's what that means when applied to an insurance agent.

It means that he represents not one company, but many, and is free to place your business where it is best for you.

An independent agent is not a full time, salaried employee who sells insurance and helps settle claims in but one company. Representing many on a commission basis only, the first loyalty of an independent agent is to a client . . . you . . . when it comes to the settlement of a claim.

For the best insurance service that money can buy, choose an agent who is strictly independent. That's us!

Hospital Wing Is Dedicated

In an informal ceremony, Tuesday noon, the $400,000 addition to Herrick Memorial Hospital was dedicated.

Among those attending were members of the hospital board, their wives, hospital staff, representatives of city government and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Herrick.

It was Mr. Herrick, along with the late Dr. H. H. Hammel who conceived the idea for the hospital.

"It seems only yesterday that we were worried about getting started," Mr. Herrick told the small group.

He explained that it was then that the fundamental idea of "service" was planted among the institution's staff.

The doctors and nursing staff were lavishly praised by Mr. Herrick for their work.

☆

CLARENCE GILMAN, PRESIDENT of the hospital board, told how it was exactly 20 years ago this week that the first patient was admitted.

He explained that the new south wing makes the fourth addition to the hospital. Orrie Gilbert, administrative head, also addressed the audience.

Rev. Blair Bashore gave the benediction.

Mayor Oley Hanna spoke briefly in behalf of the city and Mrs. Helen Miller for the nursing staff. At a luncheon which followed in the new dining room — the first meal to be served there — Dr. M. R. Blanden, chief of staff, made some brief comments.

The gathering offered an ideal time to honor a long-time hospital employee, Gertrude Baker, who has served as cook since a month after the institution opened. She was presented with a traveling bag.

The new wing's first floor brings the total bed capacity to 82 — an addition of 21. The upstairs, when finished will be used for obstetrical patients.

On the basement level are new kitchen, the dining room and three lounges.

Citizens Can Tour New Wing Sunday

Sunday will be Hospitality Day at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Members of the Hospital Auxiliary will act as guides for tours, which will take about 30 to 45 minutes, from 2 to 4 p.m.

Only children over 12 years will be allowed inside.

Hospital staff members will be stationed in various sections to answer questions as the guests make the rounds.

The tour will start at the main lobby entrance only, and will include the new patient rooms, wards, new dining room cafeteria and three new lounges for the nurses, kitchen help and aides.

Mrs. Richard Coak, Auxiliary president, says that the men will be especially interested in the new air changer which freshens the air at all times, also that everyone will be fascinated by the modern kitchen equipment.

A new elevator, walk-in freezers and food coolers are among other interesting new features

Gasoline Station Question Re-Opens

Council voted Monday night to allow Roy Richard and Leonard Oil officials a hearing before a joint session of council and the planning commission on June 2.

Mr. Richard, local bulk supplier for Leonard, seeking to build a service station on West Chicago boulevard, told council-men that it was his understanding that last week's council-planning commission meeting was for discussion only with no official action to be undertaken.

He also said Leonard Oil was not represented at the meeting since its absence would enable city officials to have a free discussion.

Last week, council, after meeting with the commission, ruled to halt gas station building here for at least one year.

Tecumseh's top governing body in approving another meeting did not indicate that any change in its ruling would be made after Leonard Oil airs its case June 2.

AN ATTEMPT to close Tecumseh taverns at midnight Saturday failed when the ordinance was amended by a 6-2 vote.

The original ordinance, already having two readings, was amended to allow the taverns to close at 2 a.m., according to state law.

The clause to prohibit taverns from opening on Sunday was retained.

Re-appointed Kenneth Herrick and appointed Harold Easton to the hospital board.

Awarded the curb and gutter contract to W. J. Kloote, Jr.

THE LONG and SHORT of it

BY TOM RIORDAN

THE TALK IN THE RETAIL gasoline world continues to come back to "price war."

The last battle rolled up to the Lenawee county line and stopped there.

"Worse thing in the world that can happen," agree local operators—but they wake up in cold sweats as news begins about another war.

We'll agree that price-slashing doesn't benefit anyone, often can prove the downfall of small, independent operators.

Let's hope it never comes here.

☆

WHAT BETTER WAY TO RElax than see a big league ball game.

The gang at our shop agrees whole heartedly on this and so we're closing Thursday to see the Tigers and Yankees do battle in Detroit.

All wishes for sunny skies greatly appreciated.

☆

THE GIANT MACKINAC bridge is being dedicated June 26, 27 and 28.

Interest is really building up and folks planning to attend are advised to make arrangements immediately for sleeping accommodations.

There are 10,000 tourist beds in a 40-mile circle around the bridge according to the festival committee and they'll be going fast.

Board of Education Vote Will Be July 7

An election for one position on the Tecumseh board of education will be held July 7.

Interested candidates may obtain petitions at the office of James McDowell, superintendent of schools.

These must be signed by at least 50 property owners and not more than 75, then submitted before June 7.

Dr. Ralph Helzerman, whose current term of office is up at this time, will be running for re-election.

Dr. Helzerman has served on the board since 1946, has been secretary for 11 of those years.

Candidates must be 21, United States citizen, resident of the Tecumseh district 30 days preceeding the election and a property owner.

Siena Heights Registration Begins May 27

Registration for under-graduate summer school classes at Siena Heights is slated for May 27 and June 19 from 9 to 5.

Classes begin June 23 and continue daily to July 31.

Anticipating a summer school attendance of more than 1,000 and considering the extensive program of courses being offered, the administration is assigning some 100 faculty members.

These will teach more than 180 classes in 24 liberal arts and science fields.

Following the procedure of past years, the program planners have organized curricula to assist in-service teachers and professionals towards advance certification, improvement of status and credit work towards a higher degree.

Lectures and classes in each field are offered in sequence each consecutive summer until the pattern cycle is completed.

GLAD IT WASN'T ME — Sharon Schultz examines a mangled Plymouth, which was involved in a two-car crash Sunday afternoon on Britton highway. Its occupants, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Beekel of Cadmus, were hurt, Mrs. Beekel, 59, with a severe laceration on the head and internal injuries. Larry Kanous, 22, of rural Britton, driver of the other auto was ticketed by State Police for failure to yield the right-of-way.

Weekend Accidents Point Up Need for Safety-Checking Autos

There are many reasons for having your automobile Safety-Checked and the accident pictures in this week's paper help point up the fact better than mere words.

These were all taken of highway mishaps which happened in the area the past weekend. Although poor condition of the cars was not necessarily the determining factor, it might have been.

Tecumseh folks have a golden opportunity this week to help guard themselves against a vehicle defect endangering their lives and the lives of others while on the highway.

The annual Tecumseh Safety-Check, sponsored by service groups, car dealers and local garages is Friday and Saturday, along Pearl street just south of Chicago boulevard.

It's free and if your car passes 100%, you'll have an opportunity to share in $90 worth of gifts being given by area merchants.

Safety-Check times: Friday, 2 p.m. until dark. Saturday, 10 a.m. until dark.

A crew of five, under direction of Dick Boehmer, will converge on each vehicle, examining 10 vital organs. Owners will be promptly notified of danger points.

To help start the Safety-Check off on a festive footing and bring it to the attention of citizens, a parade will swing down Chicago boulevard Friday afternoon at 4.

The high school band will lead an array of junior baseball players in full uniforms, Boy and Girl Scouts, Brownies, new cars and house trailers.

Swimming Pool Opening May 30

Tecumseh's swimming pool will be open May 30, 31 and June 1, announces Carl Hale.

It closes again for four days, then opens for the summer June 5.

Hours are 2 until 5 in the afternoon and 6:15 until 9 in the evening.

Admission charges will be 15c for those 15 and younger and 30c for those 16 and over.

Swimming and life saving classes are planned for the summer.

☆

REGISTRATION for the life saving instruction — junior and senior — will be held until June 1. Signing up for regular swim classes comes later with details listed in The Herald.

Those wishing junior life saving must be between 12 and 15 and capable swimmers.

Senior life saving students have to be 16 or over and pass swimming tests.

Classes are going to be June 9 through 14, from 9 a.m. until noon and will cost $3.50.

See Mr. Hale or Vic Lawson to register.

Legionnaires Sell Poppies

Tecumseh residents and visitors will be invited to wear the bright red poppies made by disabled veterans in commemoration of their dead comrades this weekend, May 23 and 24.

Volunteer members of the American Legion Underwood-Orr Post and Auxiliary will receive donations in cannisters. The funds are used only for the rehabilitation of veterans and their families.

City Parking Survey Given to Committee

A survey on Tecumseh's downtown parking needs was turned over to the off-street parking committee Tuesday night.

Compiled by the Detroit consulting firm of Gibson and Killeen, it goes into great detail regarding present facilities and what the city could have.

Costs are not covered.

"Several things can be done immediately with little outlay of cash," explained Art Gibson, one of the firm's partners.

Primarily, he referred to a re-evaluation of present parking meter time limits, stating that the survey showed much loss of potential revenue from one-hour and two-hour spaces.

The partners emphasized that a comprehensive program be set up, then accomplish one segment of it each year, soon the job would be done.

Because of the survey's importance, The Herald will print it in a series of articles, beginning with next week's edition.

130 Take Part in Banquet for Moms, Daughters

"Walk the Christian Way" was the theme for an appropriate talk given by Mrs. Pearl Powers at the Mother-Daughter banquet held at the Friends Church Thursday evening.

One hundred thirty attended the affair when the men served the dinner.

Mrs. Jessie Brown gave the invocation and Ellen Brantingham the closing prayer.

Corsage awards were presented to Mrs. Oscar Meads for having the most daughters and to Mrs. James Brown for being the youngest mother.

Mrs. Ralph Comfort served as toastmistress and Mrs. Herbert Murphy and Mrs. Henry King were co-chairmen.

The toast to the daughters, was given by Mrs. De Arl Brugger and the responding toast to the mothers by Lois Brugger.

Other numbers on the program were a solo by Sharon Muhn, flute selections by Sharon Kelly and a piano selection by Ellen Brantingham.

Cubs Bicycle, Drink Root Beer

Cub Scouts of Den 8 Pack 4 enjoyed a bike hike Thursday afternoon accompanied by Mrs. Paul Wilcox, Mrs. Glenn Work and Mrs. Douglas Hall.

They traveled six miles and returned to the A & W Root Beer stand to partake of the free root beer.

Boys of this den are Randy Works, Douglas Wilcox, Gary Hall, Larry Becky, Ricky Shepherd and Barry Williamson.

One blowout and a skinned knee were the only casualties.

PREPARE FOR PARADE

The Brownies and Girl Scouts have been enjoying marching maneuvers conducted by Robert L. Custard and Robert G. Anderson in preparation for the Memorial Day Parade. The Senior Scouts are planning a float.

Mrs. Robert G. Anderson is chairman of the arrangements.

Mrs. Mitchell Installed in May 15 Ceremony

Mrs. Edward Mitchell of Holloway was installed as Department President of the Ladies Auxiliary Patriarch Militants of Michigan May 15 in the Hotel Pantlind of Grand Rapids.

Mrs. Mitchell was installed as Department Musician in January, 1950 and served every year as musician until elected Department Treasurer, May 17, 1956.

She joined the Faith Rebekah Lodge No. 36 of Blissfield on July 10, 1939 and held appointive offices each year until 1950-51 when she served as Noble Grand of that lodge.

She is a charter member of Adrian Auxiliary to Canton No. 8 of Adrian and served as president during the year of 1943-44.

Serving with Mrs. Mitchell in this area on the Department staff will be Mrs. LaVern Moore and Mrs. Charles Sherman of Blissfield and Mrs. Gregory Barrett of Monroe.

Mrs. Mitchell will be further honored at a banquet and reception to be held June 7 at the Tecumseh Baptist Youth House.

Watt: 'Thinking Determines One's Health, Welfare'

"Christian Science: The Healing Science of the Christ" was the subject of the lecture given in the First Baptist Church Friday evening under the combined auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist in Adrian and the Christian Science of Tecumseh.

James Watt of Washington D. C., a member of the Christian Science Board of Lectureship, was introduced by Mrs. Murray Day, First Reader of the Christian Science Society of Tecumseh.

He emphasized that physical disorders and afflictions of every kind can be proved powerless because they do not come from God, the sole source of all that really exists.

"Because God is eternal Life, Truth, Love," he declared, "He must manifest Himself in that which expresses His nature, and He therefore does not cause the sin, sickness or death of anyone,"

Mr. Watt held that the power of thought is of supreme concern to humanity. "Thought constitutes all the nobility and capacity—and all the limitation and hate—among men," he stated.

All good and evil thought externalizes itself according to its nature, he said, emphasizing that one's thinking determines one's health, welfare, and destiny.

With Tecumseh Teens

BY MARY V. SEAGER

THE GAA PRESERVED ITS perfect record in the League Playday scoring at Hillsdale.

The Playday is an annual event that has taken place every spring for the last four years and each time the Tecumseh girls have taken the trophy home.

Our bus left the school at 9:30 a.m. and arrived at Hillsdale around 11. All contestants ate lunch in the cafeteria and went to an assembly held in the gym. Three skits and an accordion solo were the entertainment.

After the assembly the teams went to their own sports areas. Teams participating were from Bedford, Hillsdale, Airport and Tecumseh.

The Tecumseh softball team captured first place with an 18 to 1 victory over Bedford and an 8 to 0 win over Hillsdale. Players were Joanne Wing, catcher; Jane Colgrove, pitcher; Sherry Tucker, first; Julia Boyce, second; Carol Kapnick, short; Marcia Kunkle, third; Ann Kempf, center field; Jackie Barth, left field; Camilla Grigg, right field; Karen Marine, sub and center fields.

The volleyball team also took a first with scores of 50 to 15 over Airport, and 29 to 17 over Bedford. On the volleyball team were Marilou Layton, Martha Owen, Carol Spangler, Georgia Dinse, Rodna Jepson, Joan Johnson, Sharon Ries, Linda Hanna and Gloria Sweet.

The shuffleboard twosome of Pat Bertenslager and Loah Nichols took a third place.

Joyce Partridge and Grace Dennis captured a first for Tecumseh with their powerful table tennis game.

In badminton Peggy Robinette and Astride Freimanis also won a first place.

In bowling, Janette Buehrer and Nancy Smith took a fifth place. The golf team of Jane Dillon and Mary Colgrove took a third place for golf. Evelyn Beland took a fourth in archery with Carolyn Bartels as the other archer.

The track and field activities consisted of 50-yard dash, baton relay, dash and throw, broad jump, and softball throw.

Carolyn Pease placed fourth and Vickey Baughey fifth in the dash for Tecumseh.

The Indian baton relay team of Yvonne Morningstar, Karen Walker, Suzie Rohweder and Kendra Ringman was first.

Our broad jumper, Jane Spreeman, leaped 13 feet 10 inches to take first. Sandra Howard was third.

The dash and throw team of Kendra Frost, Barbara Goodin, Linda Godfrey and Judy Mangrum received third place ribbons.

The final scoring ran like this: Tecumseh, 45; Hillsdale, 43; Bedford, 38 and Airport High School, 17.

After the sports activities were over all the teams went swimming in the Hillsdale College pool and the awards were presented.

Thanks to Miss Carol Sheffer and the GAA, Tecumseh keeps that trophy for another year.

FIRST GAA MOTHER-DAUGHTER Banquet was held Monday.

There were attractive centerpieces of wild flowers at each table. After dinner was eaten the outgoing officers were introduced by Miss Carol Sheffer.

Carol Kapnick, the president, and then Miss Sheffer spoke about the benefits gained from belonging to GAA.

New officers for the coming year were elected by balloting at the banquet. They are Grace Dennis, president; Sandra Howard, vice-president; Mary Colgrove, secretary; Mary Lou McConnell, treasurer.

Chevrons were given to 30 girls who had earned more than 200 points for GAA participation. Pins went to 22 girls who had earned between 500 and 750 points.

Eleven girls received letters this year for earning over 750.

Special awards for over 1,200 points went to Jane Colgrove, Joan Johnston, Carol Kapnick and Yvonne Morningstor.

300 Attend Farm Bureau Affair

Colorful spring flowers made a beautiful setting for the Mother-Daughter banquet served to 300 at the Madison School May 6.

The Farm Bureau Women's Committee of Lenawee County sponsored the event.

The Farm Bureau men served the meal supervised by Mrs. Electra Wilcox which was prepared by the women from across the county.

Mrs. Wilson Sawyer of Holloway was mistress of ceremonies and Mrs. Harlan Wilt of Palmyra gave the invocation.

☆

MRS. SAWYER gave an original poem and then introduced Mrs. John Keller of Jasper.

Mrs. Garner Williams of Jasper gave an interesting insight into the lives of Lenawee women from the telephone operator's point of view.

The toast to the Mothers was given by Lynn Halley of Clinton. Lynn's mother, Mrs. Martin Halley, responded with the toast to the daughters.

Rev. Mrs. L. M. Davis of Adrian was the speaker for the evening. Mrs. Marge Karkar of Lansing, the director of Farm Bureau Women of the State of Michigan, made a few comments.

☆

A BEAUTIFUL floral tribute Binations were Mrs. Lawrence Smoll and daughter, Alice, of Palmyra who sang a duet and Eileen Thompson playing a flute solo accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Carl Thompson from Clayton.

was presented to the oldest mother present, Mrs. Stella Case of Adrian.

The youngest mother, Mrs. Dale Goetz, was given a rose bowl as was Mrs. Garner Williams for having the most daughters present—four.

The Knisel sisters, Ruth, Janice and Margaret of Blissfield, rendered a song tribute to mothers.

Mother-daughter musical comThe closing benediction was given by Mrs. Victor Fogelsong of Ogden.

Lenawee County Committee Women are grateful for the splendid cooperation of the men and women of the Farm Bureau.

Luncheon Features Musical Program

Fifty-one ladies attended the "Breath of Spring" luncheon and musical program at the Country Club Wednesday.

They were entertained by Marilyn Helzerman with her harp, Mrs. Ralph Helzerman with her violin and Jackie Rucker singing two vocal numbers, "I'm in the Mood for Love" and "Scarlet Ribbons."

Marilyn played "I Wonder as I Wander" and "First Prelude" by Harry Chalmers and accompanied both Jackie and Mrs. Helzerman who played "Ave Maria."

Jackie will graduate from Tecumseh high school in June and has been working with the Michigan Chorale, which will tour Europe this summer.

They will leave June 21, landing in Amsterdam for the first scheduled engagement. The tour is concluded at the Brussels Fair.

Marilyn is a junior and has studied for the past two years with Velma Foude at Michigan State University. She has attended the Youth Music program at MSU for two summers.

Following the musicale, arrangements were made for nine tables of cards. The winner at bridge was Mrs. Larry Larsen and at Canasta, Mrs. Archie Spohr.

Table prizes were awarded to Mrs. Kenneth Hall, Mrs. Paul Ammer, Mrs. C. O. Butler, Mrs. R. H. Moore, Mrs. H. A. Everhart, Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw, Mrs. Ray Schlegel and Mrs. Robert Murray.

Stork Shower Honors Pair

Mrs. Russell Hyatt and Mrs. Tom Ross, Manchester, were guests of honor at a stork shower ere recently given by the employees of the traffic department of the General Telephone Company.

Mrs. Ilah Meads was hostess for the event assisted by Mrs. Ronald Richardson. The guests enjoyed a potluck dinner and playing games.

The guests, other than employees of the traffic department included Mrs. Charles Hyatt, Mrs. James Barton, Mrs. Edward Ross, Mrs. Leo Suydam, Mrs. Wendall Woods, Mrs. Douglas Sprague, Mrs. Gilbert Nighswander, Mrs. Thomas Schultz and Mrs. Loren Gall and Vickie Johnson, Gladys Bowen and Marie Phillips.

Miss Bowen and Miss Phillips, who is clerk at the telephone company, each made and beautifully decorated cakes.

BRITTON GOODWILL

William Kuster of Britton will be the representative for the Goodwill Industries in that area. His number is Britton 2121.

Anyone having donations for the organization may call for pick up. The trucks will be in the area Tuesday, May 27.

West Tecumseh PTA Has Been Disbanded

There will be no meeting of the West Tecumseh PTA as previously scheduled for May 28, due to the disbanding of rural schools.

Children are now being sent to schools already having PTAs or to the new schools which will have them next fall.

Mrs. Merle McVay and Mrs. Robert Osburn of Tipton have been appointed to supervise the organization of the PTA in the Tipton area schools.

Mrs. Thomas Gallant, Jr. expresses thanks to her officers and the members for their cooperation during the past year.

Wild First Inning Produces 14 Runs

Tecumseh scored 14 runs in the first inning Thursday and then coasted to a 15 to 0 win over Bedford as Bob Wilkins, Bob O'Neill, Steve Kruger and Dennis Harrison combined their talents to hurl a no-hitter.

Wilkins, who got credit for the win, pitched the first four innings, walking one, hitting one batsman and striking out six.

O'Neill hurled the fifth inning and got the Mules out in order, striking out one.

Kruger came on for the sixth, walked two men before finally getting them out. He also struck out one.

Dennis Harrison was on the mound for the seventh and turned in one of the finest performances of the day by striking out the side.

Karl Cranston and Jim Curth led the first-inning assault with two hits apiece, Cranston had a double and single, driving in three runs while Curth had two singles and batted in one run.

Steve Kruger had a perfect day at the plate for the Indians as he singled and walked three times in four trips.

75-Year-Old Man Dies in His Sleep

Funeral services were held Tuesday at the Niblick Funeral Home in Britton for David W. Bush who passed away Friday morning in his sleep at his home in Macon. He was 75 years old.

Born September 18, 1882 at Bushton, Ill., he was married August 6, 1902, to Maude Stephens. They moved in 1920 to a farm near Macon and in 1946 to their present home.

Mr. Bush was employed at the Clinton Woolen Mills until last October. He was a member of the Britton Congregational church and the Tecumseh Grange.

Surviving besides his widow are two children, Mrs. Carl McClue of Britton and Leland D. Bush of Tecumseh; eight grand children; 12 great grandchildren; and a sister, Mrs. Clarence Ernst of McLeansboro, Ill. A sister, brother and two grandchildren preceded him in death.

Burial was in the Macon cemetery.

FETE YOUNGSTERS

Mrs. Thomas Gallant, Jr. and Mrs. Donald Gallant entertained at a cooperative dinner Tuesday evening in honor of the birthdays of Thomas Gallant, Jr. and Karen Gallant, daughter of the Donald Gallants. The table was centered by a beautifully decorated cake made by Mrs. Thomas Gallant, Sr. of Adrian.

ENTERS HOSPITAL

Mrs. Frances Roe entered St. Joseph's Hospital, Ann Arbor, Tuesday evening. Mrs. Roe's room number is 3017.

Thank You

For the wonderful grand opening and patronage which we've received during our first few days in Tecumseh.

May we continue to serve you & your family throughout the season.

100 Attend Art Show

Approximately 100 art enthusiasts were treated to a public showing Saturday afternoon of works by Stella Bennet Dennis, Russell Steinke and Tom Riordan.

In a lovely setting of the garden of Dr. and Mrs. Robert J. Murray, 706 W. Pottawatamie, Mrs. Dennis displayed samples of scrolls, diplomas, certificates of appreciation, letterhead and book prefaces.

Mr. Steinke's contributions were oil paintings, hung along a weathered garden fence against a background of white cherry blossoms in full bloom.

Shown were landscapes, portraits and still-lifes.

The display by Mr. Riordan included 11 x 14 enlargements of pictures he has taken for The Herald. These were mounted, placed on folding chairs, and scattered under the trees.

☆

A VISITOR to the city the day of the show, Ernest Beimer of Ludington, dropped in, explained he had some photos and was invited to display them. They were striking harbor and beach shots, made near his home.

Mrs. Murray, who had conceived the art show idea, had complete cooperation from the weather man as brilliant sun flooded her garden.

Because of the response, plans are already underway for a full-scale event for next year, which will include exhibitions by many more.

Chairman of this year's show was Mrs. O. W. Farver, who was assisted by Mrs. H. H. Hanna, Mrs. C. L. Cook, Mrs. Dick Dustin, Mrs. Robert Laidlaw, Mrs. Tom Corkery and Mrs. Tom Riordan.

Mrs. Hoyt Whelan and Mrs. J. W. Beardsley served coffee and tea from a silver service.

Alice Newman Crowned Queen of Homemakers

Alice Neuman was crowned Miss FHA at the fashion show, presented by the Future Homemakers of America and the home economics department at the high school Thursday.

The gymnasium was transformed to an outdoor Paris Cafe with spring flowers including lilacs and dogwood.

Barbara Snyder presided as mistress of ceremonies as the girls modeled cotton blouses, skirts, formals, tailored suits and sack dresses they have made during the year.

Those in the queen's court are Barbara Gebarowski, Donna Roe, Kay Schultz and Olive Grace. Each received a gift from the chapter.

Officers for the 1958-59 are:

President — Barbara Gebarowski.

Vice-president—Kay Schultz.
Secretary—Frances Short.
Treasurer—Louise Pennington.
Historian—Sheila Kirk.
Reporter—Pat DeLisle.
Song leader—Carolyn Dennis.
Student council representative—Jo Ann Robinson.
Alternate council representative—Karen Golat.
Chapter mother — Mrs. Stella Dennis.

Mrs. Charles Brown is the advisor.

Freak Accident Burns Youngster

In a freak home accident last week, Kay Lincoln, 2½-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Lincoln, was badly burned on her body and legs.

Mrs. Lincoln was making iced tea, had filled the same glass pitcher she had used many years for the task, when it exploded.

The youngster was cut on the upper lip by flying glass, scalded by the hot water.

She was hospitalized five days, released Monday.

'Hire Now' Drive Gets Full Support of City Mayor

Mayor Hugh Hanna of Tecumseh threw his full support behind the "HIRE NOW" campaign to put local people back to work, and attempt to reverse the recent upward trend of unemployment.

Tecumseh and Lenawee county now have approximately 4,000 people unemployed, and it is hoped that the "Hire Now" campaign will reduce this number substantially.

In addition to returning local people to employment through the campaign, which is statewide in scope, Mayor Hanna said a substantial return to work may help to spark a trend toward a national upswing.

"The 'Hire Now' campaign," Mayor Hanna declared, 'is sponsored by the Michigan Employment Security Commission in a wide-spread effort to restore as many people as possible to jobs, thereby increasing purchasing power throughout the state.

"The return of purchasing power, of course, would speedily restore our economy to its normal balance. I heartily endorse this campaign, and pledge the administration of the City of Tecumseh to do everything possible to make this drive a success."

The Michigan State Employment Service, Branch Office in Adrian has 2,817 work applications on file. Many are residents of Tecumseh.

Call or write the Employment Office if you are unable to find someone to do a certain job, whether the job be for a day, a week, a month or permanent.

Fire Destroys Pond Boat House

The fire department answered three calls last week.

The storm Saturday apparently shorted out the neon advertising sign in front of Des Ermias Furniture Store causing an estimated $200 damage.

A boat house on Globe Pond, owned by Oliver Blum of Ypsilanti, roused the smoke eaters Monday. Both the boat house and metal boat housed therein were destroyed.

A blower motor on the furnace in Harold Coons' home, 218 W. Chicago boulevard Tuesday burned out to the extent of about $30 damage.

Kruse Takes Second Place in Regionals

Jerry Kruse was Tecumseh's big gun in the state regionals at Ann Arbor Saturday as he took a second in the mile with a time of 4:59, which was right behind the winner, Joe Siech of Monroe CC, who ran it in 4:58.4.

As a team, the Indians finished sixth.

Ray Miller placed in two events, taking a third in the broad jump and then tying for third in the high jump at 5'6".

The Medley relay team composed of Ron Johnson, Bob Marsh, Jim Mangrum, and Bob Long placed fourth while the 880-yard relay team composed of Al Dick, Mangrum, Marsh and Gary Elliott finished fifth.

Gary Elliott was third in his heat of the 440-yard dash, Al Dick took fifth in the low hurdles and Tom Walters was fifth in the high hurdles.

Golfers Vie for State Title

BY GLENN WILLIAMS

Led by senior Max Smiths' 77, Tecumseh high's golf team posted a 324 team score and captured first place in the regional meet held at Brighton last Friday.

Bloomfield Hills was second with a 333 total.

Ten teams entered the meet. The first three qualified for the state finals Saturday at Kalamazoo.

Smith finished the first nine holes with a 38 and then came back with a 39, his 77, second low medalist of the meet.

Joe Kelley of West Bloomfield Hills was medalist with a 75.

Other Tecumseh scores were: John Elliott, 41-39—80; Dave Lamkin, 41-41—82; and Dick Baker, 42-43—85.

Seventeen teams qualified for the state meet.

According to coach Doug Murdock, there are about six teams which are capable of shooting 320 or better — host Kalamazoo State high, Tecumseh, Mt. Pleasant, Hillsdale, East Lansing, Bloomfield Hills and Jackson St. Johns.

LAST SATURDAY, coach Murdock took the team to Kalamazoo for a practice round and was quite pleased with the performance of his charges.

In the past four years, Tecumseh has won the regional meet twice, placed third once and fourth another year. The Indians were third in the state finals two years ago and sixth last year.

'Stars' Celebrate 70th Birthday

Tecumseh Chapter No. 51, Order of Eastern Star celebrated its 70th anniversary Saturday evening, at the Masonic Hall with 150 members and guests attending.

Friendship Night was observed with the degrees of the Order conferred on Mr. and Mrs. Duane Steele and Mr. and Mrs. John R. Ladd.

Guest officers exemplifying the degrees were: Mrs. Luella Carroll and Mrs. Bessie Setzler, Blissfield; Mrs. Adah Perkins and Mrs. Carolyn Townsend, Addison; Mrs. Beatrice Ehlinger and John Van Valkenburg, Morenci.

Dorman Stout, Clayton; August Gesell, Monroe; Mrs. Hazel Brooks, Onsted; Mrs. Katherine DeGroot and Mrs. Gladys Calhoun, Palmyra; Mrs. Ella Braun, Adrian; Mrs. Lois Solomon and Mrs. Vita Abbott, Hudson; Mrs. Ollie Cook, Dundee; Mrs. Cora Frayer and Ray Ousterhout, Deerfield; Mrs. Clara Greenman, Montpelier, Ohio; Mrs. Shirley Campbell, Clinton and Mrs. Kenton Hunt, Tecumseh.

☆

GUESTS ESCORTED to the East and introduced included Mrs. Alice Lee, Addison; Mrs. Lillian Stephenson, Dundee; Grand Representative of the Grand Chapter of Michigan; Worthy Matrons, Mesdames; Marge Frayer, Bernice Geiger, Harriett Reed, Iris Stout, Alimina Hunt, Mary Van Valkenburg, Carolyn Townsend and Luella Carroll.

Worthy Patrons John Van-Valkenburg, Dorman Stout, Robert Hunt and Rupert Joslyn from the county and Mr. and Mrs. Deetz, worthy matron and patron from Montpelier, Ohio.

Also escorted and introduced were Lenawee County Association officers. Additional guests were present from Otseko and Toledo, Ohio.

A five-tiered anniversary cake with the base in the shape of a star and with the numerals 70 on the top was baked and decorated by the worthy matron, Mrs. Melvin Smith and Mrs. Harry Beland.

☆

A CANDLE lighting ceremony with the cake on the Altar was performed by the Tecumseh officers, assisted by past matron, Mrs. Fred Dickinson.

Mrs. Thomas Gallant, soloist, sang several selections during the evening and Mrs. LaVern Russell and Mrs. Ralph Westgate were in charge of the guest book.

Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Kenton Hunt and committee with Mrs. Donald Labounty and Cecile Viele cutting and serving cake.

The chapter room was decorated with white lilacs and red roses in keeping with the worthy matron's colors. Mrs. Stanley Miller was in charge of dining room decorations which included individual white nut cups in star shape with a red 70 in each and a vial of flowers in the star point colors.

Products Man Injured Friday in Auto Wreck

A Tecumseh Products second-shift man, Richard Meyers of Hanover, Michigan was hospitalized as a result of a two-car collision Friday at almost midnight in front of the A&W drive-in.

Meyers was riding in a car driven by Charles Cross of Horton, Michigan, returning home following work.

Their vehicle was struck by Paul Klanke of rural Adrian, who said he didn't see the Cross car until it was too late.

Klanke was ticketed by Tecumseh police for an improper left turn.

Meyers, who suffered head injuries and body bruises, was hospitalized. No one also was seriously hurt.

Union Hurler Vallad Fans 13

The Tecumseh City League softball season opened Monday night at Recreation Field with the Tecumseh Products Union team blasting Clinton 15-1, and defending champs, John & Bill's breezing past Macon, 17-3.

Union hurler Orren Vallad tossed a three-hitter while striking out 13 Clinton batters. Eddie Hadden led the Union batters with three hits in four trips and teammate Joe Petrovich belted a home run and single.

In John & Bill's victory, Wayne Thorpe and Hayden Mullins combined their pitching talents to hold Macon to four hits while their teammates were pounding out 12.

Jerry Barton, Russ Hyatt and Charlie Owens each had two safeties for John & Bill's, while Rev. Don Bates and Glenn Williams had two each for the losers.

One of Rev. Bates' hits was a home run in the first inning with two men on base, which accounted for all three Macon runs.

Confirmation Will Be Sunday

Confirmation is planned by the Grace Lutheran English Church Sunday at the 10:30 service.

The class of four to be confirmed are Glenn Buckmaster, Virginia Greiman, Jerry Kapnick and Richard Kaiser.

The theme of the sermon will be "A Christian's Joy."

The 8:30 and 9:30 services will take place as usual with the Rev. A. Jeschke officiating.

Eleanor Marie Handley Married Saturday Night

The Macon Methodist Church was decorated with candles and palms for the wedding of Eleanor Marie Handley and Gerald Fay Price, Saturday evening.

The bride is the daughter of Edward and Margaret Handley of Ridge road, Britton, and the groom is the son of Louis Price of Milan.

Rev. Donald Bates performed the ceremony before 150 guests, as the bride was given in marriage by her father.

She chose a ballerina-length gown of white lace and wore a finger-tip veil and pearls. Her bridal bouquet was of white carnations and lily of the valley.

Linda Horton attended her sister, wearing a ballerina-length gown of pink net with a white hat and carrying pink carnations.

Ronald Ellis of Dundee was best man and Linford Price and Howard Heckman seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Handley wore a light blue dress with pink accessories and carnation corsage.

A reception was held at the Tecumseh Grange Hall for 200 guests following the ceremony. Lilacs decorated the bride's table.

Dorothy Lorenza and Mary Price cut the bride's cake and Donna Price had charge of the guest book.

For their wedding trip into Northern Michigan, the new Mrs. Price wore a light blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The bride is a graduate of Milan high school and the groom graduated from Dundee high school. They will make their home at 9210 Clinton-Macon Road.

Guests attended the wedding from Milan, Dundee, Britton, Saline, Clinton, Adrian, Brighton, Ida, Monroe, Toledo, Ohio, Blissfield, Detroit and Tecumseh.

TECUMSEH HERALD PHOTO:

LOADING UP—Fred Feight, who is taking part in the adult farmers class corn-growing contest, loads fertilizer into his planter as instructor Paul Burns and Fred's son, Doug, watch. Doug will be five in July, is going to attend kindergarten at the new Tecumseh Acres school next fall.

Corn Growing Contest Is Adult Farm Class Project

Fifteen Tecumseh area farmers are competing in a corn-growing contest sponsored by the adult farmers' class.

Each contestant, who has paid $1 entry fee for purchase of a trophy for the winner, will plant one acre for the competition.

Object of the contest, explains instructor Paul Burns, is to learn about different methods of growing corn and to obtain the highest possible yield.

The farmers may use any cultural practices they wish and as much fertilizer, but may not employ irrigation.

Mr. Burns reports that some are using once-over tillage and others the conventional plow-fit-plant method.

☆

IN THE FALL, the corn will be picked by Mr. Burns and Wilfred Kaufman, a member of the class. They'll do 1/100th of each acre, standard practice in such competition. Hand picking avoids picker losses. The moisture will be converted to 15%.

The farmers will tour each of the one-acre plots next fall and learn what practices each of them used.

Fred Feight, one of the contestants who is pictured with this article, has 110 acres of corn this year — besides his one-acre test setup.

All told, he farms 300 acres.

FRED USES Pioneer 371 seed corn and is fertilizing with 200 lbs. 5-10-20 commercial fertilizer.

He employs conventional corn planting methods, except where the soil is mellow, then uses once-over tillage. He'll side-dress the corn with 50 lbs. actual nitrogen per acre. He uses a four-row planter and cultivator on all his corn ground.

Fred is 25-years-old, married to the former Jeannette Daniels. They have four children.

The young couple has 30 milk cows and 27 steers.

Tecumseh Students Elected at Ferris

Dale Tingley and Gary Marsh were recently elected by the student body as senators to represent the Commerce Division of the student government at Ferris Institute in Big Rapids.

Dale is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Tingley of 219 South Pearl street and Gary is the son of Dr. and Mrs. R. G. B. Marsh of 610 West Logan street.

It HAPPENED In MACON

By MRS. HAMILTON MOORE
Phone 10-F-3

Rev. Donald Bates installed the officers of the Women's Society of Christian Service and the Alice Jane Circle during the church service.

Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore presented Mrs. Herbert Morden with a past president's pin. She has served as president for the past four years. Then Mrs. Morden honored Mrs. Clarence Hall and Mrs. Ray Gilmore with life membership pins and certificates for their long and faithful service.

Richard Van Valkenburg assisted during the service. Immediately following the service a fellowship dinner was served to 85. The dining room was decorated in bouquets of lilacs and tulips.

√

Ladies of the community will meet May 28 in the church dining room to make wreaths for the Memorial Day Services at the Macon cemetery.

It will be held at 2 on Sunday, June 8. In case of rain it will be held in the Macon Methodist Church. There will also be a church service at 11 on June 1.

√

A planning meeting for the Vacation Bible School was held on Monday afternoon. It was decided to have it from 9 to 11 from June 16 and will close with a program on Sunday morning during the Sunday School hour.

All children of the community are cordially invited, from the ages of 4½ through junior high.

The kindergarten teacher will be Mrs. Harold Ruhl; first grade, Mrs. Virginia Thomas; second grade, Mrs. Russell Collins; third grade, Mrs. Betty Wedemeyer; fourth grade, Mrs. Karen Miller; fifth and sixth grades, Mrs. Evelyn and Mrs. Rosann Vollmer; junior high, Mrs. Helen Williams. The helpers will be listed later.

√

The May picnic dinner of the Macon Hobby Club was held in the yard of Mrs. Mildred Moore. Twenty-four ladies and five children enjoyed the dinner. Mrs. Ruth Howell, the chairman, and Mrs. Frances Collins presented a skit on "Telephone Conversation." Then a business meeting was held. Mrs. Truman Jordan was selected as chairman for the coming year. Mrs. Phyllis Thomas and Mrs. Reva Godfrey will be co-chairmen.

It was decided that members are to notify the hostess if she is unable to attend the meeting. The group will take a vacation until the third week in September, when members will weave bun baskets and trays. Anyone wishing to make one is to notify Mrs. Frances Collins and she will order the material. The calendar for the coming year was planned.

√

The Macon Birthday Club met with Mrs. Helen Downing in Britton. They honored those whose birthdays were in May, with a supper at 6.

√

Mrs. Janet Gorton opened her home for the Alice Jane Circle on Tuesday evening. Several ladies volunteered to furnish fancy sandwiches and cakes for the annual tea to be held at the church on June 12. Mrs. Reva Godfrey had the program. The hostess served refreshments.

√

Mrs. Harold Yoder spent Saturday in Detroit visiting a school classmate, Sister Margaret Eileen at Holy Angels Convent.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hagens have returned from an extended visit through the western states. They also visited their son and his family in Colorado.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Van Valkenburg of Tecumseh, Mrs. Cora Sherwood of Rushville, Indiana and Mrs. Mary Van Valkenburg were in Holland for the Tulip Festival on Saturday.

Mrs. Cora Sherwood of Rushville, Indiana, Mrs. Mary Howell, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Van Valkenburg were Wednesday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Van Valkenburg in Tecumseh. In the afternoon they went to the Hidden Lake Gardens.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Travis and May Baker were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Gassett of Dearborn at the Mayflower Hotel in Plymouth.

√

Jimmie Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Collins, has been ill with pneumonia.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Zearl Horton entertained his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Palmer of Denver, Colorado, for supper on Friday.

√

Mrs. Troy Hicks was operated on for appendicitis on Friday evening in the Herrick Memorial Hospital.

√

Mrs. Ollie Jordan has returned home from a vacation in Missouri and Oklahoma.

√

The community was saddened by the death of David Bush on Friday morning. He was buried in the Macon Cemetery.

√

Elmer Hintz is spending some time with his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hintz.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Damon and family of Tecumseh spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hall, and attended church in Macon.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Carothers of Metamora, Ohio, attended the Handley-Price wedding on Saturday evening and visited their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Gilmore.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bigelow entertained 35 friends Saturday evening. It was a groom shower in honor of John Barrows of Detroit. His marriage to Ruby Bennett of Detroit will take place on June 12. A take off on "This Is Your Life John" was presented with several of the guests taking part. They were presented with a scrapbook and a bouquet of white ribbon and green backs. The guests were served refreshments by Janice Ivan of Britton, Rebekah, Bob and Bill Bigelow. The guests were from Detroit, Ann Arbor, Byron, Dundee, Tecumseh, Milan, Clinton and Macon vicinity.

√

Mrs. Rose Simpson of Dearborn was a weekend guest of her sister, Mrs. Jennie Younglove.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Miller entertained their families and their friends Sunday. It was in honor of Donna, Annetta and Ronald Miller who were Confirmed in the Lutheran Church on Ridge Highway. A dinner was served in the church dining room. The tables were centered with large bouquets of spring flowers.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bigelow and daughters called Sunday afternoon on Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bake in Tipton. They also went to the Hidden Lake Gardens.

Rev. Walworth Is Appointed

Rev. George E. Walworth, Tecumseh pastor, has been elected a commissioner to the General Assembly of the new United Presbyterian Church in the USA, to be held in Pittsburgh, May 28 to June 4.

The historic event will mark the formation of the new church through the merger of the 170-year-old Presbyterian Church in the USA and the 100-year-old United Presbyterian Church of North America.

As the supreme governing body of the church, the General Assembly will act on all details of bringing together the two denominations and planning the future program of the new united church with its more than three million members.

Pick Miss Tecumseh

Miss Tecumseh of 1958 will be selected June 7 at the Arthur Murray Studios, 1311 S. University, Ann Arbor. Applications are available by writing Arthur Murray in Ann Arbor, or Phone NOrmandy 2-5539 for information.

National rules require that all applications be in by June 4, 1958.

Bedford Wins League Track Meet as Records Tumble

By GLENN WILLIAMS

In the Southeastern League track meet held here May 14, Bedford's Kicking Mules completely dominated the field events in the afternoon and then coasted to the championship by increasing their lead in the evening running events.

Tecumseh finished third, one point behind runner-up Monroe Catholic Central.

Bedford took 1-2-3 in the shot put; second in the broad jump; a first and a tie for fourth in the high jump; and a tie for first and a third in the pole vault, giving them 29½ points in the field events to Monroe CC's 12½, Tecumseh's 10½ and Airport's 7½.

Bedford had two double winners in Bill Hammerstein and Rick Warren. Hammerstein took the high jump with a leap of 5'8" and the 880-yard run with a time of 2:06.3—both new records.

The high jump record was held by Max MacLaury of Tecumseh, 5'7" made in 1954 and the 880-yard run mark of 2:06.5 set by Tom Baldwin, also a Tecumseh man, in the same season.

Warren captured first in both hurdle events.

Other Bedford winners were Doug Snyder in the shot put; Roy Knaggs who tied for first with George Heil of Monroe CC in the pole vault and Bill Wilkinson in the mile run. Knaggs and Heil equaled the record in the pole vault with leaps of 10'3".

Grant Stewart, Airport Jet speedster, captured both the 100 and 220-yard dashes. Due to a mixup, the 100-yard dash was actually run 110 yards, thus Stewart's time of 11.5.

Jack Calandra, Monroe Catholic Central, captured the broad jump with a record leap of 20'6⅞". The old mark was 19'7" was set by Ritchie Davis of Tecumseh in 1954.

George Heil of Catholic Central tied for first in the pole vault, but lost the flip of the coin for first place ribbon and had to settle for second.

Tecumseh's medley relay team brought home the Indians' only first place ribbon with a record-breaking performance. Their time of 2:40 was two-tenths of a second faster than the 2:40.2 set by Hillsdale in 1957. The team was composed of Ron Johnson, Mike Walters, Ray Miller and Bob Long.

Ray Miller and Mike Walters led the Tecumseh "placers" as each finished in two events, besides running on the winning medley team.

Miller took a fourth in the broad jump and tied for fourth in the high jump.

Walters also tied for fourth in the high jump and was fifth in the broad jump.

☆

JIM MANGRUM WAS TECUMSEH'S only second place winner, this in the 220-yard dash. Dick French came close as he tied for second in the high jump with Leforce of Airport.

Alfred Dick was third in the 100-yard dash and took a fifth in the low hurdles, while Bob Marsh also placed twice, running fourth in the 220-yard dash and fifth in the 100.

Gary Elliott had a third in the 440-yard dash, while Jerry Kruse and Roger Mead took fourth in the mile run and the low hurdles, respectively.

Kick-Off Breakfast Opens Ladies Season

A monthly schedule of golfing events has been adopted by the ladies with a kick-off breakfast planned at the Country Club on Wednesday, June 4.

The monthly schedule replaces the seasonal plan used in the past.

An added feature to the program is a one-half hour group instruction period for the beginners with professional Leo Bishop, while the others are participating in the regular events.

Fifty to sixty ladies are expected for the breakfast.

The golfing committee for the season is:

Ruth Hanna, Pauline Moore, co-chairmen; Helen Sisson, Marge Rohweder, handicap; Rozella Rice, publicity; June Macbeth, Clara Easton, Ayesha Laidlaw, events; Ernie Andrews, secretary; and Ellen Roll, treasurer.

The June schedule is—June 4, breakfast, low gross and low net; June 11, blind holes, Eve Bowen, chairman, assisted by Peg Touborg, Eddie Hanna; June 18, inter-club match at Adrian; June 25, best ball threesome, Mildred Butler, chairman, assisted by Gerry Haight and Laura Bishop.

Cubs Make Tour of Herald Office

Dens 16 and 3 of Pack 73 Cub Scouts visited The Tecumseh Herald office Thursday afternoon. They were accompanied by their den mothers, Mrs. Byron Goodman, Mrs. Neri Collingsworth, Mrs. Edgar Relyea and Mrs. Roland Boyers.

Mike Schultz, John Goodman, Jim Goodman, Carl Collingsworth, Lee Selders, Sheldon Pease, Eugene and Robert Boyers, Rickie Gartee, Lonnie Holdridge, Gilbert Relyea, Larry Kiser, Wayne Brooks and Charles Saling, den chief made up the group.

Rickey and Joan Boyers and Franklin Relyea accompanied older brothers on the junket.

Baker Presented Pin at Gathering

Ridgeway area PTA met Wednesday with new officers installed.

James Baker was presented with the past president's pin and recognized for doing a good job of starting this PTA.

A vote of thanks was given to Earl Green for his help and support.

Trooper Lane, from the Clinton State Police Post, gave a talk on safety.

Meetings will resume in September at the Ridgeway school.

Postal Folks Proud of New Equipment

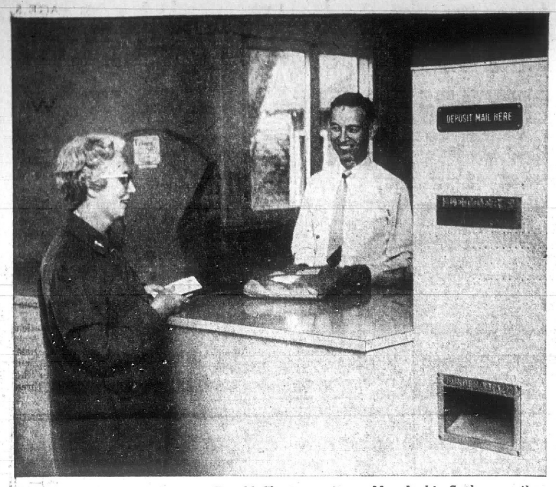
BRITTON—Folks in this community's post office are certainly proud of their new furnishings.

Gone are the old "call boxes"—in their place 170 lock boxes of the latest design.

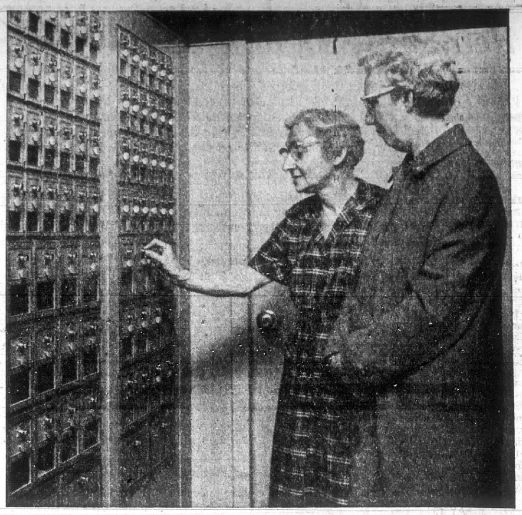
The ancient "caged" effect is also a thing of the past with a sleek, waist-high counter permitting postal workers to see out and patrons to see in.

There's also a new writing desk for customers and a postal scale which gives complete data for mailing costs to every zone. A new safe holds office valuables.

"It took two years to get the new equipment," states post master Ronald Cheever, who had to patiently await considerable government red tape to be trimmed.



NEW COUNTER — Postmaster Ronald Cheever waits on Mrs. Archie Spohr over the new counter, recently installed in the Britton post office.



HERE'S HOW — Edna Miller (left), clerk in the Britton post office for 32 years, shows Mrs. Archie Spohr how to unlock the new boxes, which are now part of the setup there.

TRUCKS HELP MAKE IT SO

Whether it's Michigan's wonderful water resources or her great education facilities — twin themes of this year's Michigan Week — the benefits to the people are more far-reaching because of motor transport. For trucks are indeed Michigan's supply lines, transporting everything we eat, wear, or use to every corner of the State — enabling her people to live, shop, do business wherever they please, opening new horizons to new generations . . . Next time you see a truck on the road, remember — it's working for you, serving you, too, so you can say, "It's great to live in Michigan!"

Trees Require Lots of Water

A mature tree loses a lot of water every day through its leaves, and may need 500 pounds of water to grow one pound of dry weight.

It's just as necessary to supply water to the tree as it is to fertilize it, points out Harold Schick, extension specialist in part management at Michigan State University.

Water all trees when needed, soaking the ground to a depth of six inches. This means running a garden hose for at least one hour around the roots of the tree.

Best to De-Worm Mother Sheep Now

That new crop of spring lambs will do better this season if their mothers are treated for worms before the flock is turned out on pasture.

Graydon Blank, extension sheep specialist at Michigan State University, recommends a parasite control program which follows the calendar. He emphasizes that a regular program is a must for good control.

Right now, at the start of the pasture season, is the time to drench adult sheep with regular phenothiazine. If the flock is already on pasture, do the job as soon as ewes have finished lambing.

It's important to keep stomach and nodular worms from building up in the lambs if gains are to be put on efficiently, Blank reminds.

☆

TO HOLD WORMS down after drenching, keep a mixture of phenothiazine and trace mineralized salt before the flock each day during the pasture season. A self-feeding, weather-proof box is ideal. Building plans are available at the county extension office in the Courthouse, Adrian.

Mix one pound of phenothiazine with 12 to 14 pounds of the salt. Trace mineralized salt is best because it provides needed minerals such as iodine and cobalt, according to Blank.

Make plans now for the next drenching. It should be done between June 15 and July 15. This is the important time to drench all sheep and lambs to control tapeworms. Commercially prepared phenothiazine-lead arsenate drenches are recommended for this treatment.

Blank adds that pasture rotation is always helpful in controlling parasites. If pasture rotation alone is to be effective, don't leave sheep on a given field longer than two weeks at a time and don't return them to the same field for at least three weeks.

REALTY VIEWS

"We'd like to sell our duplex this month," said Mrs. Walden. "Can you help us?"

"We can certainly try," I replied. "But why so fast?"

"My husband has a bad heart condition," she said. "He no longer can maintain the building or grounds. We'd rather get out quick, even at a lower figure, than have the worry of owning it right now."

A short time later, we had a "nibble" on our ad. The prospect had no cash but owned a smaller home. We knew a trade was not the right solution for the Waldens.

"Why not get a larger loan on your present home," I suggested. "Then with a new loan on the duplex you could offer the Waldens cash which they may need for medical care."

"Sounds good," said the prospects wife. "We want the duplex for an investment anyway. I don't want to live in it. That way, we won't have to."

"Yes," her husband added, "And the rent income from the duplex will just about make both payments."

They signed up and leased the unit the Waldens were occupying, back to them.

"We're sure fortunate," Mrs. Walden said. "We get cash for our duplex, don't have to move, and some one else does all the maintenance. What more could a person ask for?"

We specialize in solving sellers' problems. May we help YOU work out a satisfactory deal?

Businessmen Hear Report on Legislature

Legislature activities of the Michigan Retailers Association in 1958 were presented to Tecumseh businessmen at a breakfast Friday in Don's Grill.

Conducting the session for MRA were Richard O. Cook, and Duane R. Vernon.

They are holding similar meetings throughout Michigan.

Dwelling briefly on such legislative problems as major taxation, employment security, and business control legislation, Cook, who is also a registered lobbyist, reported his association's satisfaction with the overall action of the 1958 legislative session.

At the same time, he urged personal interest by all Michigan retailers in issues before their legislature in Lansing.

Cook also outlined the MRA legislative program which, he explained, is approved by state retailers at the Associaton's annual meeting each year. Cook added that the program includes several specific modifications in major legislation affecting all Michigan retailers. Sales Tax exemptions were presented as one of the general areas of concern.

The need for strong industry-wide representation for Michigan retailers was stressed at the meeting. Cook emphasized that the retail industry must gain equal representation with other segments of the Michigan economy "who recognized the principles of industry-wide representation years ago."

The local retailer in charge of making arrangements for the meeting was John Saling of the Tecumseh Camera Shop.

Chemical weed control is not a gamble—it's a sound, economical practice, believe Michigan State University crops specialist. Chemicals recommended for selective weed control kill best when weed seeds are germinating or when plants are young and growing.

By GLENN WILLIAMS

The Tecumseh Indians baseball team ended its 1958 season Thursday afternoon on a resounding note, swamping Bedford, 15 to 0.

The tribe finished the season with a record of four wins and five losses. It stood three and five in league competition.

Let's meet each of the boys who were a part of the 1958 Tecumseh high school baseball team.

JON WEAKLY, 2B, senior. This was Jon's fourth year on the varsity baseball squad. He led the team in hitting this year with a batting average of .280 and tied for the most hits with seven. He is planning on entering Central Michigan College this fall.

KARL CRANSTON, C-2B, senior. Karl has been on the varsity here two years and played one year at Sand Creek. He finished in second place in the batting race with a .263 average. He had one home run and tied for the most RBI's with seven. He has no plans for school this fall.

LYNN FROST, CF, junior. Lynn has been on the varsity for two years now and finished in a tie for third in batting with a .250 average. He is one of the finest defensive fielders in the league.

RICHARD STEPHENSON, LF, sophomore. Rich has also been on the varsity for two years. He finished in a tie for third in batting with a .250 average. He is one of the fastest outfielders in the league and has a strong throwing arm.

LARRY YOAKUM, 3B-1B, junior. Larry has played all four infield positions. He is a good hitter, but ran into a slump at the end of the season and fell to .241 for fifth in the individual race. He led the team in runs scored with seven and homeruns with two. He tied for first in RBI's with seven and hits with seven. He has been on the varsity since he was a freshman.

BOB WILKINS, P, sophomore. Bob was sixth in batting with a .227 average and had one home run. He was the team's leading pitcher with four wins and three losses, struck out 63, walked 18, and hit eight batters, in 44 innings. Second year on varsity.

DICK HORVATH, RF-LF, sophomore. This is Dick's first year on varsity and he finished the season with a batting mark of .222.

BOB O'NEILL, 1B-P, junior. This was Bob's first year out for baseball and he did quite well, batting .208 and driving in six runs. He had one triple. He pitched 11 innings, did a very commendable job, though he suffered two defeats. He has good control as his record of 11 strikeouts and only two walks indicate.

JIM CURTH, RF, sophomore. Jim has been on the varsity for two years. He had a rather dismal season in 1958 at the plate with a .188 average, but has two more years ahead of him. He is a steady performer in the field with a good arm.

TONY KASIK, C, junior. Tony has been on the varsity for three years now. He started out as regular catcher this season, but hit a bad slump at the plate, finished with a .118 batting average.

STEVE KRUGER, SS-P, sophomore. This is Steve's second year with the varsity. He is one of the finest defensive shortstops in the league and has come through with some timely hitting in the final two games. He had his troubles the first of the year, smacking the ball, but usually right at someone. He led the team in walks with six and stolen bases with five. His final batting average was .105, due mainly to the reasons stated above.

DENNIS HARRISON, P, freshman. Denny appeared in only two games this year, one inning in each. He struck out three men, hit one batter, and didn't walk anybody.

A special salute to coach Dermont Foley, who has done a fine job with these boys. This is only his second year as head coach of the baseball squad and I think he has done a tremendous job.

Besides coaching the ball team, Mr. Foley teaches junior and senior high math, senior high physed and junior high life adjustments.

Also I would like to acknowledge the managers, Ken Beevers and Dave Grigg.

Oscar Bryan Installed as President of PTA

Officers installed at the Patterson PTA Thursday evening were president, Oscar Bryan; vice-president, Jack Puffer; teacher vice-president, Mrs. Frank Lasky; secretary, Mrs. Lowell Wise and treasurer, Mrs. Wynne Matteson.

During the meeting, suggestions from the teachers were presented by R. T. Gillam, principal, as to the most necessary equipment that might be purchased with the proceeds from the Home Fair.

A ditto machine, a rolling cart to carry encyclopedia and about 40 new dictionaries, a paper cutter and some special books that are needed in the individual rooms were included in the list.

Members voted to purchase the above suggested equipment and a committee was named to investigate the placing of playground equipment from schools which are not now being used. Kindergarten children at Patterson do not have any outside equipment.

A motion was made to hold the meetings of the PTA on alternate month. The vote will be taken on this motion at the September meeting.

The secretary was instructed to send a letter to the council requesting stop signs be placed at the corner of Logan and Van-Buren streets for the protection of children crossing.

Mrs. Homer Colson's fourth grade won the plaque for attendance this month.

Mothers of the kindergarten children served refreshments and a visitation of the rooms was held following the meeting.

Soybean Growers Should Keep Eye on Market Price

Growers with soybeans under the 1957 price-support loans are urged to watch market prices closely during the next few weeks so that their crop may bring them the best possible return.

Arthur Capper, chairman, County ASC Committee reminds farmers that frequently they can get a better price for their soybeans by paying off the Commodity Credit Corporation loan and selling the crop on the market.

Since soybean loans mature June 2, 1958, any redemption of beans must be completed before that date.

As of April 15, Lenawee County farmers had 54,909 bushels of 1957-crop soybeans under price-support loans, of which 26,152 bushels were stored on farms.

Farmers who intend to deliver purchase agreement soybeans to CCC also are reminded that they must file their intentions-to-deliver during the month before June 2 maturity date.

Price supports were available on 1957-drop soybeans in Lenawee County at $2.08 per bushel.

Farmers Responsible for Corn in Storage

Lenawee County farmers, who have 1957-crop corn of questionable keeping quality under farm-storage loans, have been alerted to their responsibilities in protecting their own and the government's interest.

Such producers are responsible for the condition of corn stored under price-support loans.

Should spoilage take place, the producer will be charged for any loss in the value of the corn.

Producers with high-moisture corn may submit a representative sample of their corn to the County ASC Office, where a test for moisture will be run, as well as an examination for damage.

Farmers, who are unable to recondition corn showing definite signs of going out of condition, should get in touch with the County ASC Office for delivery instructions.

You certainly can! In many cases we can give you, as depositor or borrower, effective service only if you confide to us certain information about your personal or business finances. We realize, however, that we cannot expect to continue serving you at all unless we respect and protect your right to have your private matters kept private. Through My Window

WILD FLOWERS NEXT DOOR

Jack-in-the-pulpit, Trillium and Wild Geranium. Wild flowers certainly; fond of "uncivilized" areas and out of the way spots, yes.

From our window, however, we look out on a small section of creek bank which has been turned into a wonderful wild flower sanctuary.

Careful planning, endless collecting and skillful planting by the Marshes have made this section of Evans Creek bank a spring delight.

The show started about mid-April. Everywhere the forsythia bushes were masses of bright yellow and along the creek bank the maple trees had just put forth tiny, shriveled new leaves.

One morning we noticed that, over-night, the Marshes' creek bank had become dotted with coin-size bits of white and blue. The Bloodroot and Hepatica were in bloom. Spring was here—how very welcome these first wild flowers of the new season.

☆

THE FRAGILE flowers of the Bloodroot are composed of glistening white petals, usually eight, that are long and eliptic.

The Hepaticas, similar to the Bloodroot, are smaller, their blossoms are only a half-inch to an inch across and although their color may vary from purple through pink to white, the Marshes' are mostly a bright, clear blue.

Blooming companions to these earliest of perennials are the Adder's tongues. These small, unassuming flowers are almost overwhelmed under a myriad of different names. In various guide books they are listed as Fawn Lily, Eastern Troutlily or Dog's-tooth Violet; we, however, will stick to Adder's-tongue.

It has an exotic, wild-flowerish sound which suits the flower. Delicately perched atop slender stalks which rise from low, ground-clinging leaves, these flowers, depending upon the variety, are either yellow or white tinged with blue.

☆

NEXT IN THE procession of spring loveliness come our favorite of all wild flowers, the Trilliums. Wide spread collecting ranging from Northern Michigan to the Appalachians to the Smoky Mountains, has resulted in a fine collection.

Their three most successful varieties have been the Wake-Robin, White and Stemless or Prairie. The latter are most noted for their mottle leaves which some people consider more beautiful than the flower.

The White or Great Trilliums, probably the best known member of the family, have large, three-petaled blossoms which often, as the plant grows older, turn pink.

Proof positive that these prized plants are thriving under the near ideal growing conditions, is the steady increase in the Trillium population. This year they made what was by far their best showing.

At the peak of their blooming season the bank was literally spotted with the big, showy Greats.

DEFYING identification for several seasons was a low spreading plant with small dainty white blossoms. It almost looked like a miniature cross between the Hepatica and the Bloodroot and although the blossoms were white, under certain light conditions they took on a slight pinkish hue.

This year Doctor announced that the mystery plant was nameless no more. It's Rue Anemone.

Aptly named are the Spring Beauties. Another low growing plant, these are easily recognized by their thin, grass-like leaves and loosely clustered white or pink flowers.

In addition to their beauty, these five-petaled flowers have the interesting habit of closing up tight during cold snaps. Flowers in full bloom may, if the temperature drops sufficiently low, close up so tight that all trace of color is gone.

☆

ANOTHER SPRING flower doing well on the bank is the Dutchman's-Breeches. Fortunately they live up to their picturesque name and are a delightful addition to the Marshes' collection.

Silvery green, finely cut, fern-like leaves appear early in the spring and later come the slender flower stalks, each of which holds five to 10 of the inverted "breeches." These white or pink flowers so closely resemble Dutchman's breeches that this is one of the few wild flowers not having many other names.

Just as the Trilliums were beginning to bloom, the green spikes of the Jack-in-the-pulpits began to appear. Growing fast until they reach a height of two or even three feet, they are one of the taller plants.

As the leaves unfurl and the strange flowers appear, there is always much excitement and we eagerly count to see whether there are more Jacks this year

Mineral Club Meets May 24

The Rock and Mineral club was organized at Green Lane in April with 15 charter members.

The president is Barry Finnegan; vice-president, Carole Bird; secretary, Cathy Brown and treasurer, Glenn Slick.

The field trip committee is composed of Onalee Coty, Christine Coty, Diane Handy. The display committee is Nancy Bird, Diane Ries, Rose and Josephine Martenez.

David Bird will be in charge of library books and equipment.

The other members of the club include Kit Finnegan, Archer Handy, Roby Van Vleet, Debby and Buddy Coty and Beverly Myers.

The group has been divided into four divisions — sedimentary, igneous, metamorphis and fossil groups.

Next meeting will be Saturday at Green Lane. The group is affiliated with an international club, "The Rollin Rock," sponsored by the Federation of Mineral Societies. Miss Thelma Younglove is advisor.

Before Storing Cloths, Have Them Cleaned

If you're storing winter clothes, especially woolens, for the summer, you may be wondering "just how effective is a cedar chest" for moth protection.

According to Bernetta Kahabka, extension clothing specialist at Michigan State University, cedar chests make good pest-proof containers primarily because of their airtight construction.

Cedar-oil vapor kills small larvae but is not effective against larger ones. So before storing be sure woolens are free of larvae—the destructive stage of the moth.

Dry clean or wash garments to be sure they're clean when stored.

If your cedar chest is several years old, treat it as you would any other storage area. Clean it thoroughly—perhaps vacuuming is the best method for removing lint and dirt, the food supply of moth larvae.

Vacuuming will also remove any deposits of insects or eggs. Burn contents of the vacuum bag after you finish.

Then spray the inside of the chest with a three to five percent DDT solution. Spray enough to leave a cloud or fog in the chest.

For further protection of clothes you can use flakes, crystals or balls, sprays or rinses on garments to be stored.

A good cedar chest is made of red cedar. At least 70% of the chest proper is made of 3/4 inch heartwood. Of course the outside can be veneered with hard woods like walnut or mahogany without affecting the pest-proofing value of the cedar oil vapors.

THE CRISIS THAT WASN'T

Today, there are many quick victories over disease. Each might be described as a crisis that didn't quite happen — thanks to today's superior medicinal agents.

Modern medicines prescribed by your physician score amazing triumphs over diseases which, only a decade ago, were almost certain to become dangerously serious.

Present-day pharmaceuticals, such as the antibiotics, require complex equipment, intricate controls and highly skilled technicians for production. Although somewhat higher in cost, they actually are an investment in economy. They effect an earlier cure and cut down expensive sick-bed time.

We are staffed and equipped to fill your doctor's prescriptions promptly at prices that are fair.

THE LONG and SHORT of it

BY TOM RIORDAN

WHENEVER MEMORIAL DAY approaches and folks talk about the famed Indianapolis Speedway 500-mile race, Leon Rosacrans thinks back to the very first one.

Leon attended it with six other Tecumsehites — Lavern and Will Barrett, Grandville Mills, Raynor Brewer, P. W. A. Fitzsimmons and Levi Hayden—in regal splendor. They had a box.

Roy Harroon won the marathon that year at an average speed of 72 miles per hour.

"The speed to qualify today is over 140," muses Leon.

☆

IT SEEMED STRANGE.

There was Frankie Crosetti, tall and trim, wearing the gray New York road uniform, dashing about the diamond like a kid.

The hands of time swung back 25 years and out on the green turf sprang forth a well of memories.

Lou Gehrig was at first, Red Rolfe at third, Crosetti teaming at the keystone with Tony Lazerri.

And who drew the most attention of all. Why The Babe, of course, struting, grinning, waving.

In the early Thirties, when this was the Yankee lineup, my dad used to say, "We'd better get out to Navin Field and see a game. This will probably be Babe Ruth's last season."

He said it several summers and I know enjoyed making the junket each time. Baseball then was truly the National Pastime, everyone wanted to get out to the ball game.

The Tigers were my team — and a great one; Cochrane, Goslin, Gehringer, Owen, Greenburg, York, Rogell who led the club to pennants in '34 and '35.

But even in defeat during those years the Yanks looked good.

When the fellows from our shop saw them last week, they still looked good. The names have changed — all save that grand old coach, Frank Crosetti —but the Yankee tradition goes on.

In victory or defeat, the New Yorkers always carry themselves as champions. Is it any wonder they win so many titles?

☆

JUST CALL HIM "LEO THE Prophet."

Back in the April 24 edition of The Herald, Leo Bishop was talking about the Tecumseh high school golf team.

"These boys should win the state championship," Leo flatly stated.

Leo has long been assisting Coach Doug Murdock with the Indian linksmen and his prediction was based on solid fact.

Thanks to the tutoring of Leo and Doug and the determined performances of the youthful athletes, Tecumseh is now the proud owner of a state championship trophy.

Congratulations, fellows.

Secretary Is Being Hired by Chamber Board

An executive secretary for the new Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce was to have been hired at a special board meeting Wednesday.

The gentleman was the fourth to be interviewed and offers considerable experience in Chamber work.

Official announcement is expected next week.

Members of the board of directors have been busy in other ways, namely putting the local office in shape. It has been completely redecorated.

President Dr. Dick Coak announces appointment of several committees:

Publicity — Tom Riordan, chairman; Jim Lincoln, Dr. Bob Murray and Dr. Coak.

Budget — John Surratt, chairman.

Membership — Coleman La-Masters, chairman.

Bylaws — Skip Rex, chairman.

Adrian Youth Suffers Broken Leg in Crash

David E. Taylor of Adrian was hurt seriously when his motorcycle collided with an automobile driven by Mrs. Vera C. Stevens of 207 West Patterson street in Tecumseh Thursday.

The son of the Rev. and Mrs. Raymond G. Taylor of Adrian, he suffered a broken right leg besides cuts and bruises. He was transferred from Herrick Memorial Hospital to St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor because of the severity of the leg injury.

Tecumseh police said the youth was riding his motorcycle west on West Chicago Boulevard near Adrian Street.

He told officers a car started out of the Ben's Market parking lot into his path. He said he blew his horn but the driver did not stop.

Mrs. Stevens said she did not see the motorcycle or hear the horn. She was given a summons by the officers, charging she failed to yield the right of way.

Tecumseh Honors War Dead on Friday

★ ★ ★

A new unit will be added to the regular Memorial Day parade lineup when Tecumseh honors its war dead Friday.

A float is being made by the city's two new Senior Girl Scout troops, which will be included in the line of march.

It is to be followed by a car, furnished by Fisher Pontiac, with officers of the Tecumseh Girl Scout Association.

Gerald Smith, marshall of the day, will lead the parade which will begin promptly at 10 a.m. at the corner of Ottawa and East Chicago boulevard. Units will assemble at 9:30 a.m.

The parade will proceed down Main street to North Union and from there to Brookside cemetery where Rev. Robert Bergman of the United Lutheran Church will be the speaker.

Rev. Dale Harvey will give the invocation, the salute to the dead will be fired by the Veterans of Foreign Wars while members of the Auxiliary place wreaths at the monuments.

The high school band will present musical numbers during the service and the parade. The junior high band will play and join the marching units, along with Girl and Boy Scout units.

The 46th Signal Company from Ypsilanti will play taps during the flag raising ceremonies.

As in the past, a car will be included in the parade to honor Spanish-American War dead, but for the first time it will not contain a veteran of that conflict due to the recent passing of Lyman Ousterhout, Tecumseh's last survivor.

Troops 1, 2, 4, 6, 16 and 17 of the Girl Scouts from the seventh, eighth and ninth grades placed more than 300 geraniums on the graves of veterans.

They also were placed on veterans' graves in cemeteries in the surrounding area as well as on the graves of gold star mothers.

Members of the Civil Air Patrol will fly over while the parade is in progress honoring the dead of the Air Force.

Golfers Share State Crown

By GLENN WILLIAMS

Tecumseh high school golfers fired a 326 last Saturday at Kalamazoo to tie with Hillsdale for the state class B championship.

A new ruling that went into effect last year states that, "in case of ties, duplicate trophies will be awarded," thus there was no playoff.

Fourteen teams qualified for the state finals, from a field of 75 which had been entered in regional play.

TOPS IN MICHIGAN

Tecumseh	326
Hillsdale	326
East Lansing	329
Kalamazoo St. High	331
Royal Oak Shrine	331
East Grand Rapids	332
Jackson St. Johns	333
Alma	340

EAST LANSING was rated a favorite based on its sensational 305 score in regional play.

However, when the chips were down, East Lansing couldn't come through and as a result finished third behind Tecumseh and Hillsdale with a 329 total.

Max Smith led the Indian golfers as he shot a 37 on the first nine holes and then came back with a 41 for a 78, which tied him for fourth low medalist of the day with Doug Foulke of Hillsdale.

Other Tecumseh scores were: Dick Baker, 80; Dave Lamkin, 82; and John Elliott, 86.

☆

BUD BADGER of Bloomfield Hills shot a two-under-par 70 for the 18 hole round to take medalist honors.

During the regular season, Tecumseh defeated Hillsdale on the local course then was beaten at Hillsdale.

According to the officials and coaches, this was one of the best fields ever to enter the finals as 11 of the 14 teams qualified with a 341 or better in regional play.

Jaycee Auxiliary Elects Officers

Mrs. William Davenport was elected president of the Jaycee Women's Auxiliary last week at a meeting in the home of Mrs. Ruth Fox.

Other officers elected were vice-president, Mrs. Donald Brazee; secretary, Mrs. Marietta Dick and treasurer, Mrs. Richard Beemer.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Davenport.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Charles Aebersold with Mrs. Helen Aebersold assisting hostess.

Seniors Presented Bibles at Service

Sixteen graduating seniors were presented copies of the Revised Standard Version Bible at the Methodist Church Sunday.

This presentation, a tradition with the church, is made possible each year by the Temple Dependable Class.

Those receiving Bibles were Larry Ann Arens, Bonnie Beattie, Norma Beevers, Jack Bryan, Gary Crawford, Gerry Greene, Joyce Hadsell, Joan Johnston, Duane Locke, Donald Martin, Yvonne Morningstar, Marilyn Nash, Mary Lou Perry, Richard Peterson, Carol Sathmary and Joyce Stuart.

Presbyterians Staging Annual Childrens Day

The Childrens Day program at the Presbyterian Church will be presented during the morning worship service Sunday at 11.

No church school will be held.

The various departments participating in the service are:

Nursery under the direction of Mrs. Harlon Dicks

Beginners — Mrs. Ann Rozelle

Primary — Mrs. Al Helzerman

Junior — Mrs. John Quigley

Junior High — William Frownfelder

Senior — Mrs. Dwight Hodges

Children's Church — Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Westcott

The program is under the general direction of Don Parrett, chairman of Children's Education Committee of the Session.

Following the worship service, a family picnic will be held at Recreation Field at 1 p.m. for parents and children.

Games, under sponsorship of the Men's Council, will be held at 2:30.

HOLLOWAY — Nearly 120 guests enjoyed the annual Mother-Daughter Banquet held at the Raisin Center Friends Church May 20.

Sponsored by the Ladies Missionary Society, the theme was, "In the Garden," beautifully carried out as each guest entered the dining area through an arbor of roses.

Little May baskets were used for nut cups and program. Spring flowers were used as centerpieces for the tables.

Mrs. Eldora Anderson was the toastmistress. Invocation was by Matie Saunders, welcome by Mrs. Eldora Anderson, group singing by Lucille Dull and reading "When the Preacher Came" by Joyce Saylor. Toast to the mothers was given by Marie Mitchell.

☆

VOCAL SOLO "Mommie's Little Girl" was presented by Shirley Anderson, toast to the daughter by Vevia Dawson, reading "On Mother's Day" by Joan Harsh, piano solo by Alice Morton.

Guest speaker, Mrs. Edna Mapstone of Blissfield, showed colored slides of her trip to the Holy Lands.

Dinner music was furnished by Mrs. Nina Westgate. Benediction by Miss Edith Haviland.

Kitchen committee included Shirley Anderson, Bertha Morton, Eldora Anderson, Florine Kinney and Matie Saunders. Dining room, Joan Harsh, Virginia Meyers, Helen Mitchell, Lucille Dull and Irene Lehman. Invitation, Nina Westgate, Joyce Saylor. Program, Irene Anderson, Jean Shreve and Dorothy Mitchell.

Safety-Check Shows Up Vehicle Faults

Of the 500 vehicles that went through Tecumseh's free Safety-Check Friday and Saturday, 125 needed important repair work.

Sponsored by auto dealers, garages, service clubs and local merchants, the annual event was conducted as a public service for local motorists.

A team of specialists, under direction of Dick Beemer, carefully examined 10 vital parts of each vehicle that went through.

Working with Dick were Robert Schuch, John Wilt, Harold Smith, Don Purkey, Ray Morley, Harold Easton, Gayle Hooten, Dale Reitz and Lee Higgins.

Others were Carl Boswell, Russell Johnston, Alroy Vanderpool, Clarence Beach, Maynard Lucas, Clifford Knudsen, Carlos Jones and Hugh Walters.

Motorists were advised what was wrong with their vehicles and advised to have it corrected so as to prevent any possible highway disaster.

For those whose cars and trucks passed 100% there was a drawing for $90 in prizes donated by local merchants.

Winners, listed below, can obtain certificates for their awards from Mr. Beemer at the Consumers Powers office in Tecumseh.

29 Little Visitors

Business was brisk, especially at toy and candy counters, Thursday afternoon when 29 children from the Eberwhite elementary school of Ann Arbor visited the downtown district.

Merchants reported that their teacher, Mrs. Marion Reed, and ten mothers had the situation well in hand and that the children lost no time in shopping for souvenirs.

Every year Mrs. Reed's class studies a nearby community for a six-week period, and this year Tecumseh was chosen.

For three weeks the children had been reading our newspaper, studying our early history, learning about our industry, farming and many other interesting details.

Language sessions have been spent in writing letters to Tecumseh residents asking for information, getting appointments, and subscribing to The Herald. Tecumseh will continue to be studied and will be the main topic of discussion for the remainder of the school year.

☆

THE FIRST visit of the day was at the historic St. Peter's Episcopal Church, where Rector Frank Hawthorne greeted the class and told them interesting facts about the church.

From there the children traveled to the Quaker Oats Co., where, after touring the plant, all received a box of spaghetti.

One highlight of their trip was the appearance of Ernie Van Vleet with his horses and grocery cart. Although it was Ernie's day off, he kindly consented to harness his horses, and drove them over to visit with the third graders during their lunch hour at the home of Mrs. Wayne Pence.

The last tour of the day was at Meyers Aircraft, after which the tired but happy children and their equally tired parents and teacher boarded the bus and headed for Ann Arbor.

Forest Abner's Father Dies

Funeral services will be held Thursday at the Niblack Funeral Home in Britton for G. Allen Abner, who passed away Monday.

Death came at his home five miles northeast of Britton where he has lived for the past 31 years.

Mr. Abner was 66-years-old. He was born April 7, 1892 in Winchester, Kentucky and came to Britton over 41 years ago.

He was a member of the Assembly of God Church in Dundee.

He is survived by his wife, Maggie Lee; two sons, Forest of Tecumseh and John of Blissfield; one daughter, Mrs. Christian Meads of Tecumseh; nine grandchildren and one step-brother, Leamon Wilson of Winchester, Kentucky.

Rev. David Crist and Rev. William Spencer will officiate.

Burial will be in Ridgeway cemetery.

FIRST CONFIRMATION

First Confirmation of youths took place at Gloria Dei Lutheran Church Sunday. Members of the class were Patricia Bartenslager, Margie Bidle, Mary Wing and Lana Wright.

Royal Neighbors Set Nights for Meetings

Members of the Royal Neighbors decided to hold only one meeting per month, the fourth Monday, during June, July and August, at their regular session held Monday evening when Agnes Moody presided.

An announcement was made of the potluck dinner and penny party to be held at the home of Alice Collom at Sand Lake June 5. Anyone may attend.

Plans were made to place flags on the graves of the deceased members during the week preceding Memorial Day.

The next meeting will be held June 23 at the Hall.

Bishop Conducts Consecration

Newly-remodeled sanctuary of the Methodist Church in Tecumseh will be the scene of a consecration service this Sunday at 10 a.m.

It will be directed by Rev. James D. Nixon, pastor.

Bishop Marshall R. Reed, resident bishop of the Michigan Area will give the sermon and lead the act of consecration. The district superintendent, Dr. L. LaVerne Finch of Ann Arbor, will assist in the service.

June 1 begins the fiscal year for Methodists, states Rev. Nixon. It also is the beginning of Trinity season. This special day was chosen for the rededication of the church and the consecration of the remodeled sanctuary.

☆

THE REFURBISHING program included new lighting, decoration, remodeling of the chancel and installation of new chancel furniture.

Surrounding the altar are symbols of the Trinity, set in a cluster of vines reminiscent of the teachings of Jesus.

The Sanctuary Planning Committee is composed of Mrs. Robert W. Bonner, Mrs. Clifford Deaner, Mrs. Maynard Lucas, Wilfred G. Waldron and Carlos Jones.

As lay leader of the church and as a representative of the committee, Mr. Jones will be seated in the chancel during the service and will assist in the service.

The committee and members of their respective families will be seated together and will wear white carnations for this service.

Bishop Reed, was raised near Onsted, graduated from Tecumseh high school.

The public is cordially invited.

Harmonicas Provide Music at Family Night

Family night was observed at Grace English Lutheran Church May 22, beginning with a potluck supper.

Entertainment was furnished by Patricia Schwede, Janet Mackey, Judy Martin, Janice Drummonds, Connie Harrison, Ricky Teske, Fed Schwede, Dennis Linden and Norman Schwede.

177 Tour Hospital

One - hundred - seventy - seven visitors toured Herrick Memorial Hospital Sunday in belated celebration of National Hospital Week.

Although the annual week was May 11-17, the open house here was delayed until the new south wing had been dedicated.

Festivities in Tecumseh were planned by Mrs. Helen Miller, chief nurse, and Mrs. Norris Morehouse of the Hospital Auxiliary.

Fifteen auxiliary members, gowned in cherry-red smocks, were the guides for the tour.

Mrs. Richard Coak, Auxiliary president, greeted guests at the lobby door, where the tour started.

In groups of 10, the guests first viewed the Obstetrics department, then to the second floor delivery rooms, central supply and operating rooms and a walk down the east stairs past the nursery.

Second portion of the tour brought the guests into the new south wing. Here guests saw the nurses' station and the new patient rooms and wards.

THE NEXT STOP was the basement and the new modern kitchen, equipped with the latest and most modern facilities.

Dining room cafeteria, to be used by the hospital staff, was next on the docket. Furnishings for it were purchased by the Auxiliary. This portion of the new wing houses an elevator, food freezers, cold room for storing vegetables, lounges for the nurses, aides and kitchen employees.

The guests were then led upstairs to the Out-Patient and X-ray departments, which completed the tour.

Flowers were donated from the gardens of Mary McWilliams, Anne Carson and Mrs. Neil Pearson. Plants were given by Mrs. Paul Nobles, the new Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce and the Hospital Auxiliary.

Several hospital employees, who donated their time on Sunday afternoon to be at the hospital during open house, were stationed in various spots to answer questions.

Auxiliary members serving as guides were Mrs. Robert Anderson, Mrs. Robert Bowers, Mrs. Oscar Bryan, Mrs. Gerald Dunn, Mrs. James Freckleton, Mrs. Robert Fuller, Mrs. Jan Kachur, Mrs. Yale Kerby, Mrs. George McCombs, Mrs. Charles Mensing, Mrs. James Nixon, Mrs. Harry Richard, Mrs. Sam Sisson, Mrs. Charles Stevenson and Mrs. Hugh Walters.

In this "Do It Yourself Age" we now have many amateur plumbers and carpenters. Should they fail to accomplish their task, not too much harm is done, — just some spoiled materials and wasted time.

Attempting to be an amateur doctor can often cause serious harm. The wrong treatment at the beginning of sickness can give an ailment the opportunity to gain a firm foothold, making a disease difficult to cure. Be safe. Don't jest with sickness. Consult your physician quickly.

Sandra Jeane Simmons Wed to Joseph Harris Gregory

A candlelight service enhanced the marriage of Sandra Jeane Simmons and Joseph Harris Gregory May 24 with Rev. O. E. Priest officiating.

The ceremony took place at the Tipton Community Church where the chancel was backed with tall hampers of white snapdragons and mums, softened with natural green palms.

Tall cathedral candelabra faced with clusters of white mums and gold vases filled with the same white blossoms flanked the altar. The center aisle was marked with single tall candelabra tied with large white mums and white satin bows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Simmons of Tipton and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Gregory of Tecumseh.

Margaret Hardy, cousin of the bride, was the soloist accompanied by Mrs. Herbert Dillon at the organ.

☆

MISS SIMMONS, given in marriage by her parents, wore a gown of Italian silk taffeta and chantilly lace featuring a sabrina neckline formed from scallops of the lace and long fitted sleeves.

The full circular skirt of taffeta was floor length and two lace and silk panels fell from a large lace bow at the waistline forming a short train.

A lace and pearl cap held in place the double finger-tip veil of silk illusion and she wore a tiny silver cross at her throat, the gift of the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of lily of the valley centered with phalenopsis orchids.

Mrs. Gloria Karle was her sister's matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Carol Bird, Linda Sisson and Barbara Dresch.

All were gowned alike in sea foam green crystal satin with street-length full circular skirts, rounded necklines finished in points at the back with bow and streamers.

Their veiled hats and shoes matched the dresses. Maude Bell styled and made the dresses of the wedding party.

☆

THE MAID OF HONOR carried a cascade arrangement of pink bountiful rosebuds centered with white butterfly roses, while the others carried bouquets of pink roses.

Tiny Kathy Sue Karle, niece of the bride, was the flower girl in a floor-length dress of tulle and lace over yellow taffeta. She carried a miniature flat basket filled with pink rosettes, white daisies and lily of the valley.

Mrs. Simmons chose for her daughter's wedding a gown of dusty pink organza and lace with matching accessories. She wore a corsage of white phalenopsis orchids and tiny pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Gregory wore a navy gown with white accessories and a white orchid.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Driffill were hosts at the church and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hardy, Margaret Hardy and Edward Mossing were hosts at the Tecumseh Country Club where a reception for 250 was held immediately following the ceremony.

☆

THE CLUB WAS artistically decorated throughout with arrangements of white and pink blossoms. The cake table was flounced with white net over green taffeta and draped with garlands and bows of pink satin ribbon.

The five-tiered cake was topped with lillies of the valley and pink rosebuds and encircled with a bridal wreath of pink roses and carnations. It was flanked with crystal candelabra holding pink candles.

Those assisting at the reception wore nosegays of pink carnations.

Kay McEvoy was in charge of the guest book, Mrs. Virginia Moore and Mrs. Bette McKnight cut the cake, Jean Luce, Jerry Crunk and Gregory Hardy had charge of the gifts while Mr. and Mrs. Raynor Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. Ben McWilliams, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Barton and Mr. and Mrs. Richie Davis served punch.

Others assisting were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kelso, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Eberhardt, Mrs. Earl Woods, Mrs. Wayland Kahle, Mrs. Fay Luce, Mrs. Raymond Platt, Jean Conlin and Diane Armly.

☆

GUESTS ATTENDED the wedding from Detroit, Toledo, Kansas City, Lansing, Milan, Brooklyn, Plymouth, Wyandotte and Ypsilanti.

For their wedding trip to the east coast, the bride chose a beige suit with red accessories and a corsage of red rosebuds. When they return they will be at home at 9233 Wisner road for the summer.

The bride is a graduate of Tecumseh high school and attended Siena Heights College. The groom graduated from Tecumseh high school and Toledo Barber College.

You Told Us

BY DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

Tecumseh residents are looking forward to the Memorial Day parade Friday with its colorful drill teams, Old Glory, the flags of the many organizations of the city and the various units in marching order.

Main street and North Union will be crowded with spectators all trying to get a look at little Johnny in his new Cub Scout uniform or sister in the band, maybe its Dad carrying a rifle or the flag of our country, or Mom proudly watching over a brood of little Brownies.

Whoever the individual is looking especially to see, most will have a lump in their throat at some time as the parade makes its way to the Brookside cemetery where the memorial service will honor the dead, both of the Armed Services and also the loved ones who have gone on to their eternal home.

The long weekend will provide opportunity for many picnics and gatherings.

√

Mrs. Robert Laidlaw was pleasantly surprised by a gathering of about 20 of her friends and neighbors Thursday when they came to her home bearing cake and sweet rolls in honor of her birthday. Coffee was served and a social time enjoyed.

√

Lois Younglove, Glen Williams, Chris Roll and Mike Rohrer were in Detroit Saturday at Briggs Stadium for the game between the Tigers and the Yankees.

√

Paul Surratt, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Surratt, was thrown from a horse Saturday and suffered a slight concussion. He spent the night in Herrick Memorial Hospital.

√

Ramon Cairo of the Dominican Republic, a student majoring in engineering at the University of Michigan, was a dinner guest in the Surratt home Saturday.

√

Phil Surratt an da friend, Robert Ross, were recent guests in Phil's home for dinner. Mr. Ross will graduate from the University in June and enter Medical School in the fall.

√

Mrs. Vira Bancroft spent the weekend in Sturgis, Michigan visiting her uncle, George Kent.

√

Dr. Donald C. Wilson and family of Wilmington, Delaware sailed May 28 from Montreal, Canada for Edinburgh, Scotland for a three-month stay. While in Edinburgh Dr. Wilson will speak in the pulpit of the Barclay Presbyterian Church. He is a former pastor of the local Presbyterian church.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Schard of Bethesda, Maryland announce the birth of a son, Jeffry Scott, on May 19. Mrs. Schard is the former Beverly McLaury of Tecumseh.

√

√

Barbara Pfalz of Detroit spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Earl Lindsley.

Clue No. 12 Brings Police for Questions

A surprise treasure hunt held May 10 by 20 teachers of the Tecumseh public schools was proclaimed a howling success.

The event was held in honor of the approaching marriage of Sue Schoenlien to Charles Gross which will take place in June.

Clues were planted about the city by the committee and the one in particular brought local police officers was No. 12 placed on the grounds of the Quaker Oats factory. It read, "This is the end and we don't mean the Dicks."

Though the committee had had permission to place the clue, the night watchman had not been informed and was somewhat disturbed since his name is Dick and his number is 12. He called the officers and the teachers found that they had some explaining to do before they could take their booty back to the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Dick where prizes were awarded.

Those receiving first prize were Neville Hart, James McDowell, Donald Johnson, Mrs. Donald Brazee and Mrs. Carl Beattie.

The shower was given by Mr. and Mrs. Donald Berkley, Mr. and Mrs. David Dick and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lawson.

The honored couple received many gifts.

James Danforth's Mother Passes Away

Carrie M. Danforth passed away Monday at Bixby Hospital in Adrian where she had been a patient since May 12.

Mrs. Danforth was born March 21, 1881 in Fairbury, Illinois, the daughter of George and Dorothy Sohn Keller. She was a resident of Ypsilanti since 1917 until her recent illness.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. James Hearl of Cleveland, Ohio; two sons, James E. of Tecumseh and Henry A. of Pontiac; one sister, Mrs. Homer Morrison of Ypsilanti; seven grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

Services will be held at the Green Funeral Home Thursday at 2 p.m. with Rev. B. O. Bashore, assisted by Rev. H. B. Peter, officiating.

John & Bill's Running First in Softball Loop

CITY LEAGUE SOFTBALL
(As of May 26)

	W	L
John & Bill's	3	0
Tecumseh Union	2	1
Britton IOOF	1	1
Clinton	0	2
Macon	0	2

John & Bill's continued their city league softball winning ways by defeating the Products Union team, 6-1, on Wayne Thorpe's five-hitter.

John & Bill's got only six hits off Joe Petrovich and Oren Vallad, but seven Union errors proved costly.

John Reed had a perfect night at the plate for John & Bill's with a double and single in two official trips while teammate, Tom Hamilton, belted a home run. Larry Stephans had a double and single to lead the Union hitters.

Britton IOOF outlasted Clinton in a free-scoring second game, 13-11. Bill Saxton went the distance for Britton and was the winning pitcher.

Chuck Escott of Clinton was the game's leading hitter as he banged out three singles in four trips. John Tubbs had two singles for Britton while teammate John Swain hit a home run.

☆

IN ACTION LAST week, John & Bill's took a 9-8, extra-inning decision over Britton.

One of Britton's seven errors led to the final run in the ninth frame.

Hayden Mullins started on the mound for John & Bill's but gave way to Wayne Thorpe in the sixth. Thorpe finished up and struck out four men in getting credit for the win.

Charlie Owens led John & Bill's with three singles in four trips.

John Korican of Britton was the hitting star of the game as he banged out a home run, double and single in four tries. Teammates Chuck Smetka and Bill Saxton also hit home runs.

Tecumseh Products Union team blasted Macon in a four-inning game, 12-2.

Macon battery were able to get only three singles off the slants of Dave Hazzenzahl and Carl Poling.

Hazzenzahl started for the Union and pitched two innings in getting the win.

Joe Petrovich, Junior Myers and John Bohs of the Union team each had two hits.

Pair Honored at Homecoming

A homecoming and wedding reception combined was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Lewis of Tipton Saturday evening honoring Lee Norcross of Tecumseh who recently returned with his bride from Okinawa, the former Sueko Nagato.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lawson, Mr. and Mrs. John Deming, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Martin of Tecumseh, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Deming, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Helwig assisted in making arrangements for the affair.

About 50 guests attended including five classmates, James Lawson, Patricia and John Deming, Orin Dale Murphy, Leverett Dejonghe and several other schoolmates, relatives and friends of the groom.

☆

WHITE LILACS, iris and tulips were used in decorating the Lewis home. The serving table was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom and flanked with pink candles.

Mrs. Robert Threet at the piano and Marvin Martin with his guitar provided background music as the refreshments were served and Paulette and Charlotte Martin sang several songs.

Throughout the evening James Lawson interviewed friends and relatives of the groom and recorded their past experiences.

Virgil Deming took various pictures of the honored couple as they opened the many gifts they received and cut the wedding cake.

Mr. Norcross entertained the group with slides of pictures he had taken while in Okinawa and Japan.

To Honor Jerry

For the pleasure of their son, Jerry, who was confirmed Sunday morning in the Grace Lutheran Church, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Kapnick entertained 46 relatives and friends at dinner in the basement of the church. It was served by the ladies aid.

The Kapnicks also had supper in their home with additional guests.

Jerry received many lovely gifts.

Bridal Shower Held for Elaine Faust

Elaine Faust of Adrian was the guest of honor at a bridal shower Wednesday evening at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Donald L. Faust and aunt, Myrna Bugbee.

The entire party was carried out in a "sprinkling can" theme in pastel colors which were to be used in the wedding. Games were played with prizes awarded to Mrs. S. L. Taft, Mrs. Don Faust and Mrs. Kenneth Warner who presented them to the bride-elect.

The group also made a scrapbook for her and presented her with a kitchen corsage and many beautiful gifts.

The hostesses were assisted by Sandra Faust, Brenda Bugbee, Kendra Frost and Pat Dornes.

Elaine was married to Kenneth Bailey of Adrian Saturday evening at St. John's Lutheran Church there.

Painting Add Festive Touch

About 170 members and guests attended the dinner dance held at the Country Club May 17.

Miniature flowers carts filled with spring flowers were used as centerpiece to add to the decorating theme of Paris in the springtime.

Paintings of local artists studying with Russell Steinke were on exhibit to represent a Paris sidewalk showing.

The artists are Ray Ernst, Mrs. Fred Randall, Mrs. Joseph Galazzi, Mrs. W. L. Schroer and William Brown. Two large paintings by Mr. Steinke were also shown.

Guests danced to the music of the Sky Larks who also presented dinner music.

With Tecumseh Teens

BY MARY V. SEAGER

THE TEEN CLUB WAS OPEN Friday night for the last big dance of the school year. Hal Broderick's orchestra furnished the music.

The Teen Club legislature and committees met Tuesday after school. They met again Thursday evening at the Teen Club with members of the local service clubs to decide what would be done this summer at the Teen Club.

The Teen Club Tattler's last issue will come out sometime this week.

The officers and members of the Teen Club would like to express their sincere appreciation for all the work Mr. Bob Breniff has done with the Teen Club in the past few years. The Club will be very sorry to have him leave.

Hillsdale Edges THS in 1st Hudson Relays

Tecumseh's Indian thinclads narowly missed taking the first running of the Hudson relays last week.

With only the 880-yard relay left, Tecumseh had 11 points while Hillsdale and Blissfield had 10 each.

Hillsdale's 880-yard quartet sped to the win in the time of 1:41, with Tecumseh finishing second and Hudson third. This gave Hillsdale the title.

☆

TECUMSEH'S ONLY win was in the mile relay by the team composed of Dave Weakly, Tom Walters, Jim Mangrum and Gary Elliott.

Tecumseh placed second in two other relays, besides the 880 yard event. The team of Bob Marsh, Mike Walters, Jim Mangrum and Al Dick was runner-up in the 440-yard relay, won by Hillsdale.

The medley relay team composed of Ron Johnson, Bob Marsh, Al Dick and Bob Long also finished second, this time to Blissfield.

The two-mile relay was the only event in which Tecumseh failed to place.

☆

THERE WERE three field events held, but no points being awarded.

Dick French captured first in the high jump with a leap of 5'4" and Terry Hendricks tied for second in this event with Dick McGill of Hudson.

Dan Cisco of Hudson won the broad jump with a leap of 20'3" and Mike Walters was second at 20'1".

Bob Darr, ace pole vaulter from Hudson, soared to new heights as he cleared the bar at 12'3", breaking the school record of 11'8¾" he set earlier this year.

Cisco's leap of 20'3" in the broad jump was also a new school record.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Drive With Care on Your Trip

Pinpoint the Message

Dave Rood is a talented fellow who publishes the weekly in Three Oaks, a community in the southwestern part of the state.

We've known Dave for years and really enjoy his rapier-like wit and power-packed use of words.

Recently, his paper received a news release from New York regarding the marriage of the daughter of a GM executive, who was reared in Dave's community. The story had good local interest.

Publisher Rood commented:

"When he (the executive) had something important to say, and he wants to let all his old friends and neighbors know about it, he turns to his hometown paper.

"This man didn't turn to television or singing commercials, or mass media or worry about milline rate. He just automatically knew that the best way to tell people in Three Oaks about his daughter's wedding was to put it in the Three Oaks paper.

"He can sell cars the same way. Dinah Shore can sing all the songs she wants to, but unless people in Three Oaks are reminded that it's Dutch Litner who's selling Chevy here, I don't think the show is going to do them much good. Dutch Litner means more to these folks than Dinah Shore ever will . . . because they know him and his family and his business personally."

Moral: Selling is local and the place to keep hammering home the sales message is at the point of the deal.

More On Telephone

Apparently, we're not the only one concerned with the telephone situation. From the Blissfield Advance comes this editorial, written under a heading, "Telephone Company Is Pulling Our Leg Again."

The General Telephone Company of Michigan, which has been accused of bad faith by Blissfield business men in the past, is up to its old tricks again. It is softening up the public to ask for another rate increase.

A rate increase is not sought at this time, but certainly appears to be in the offing from a publicity hand-out from Muskogon proposing a series of minor rate changes for telephone installation and service work, with this bit of news at the tail-end.

"In view of constantly increasing cost of telephone equipment and labor, it may be necessary for General Telephone to apply for a general upward adjustment in local service rates in the future."

Just 10 years ago, H. R. Christianson, of Muskegon, then vice president and general manager of the old Michigan Associated Telephone Co., whose successor is General Telephone Co., of Michigan, told a Blissfield group that it was planned to install automatic equipment and dial telephone systems in most of their exchanges within the next 10 years."

We quote from a statement appearing in the Dec. 30, 1947 issue of the Blissfield Advance.

The company has had several rate increases since then, and its subscribers here have contributed, according to our rough calculations, more than enough additional revenue to offset the cost of new equipment installed here in 1950. Yet we still do not have dial phones.

If you judge a utility by its performances, rather than its promises, you'll have many a skeptic in Blissfield.

Swim Class Registration Is June 9, 10

Registration for swimming classes at the Tecumseh pool will be June 9 and 10, states Carl Hale.

Youngsters can sign up from 9 a.m. until noon on either of these days, at the pool.

This year there will be two four-week courses, the first running from June 16 through July 11; the second from July 14 through August 8.

Classes will meet each day, Monday through Friday, cost $3.

Children must be at least six years old. Those who took last summer should bring their Red Cross cards, showing the highest grade completed.

☆

CHILDREN MUST live in the Tecumseh school district in order to take swimming.

Classes offered:

1. Beginners.
2. Junior intermediates.
3. Intermediates.
4. Swimmers.

Mr. Hale states that he hopes to have a beginners class for adults. Details will be announced in a future issue of The Herald.

CHANGE NIGHT

The Altar Society of St. Elizabeth Church will hold its meeting June 11, rather than June 4, in deference to the Crass Night of Tecumseh high school.

ONE IN A SERIES

Parking Survey

(Editor's Note: An intensive study of downtown Tecumseh parking was recently completed by the Detroit firm of Gibson and Kileen. As a public service, The Herald is printing the findings in a series of articles. Charts and graphs vital to the study may be seen at the city hall.)

INTRODUCTION

Adequate parking is one of the basic requirements for the continued growth and prosperity of any shopping center. The determination of adequacy or inadequacy in any specific instance, however, is something which cannot be done through casual observation or a cursory study.

It was recognition of this fact which led Tecumseh officials to authorize this survey. The purpose of the survey was four-fold:

1. To study existing curb parking regulation and usage in the central business district.

2. To determine the amount of parking space required to serve the commercial development in this four block area bounded by Logan, Pearl, Pottawatamie and Ottawa.

3. To study the adequacy of existing parking facilities curb and off street in the light of the calculated needs.

4. To evaluate the master plan for parking lot development in each of the four blocks as proposed by the City Planning Commission.

The area outlined above contains most of the commercial establishments in the city and its economic stability is of utmost importance to the entire city.

Its attractiveness as the main shopping center for people residing in Tecumseh and its environs is dependent on many factors. Among these are the type of services available, the price ease of access for both driver and pedestrian and the availability of parking space in reasonable proximity to the shoppers destination.

Each of these factors is important and the failure of merchants to recognize even a single one of them can render the efforts of city officials ineffective.

In other words, municipal programs set up to help provide adequate parking and to permit traffic to move with safety and ease through a business area are not of themselves sufficient to maintain consumer patronage.

Successful merchants have come to realize that adequate parking is just another requirement in modern merchandising.

They recognize, however, that they can obtain help from local government with this phase of existing curb parking regulations were studied in relation to abut their problem and that through and quality of goods offered, the appearance of the stores, the cooperative efforts and some investment, adequate parking can be provided, at least to such a degree that potential customers will not hesitate to enter the area because of irritating parking difficulties.

This report will provide the data upon which to base a sound approach to the parking problem in the business area of this community.

☆

THE STUDY was broken down into three distinct parts.

In the first phase of this study, ting property use, apparent demand, and actual usage. This study demonstrated a need for several important changes in parking time limits.

The second phase of the survey consisted of determining the amount of floor space devoted to commercial use in the four blocks under study. The amount of parking space to service the measured floor area was then computed.

The next step in the survey was to weigh the amount of parking space currently available against the computed needs for each block.

This indicates whether or not a shortage of space exists, where it exists and establish the amount of space required to alleviate shortages found.

(Next week—Curb and Parking Regulations)

Rita Warner Exchanges Vows with Jack Wolf

Tipton Community Church was the scene of a spring wedding Saturday, May 17, when Rita Warner and Jack Carl Wolf exchanged marriage vows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey D. Warner of Tipton and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester C. Wolf of Onsted.

The tall gold altar vases were filled with arrangements of white lilacs and gladioli flanked by lighted candelabra. Hampers filled with the same white blossoms formed the background for the impressive ceremony performed by Rev. Seth Hoisington assisted by Rev. David M. Holly.

Tim Ostrander sang "Oh Promise Me" and "O Perfect Love" as the couple knelt at the altar. He was accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Rex Wolf, aunt of the groom, who also presented traditional nuptial music.

☆

THE BRIDE CHOSE a gown of chantilly lace in ballerina length with a beaded Sabrina neckline and long tapering sleeves. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was attached to a tiara of pearls and sequins and she carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and greens in a cascade arrangement.

Donna Warner was her sister's maid of honor and Jane Wolf, sister of the groom, was the bridesmaid. They were identical gowns of embroidered organza over taffeta with rounded neck-lines ending in a point at the back, short sleeves and a butterfly bow forming a bustle effect.

Each wore matching shoes, picture hats and carried colonial bouquets of white carnations centered with a glamelia softened with tuffs of tulle. Miss Warner wore lilac and Miss Wolf aqua.

Linda May Kronberg, niece of the bride, was the flower girl wearing a dress of pink nylon and lace and a white hat.

Kenton Waterbrook, nephew of the groom, was the ring bearer carrying the ring on a white satin heart shaped pillow.

☆

LESTER WOLF served as his brother's best man and Gordan Smith also attended the groom. The guests were seated by Merritt Riece and Harvey Warner, Jr.

A reception for 250 guests was held immediately after the wedding in the church parlors which were decorated in lilac and white floral arrangements with lighted candles.

The pillared wedding cake was cut by Francis Kuney while Jill Pawson served punch; Joyce Harsh, the ice cream. Marcia Wheaton, the groom's cake and Haroldean Hadden, the coffee.

Claudette Cook registered the guests, Mrs. Forrest Harsh, Joan Little and Rheta Renner assisted with the gifts. All wore corsages of white carnations.

The bride is a graduate of Onsted high school in 1957 and is presently employed at the ASC office in Adrian.

The groom is a graduate of the Onsted high school in 1956 an dis employed at Hidden Lake Gardens. They will be at home at 6379 West Monroe road, Tipton.

Mrs. Jones Honored at WSCS Gathering

The Woman's Society of Christian Service recently held its regular monthly meeting in the church parlors.

Mrs. Carlos Jones, president, presided at the meeting with 25 members and Mrs. Lloyd Harr, Ann Arbor District president, present. Mrs. James Nixon led the worship.

A card of thanks was read from Mrs. Arthur Woodward for the baby gift. Mrs. Edna Codling, sunshine chairman, reported.

The annual meeting for the Detroit Conference was May 20 at Midland. School of Missions will be July 7-11 at Albion.

The nominating committee announced Mrs. Raymond Hatch has accepted the duties of secretary of children's work for the coming conference year.

☆

THE SUBSCRIPTION price for the "Methodist Woman" and "World Outlook" magazines will be increased June 1.

To renew subscriptions or to become a new subscriber at the old price, notify Mrs. Edna Codling, secretary of literature and publications, this month.

The officers gave their annual report, showing the past conference year as having been busy and inspiring for each officer. Many projects have been completed, but each person feels the challenge of a great amount of work to be done next year.

Mrs. James Nixon, program leader, introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Lloyd Harr.

Mrs. Carroll Sprague led in pledge service, using the same program as was used at the national assembly in St. Louis, Missouri.

Mrs. Jones was honored by the presentation of a past president's pin, tribute for her two years as leader of the society.

Refreshments were served from a table decorated in a summer motif. The committee in charge was Mrs. Vincze, Mrs. Codling, Mrs. Artman and Mrs. Richard Longhney.

Clara Waldron Speaks at Gathering May 27

"Our Town" will be the topic when the Business and Professional Women's Club meet May 27.

Ann Carson will have charge of the program and Clara Waldron will be the speaker.

Hostesses are Helen French, Lucy McEntee, Marie Greiman and Myrna Tingley. Devotions conducted by Mrs. Paul Maves.

Polly Moore Plays in Florida Tourney

Polly Moore, 1957 Tecumseh ladies club champion, played in the Tournament of Champions tourney recently at Palm Beach. Inclement weather cut the field from a possible 1,200 private club champions to around 50.

Two Are Welcomed into Tri-Town Club at Dick Whelan Home

Mrs. James Felton and Mrs. Alroy Vanderpool were welcomed to the membership of the Tri-Town Extension Club May 19 at the home of Mrs. Dick Whelan.

Seventeen members were present with Mrs. John Robison presiding as officers were elected.

Mrs. Jack Gibson—chairman.

Mrs. Thomas Kampmueller—vice-chairman and reporter.

Mrs. Richard Beasley—secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Alroy Vanderpool—corresponding and recording secretary and historian.

Mrs. Thomas Kampmueller and Mrs. Felton—program planning chairmen.

Mrs. Jerry Eggleston and Mrs. Ted Sisson—project leaders.

Plans were made for the next meeting when the project will be hair styling. A picnic will be held in July at Lake Erie.

Mrs. Larry Hart and Mrs. Whelan presented the project for the evening on "Crafts." A white elephant sale was held and refreshments served by the hostess.

It HAPPENED In MACON

By MRS. HAMILTON MOORE
Phone 10-F-3

Annual Memorial Day program will be held at the Macon Cemetery on Sunday, June 1 instead of June 8 as stated in last week's Herald, at 2 o'clock. In case of rain the program will be in the church.

The Alice Jane Circle will meet on June 11 instead of the regular date. Mrs. Herbert Ayres will be the hostess.

The Macon Township Cancer Society has completed its campaign. The amount collected was $221.50.

We wish to thank the Macon Community Club, Macon Women's Club, Boysville, Lenawee Farm Bureau, Macon Extension Club, the Maconettes, IOOF, Lake Ridge Farm Bureau and Mrs. Rose Harmon of Toledo, Ohio.

We also would like to thank the ladies who volunteered their time, Marie Hunt, Bertha Zick, Phyllis Patterson, Jean Ruhl, Ann Popelar, Dora Schrober, Delta Croll, Roseann Vollmer, Elizabeth Barrett, Gladys Prill, Lou Scheffer and Edna Bortell.

Scholastic recognition was received by Truman Jordan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Truman A. Jordan, in the Honors Day convocation at Albion College, May 19. Truman was cited as winner of the D. L. Randall award in chemistry. He was also named as a member of Omicron Delta Kappa, national men's leadership fraternity. He is a junior at college and a graduate of Clinton high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gilmore opened their home on Tuesday evening for the Macon Community Club. A cooperative supper was served at seven. Mr. Clayton Bigelow had charge of the meeting. The calendar for the coming year was made out. It was decided to have the host each month be responsible for the program.

The following people were appointed to help collect early history of Macon Township; cemeteries—Clayton Bigelow; early stores and the tile kiln—Dil Burleson; schools—Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Travis; churches—Mrs. Lilah Howell and Mrs. H. F. Moore; post office—Mrs. Nina Pennington; wagon shop—Ray Gilmore; hotels—Ray Hendershot.

Anyone having any information on the early history of Macon should contact any of the above named.

We are trying to collect the history for the Historical Society, as well as for a record to be kept in Macon.

Does anyone have any information on the meat market, the shoe shop, the blacksmith shop, Lake Ridge Hotel or Dew Drop Inn? We wish to have the material as soon as possible.

Mrs. Rose Harmon of Toledo, Mrs. Nina Pennington of Clinton, Mrs. Mary Goodin of Milan and Mrs. Lentz, an aunt of Mrs. Clayton Bigelow, were guests.

Mrs. Gilmore announced the following program: A favorite piece by David Bush was read in his memory by Ralph Halladay, (Mr. Bush was a member of the Club). Ray Gilmore read a poem, Mrs. Melvin Travis told and showed how she made a wishing well. Mrs. M. F. Moore showed textile painting, copper pictures, tray and basket weaving and leather work. These were all items made by members of the Macon Hobby Club. Mrs. Ralph Halladay read an original poem she had written "Down on the Farm," depicting the farm life of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Evans. The poem was presented to the Evans after it had been read. Mrs. Gilmore showed three pictures that she had painted when she was younger.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sobigray had a baby boy born in the Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Troy Hicks has returned home from Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Rose Harmon of Toledo spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Travis and May Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bruder of Tecumseh and Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore spent Thursday in Belleville with Mr. and Mrs. Al Straub and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Dil Burleson and their daughter, Mrs. Roy Heliman, attended the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur O'Brien. It was held Sunday afternoon in Adrian at the home of an O'Brien niece, Mrs. Hazel Pickford.

Mr. and Mrs. David O'Conner and family of Detroit have moved into the house recently vacated by the Harry Graham family.

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Van Valkenburg took her mother, Mrs. Cora Sherwood to her home in Rushville, Indiana. They went on Friday and returned home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Jordan, Sr. were at Albion College Monday evening attending a musical concert. Their son Truman took part.

Mr. and Mrs. Dil Burleson are staying in the Lilburn Burleson home, while they are on vacation.

Grover Bates of Vassar came Friday to spend a few days with his son and family, Rev. and Mrs. Donald Bates. On Saturday they all visited another son and brother in Ohio.

Harold Van Valkenburg of Ypsilanti, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russel Van Valkenburg had the misfortune to be hit by a car Sunday evening and received a broken arm and brain concussion.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ries entertained the second grade class of the Tecumseh St. Elizabeth's School on Saturday. They had a picnic. Leslie Rowe was among the children.

Summer Dinner Is Planned by 'Bees'

Plans were made recently by the Raisin Green Bees Extension Club to hold its summer dinner at Schuler's restaurant in Jackson during the month of June.

In July, they will hold a mother and children picnic at the home of Mrs. Warren Staup. On August 3 a family picnic will be held at the home of Mrs. John Babcock.

GIRLS HONOR MOMS

Girls of Star of Bethlehem Troop 22 entertained their mothers at a tea Tuesday afternoon. During their program each girl presented her mother with a carnation corsage.

The troop is under the leadership of Mrs. Russell Southwell and Mrs. Ralph Dabe.

REALTY VIEWS

"I can see why you'd like a listing on my property," said Jack Skinter, who owned a desirable home in Clinton, "but I can't understand why you insist on an exclusive listing. My property is quite a distance from your home base."

"There are several reasons, Jack," I replied. "To start with, because of the size of the deal, we'll promote your property and show it just as if it were close at hand. But another reason is this. Several years ago we took an open listing on a large property. We presented it to a prospect. A little later, he talked to a broker in another city. The price quoted was less because the other broker had an obsolete inventory. From that time on, the prospect thought he could get it cheaper. Since he actually couldn't, no deal materialized. No one benefited. These situations occur when a large property is listed with several brokers. Instead of helping an owner to sell, it usually spells the chances. A broker loses interest when he encounters such incidents.

"Another thing, without an exclusive listing, a broker has no way of knowing the status of the property. If I encountered a good prospect, I would have to check to see if the property were still for sale, and what changes, if any, had been made. This is an unsatisfactory arrangement. An exclusive listing is the only answer."

"Whoa," Jack shouted, "I'm convinced. Go ahead on an exclusive basis."

6 New Members Join Auxiliary

Blood bank films were shown at the meeting of the Hospital Auxiliary May 13 with Mrs. Ray Shelton speaking and answering questions about them.

Mrs. Ray Shuster gave highlights on the rummage sale held recently.

Six new members — Mrs. Wilton Meyers, Mrs. Burlin Brees, Mrs. L. B. Milheim, Mrs. Russell Gunderson, Mrs. Nilwen Bishop and Mrs. Preston Caswell — were accepted.

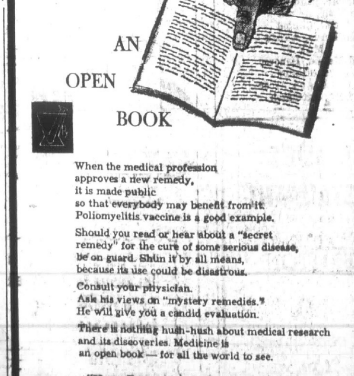
Louis Graff was the speaker of the evening with the subject, "Bringing Up Your Hospital."

He is the director of public relations and advertising for the Blue Cross-Blue Shield Insurance, and had the honor of preparing the first press release on the initial successful Saulk vaccine in 1955.

Raisin Cookies Meet at Porter's

The Raisin Cookies met at the home of Linda Porter, May 5, with Mrs. August Hoffmeister. Reports were given on horses, dairy and sheep. Bingo was played for the recreation.

They met May 19 at their club house. Reports were given on chicken, rabbit and swine projects.



When the medical profession approves a new remedy, it is made public so that everybody may benefit from it. Poliomyelitis vaccine is a good example.

Should you read or hear about a "secret remedy" for the cure of some serious disease, be on guard. Shun it by all means, because its use could be disastrous.

Consult your physician. Ask his views on "mystery remedies." He will give you a candid evaluation.

There is nothing hush-hush about medical research and its discoveries. Medicine is an open book — for all the world to see.

State Officers Attend Meeting of Music Club

Three state officers were guests of the Tecumseh Music Club May 20 at a meeting held in the home of Mrs. Wilfred Waldron.

Mrs. A. V. Smith of Mason, president of the South Eastern District; Mrs. Robert Wieder of Jackson, vice-president and Mrs. Robert Bradford of Lansing, State Hospital Chairman of Music, all spoke.

Jackie Rueker, local student, was also a guest and told of the European tour she will make this summer with the Michigan Choral, under the direction of Lester McCoy from U. of M.

During the meeting, a special vote of thanks was extended to Leslie Bennett for directing the Chorus for the year.

Officers elected were:
President—Elizabeth Wilson
Vice-president — Mrs. Fred Oberlin
Secretary — Mrs. Marvin Schroeder
Treasurer — Mrs. Oscar Bryan
Librarians — Edith Ingersoll, and Mrs. George Wittrup
Counselor — Mrs. Maynard Mulvaney
Corresponding secretary—Mrs. James Danforth

☆

"AMERICAN MUSIC" was the theme of the program presented by Mrs. Waldron, program chairman. Those presenting numbers were Mrs. Paul Brantingham, Miss Rucker, Mrs. Louis Caterina, Mrs. Oberlin and Mrs. Arthur Schwartz.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Leslie Bennett and Mrs. Henry Vaughan.

A picnic will be held by the club at the Waldron cottage June 28 when the new officers will take office and plans will be made for the coming year.

Two Tecumseh Leaders Given 'Scouty' Awards

Dr. Richard Dustin and Howard Wilson, Jr. were among six Scout leaders from Lenawee County to receive the new "Scouty" awards, presented at the annual Lenape Recognition Banquet held recently at the Products Union Hall.

The awards are made for distinguished leadership and service to boys in the community and are a new feature added this year.

LUCKY CLOVER CLUB

The Lucky Clover Club will meet with Mrs. Russell Starkey Saturday 7:30 p.m. at the home of Lynn Halley. 4-H Sunday will be discussed and reports given on sheep and flower projects. Feed cards will be discussed and questions answered on all projects.

Through My Window

A VISITOR FROM BALTIMORE

This has been a wonderful spring. All of our old bird friends are coming back and we've had some exciting newcomers. It seems as though this year we have had more new birds than ever before. (Do you suppose they've heard about these articles and are seeking publicity?)

It was several weeks ago, a beautiful spring day. Alice and I had been busy all morning photographing birds. The feeder had been especially busy, apparently everyone was hungry.

Bluejays, Titmice, Nuthatches and the unwalcome Grackles were out in full force, but we had been concentrating on the Cardinals. Mr. and Mrs. were still courting and how lovely they were as the bright sunshine shone on their fine soft feathers.

By mid-afternoon the activity had subsided slightly and although the camera was still trained on the feeder, we were busy with other things.

Suddenly a flash of color caught my eye and as I turned my head for a second look, the brilliance of the bird who settled on our feeded almost left me speechless.

I somehow managed to stammer out, "Oh, look" and for the next few minutes we sat wide eyed with wonder and hardly daring to breathe for fear of frightening our new guest away.

☆

IN THE MORNING we had thought the male Cardinal, with his new suit of scarlet, was dazzlingly bright, but here was a bird that put our Cardinal to shame. Our new visitor's head was jet black and how it glistened in the warm springtime sun.

His breast was a firery orange and, of course, you've guessed it, we were entertaining a Baltimore Oriole.

Since the feeding tray is only three feet from the window and we were a like distance away on the inside, we had a wonderful chance to study the bird.

In addition to the bold black head and orange breast, the Oriole had many delicate markings that added to his beauty. His wings, for instance, were black with large orange patches at the shoulders and two bands of white stripes; one about mid-wing and the other just above the black, pointed wing tips.

About half way down to and including a bit of the tail, the feathers were the same firery orange as his breast. The tail, except for this orange base and a length of orange edging at the end of the outer feathers was black.

We were slightly surprised at his Lordship's bib. Not that it was particularly outstanding, we had just never seen the bird at such close range before. It was comparatively long, very pointed and quite light in color.

As insect eaters, these birds are certainly equipped with excellent probing instruments. Although occasionally accused of spoiling fruit—apples, cherries, etc., this theory has lately been disproved.

The very, very small amount of fruit eaten by these birds is unimportant.

What should be stressed is their fondness for insects and their thoroughness in obtaining same. Many of the tinier bugs, which because of their size, are often by-passed by the other birds, form an important part of the Oriole's diet.

☆

AFTER MARVELING at our handsome guest for a few minutes we began to wonder about taking his picture. The camera was aimed at the feeder and the switch was at hand but would the flash frighten him away?

We certainly didn't want that to happen and yet how wonderful it would be to capture that black and orange beauty on film.

Curiosity, a desire to investigate the feeding station, brought him to us in the first place and we decided to take a chance that with his attention otherwise diverted he would not notice a sudden flash of light.

The decision made, we held our breath, flipped the switch and then exhaled in relief—when the flash went off, the Baltimore Oriole had not even batted an eye.

☆

JUST A FEW seconds after we had taken our picture, a big, brassy Bluejay flew down and away our Oriole went.

(The pay off to our photographic adventure with the Oriole is that, when the film came back, the picture hadn't turned out well. Most of his visit at the feeder was spent in one corner and at the time we wondered if the camera completely covered that side. Unfortunately it hadn't. It was a good try, however, and although we don't have a prize winning shot, we do have proof positive that the Baltimore visitor was on our feeder.)

There are, in this neighborhood, many tall, lovely shade trees, several especially fine elms, and since the Orioles prefer the ends of large, wide arching shade tree limbs for nesting sites, wouldn't it be wonderful if a pair set up housekeeping nearby.

They probably will not visit the feeder again, but it will be a thrill just to see them occasionally as they dart to and fro after insects and, of course, their unique, gourd-shaped, hanging basket nests are always interesting.

(Next week: May I Introduce)

Mrs. Branigan Entertains DAR

Mrs. Charles Branigan opened her home in Britton to the members of the DAR for the May meeting. Luncheon was served and Mrs. Louis Schneider presented the program, "Our Flag."

The program included an informative quiz on the Michigan state flag as well as the national flag.

A service was conducted by Mrs. Hoyt Whelan in memory of Dr. Mary H. Swan, Mrs. Elmer M. Stoffiett and several other deceased members.

Co-hostesses were Mrs. Orville Laidlaw, Mrs. LaVern Russell, Mrs. Neil Pearson and Mrs. Howard Wilson, Sr.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Laidlaw with a picnic luncheon served at 1 p.m.

4-H Hi-Steppers Buy Club Flags

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wood presented the Country Hi-Steppers 4-H Club with a gavel at the meeting held in the home of Sharon and Diane Mitzner Tuesday evening.

The club has purchased both the National and 4-H Club flags for use at meetings.

Projects were discussed with Mrs. Raynor Sweet speaking on Wild Life and Birds and Mrs. Donald Woods on photography.

Plans are in progress to invite the other clubs of the county to the showing of a film on "Breeding Livestock," June 28. The film will be shown at the Hoyt Whelan Implement Company.

The Club has been challenged by the Raisin Cookies Club to a ball game. The place and time have not been set as yet.

Members enjoyed a game preceding the meeting and refreshments were served in conclusion.

The next meeting will be held June 10 at the Raynor Sweet home on Ives road.

Dairy Business Vital to County

DAIRY BUSINESS VITAL

(Editor's note: June is Dairy Month and during these 30 days, considerable attention will be focused on this vital segment of farming across the nation.

In Lenawee county, the dairy industry makes an important contribution to annual cash farm sales.

According to the 1954 census of Michigan Agriculture, Lenawee county sold farm products valued at $21¼ million.

Broken down:

Field crops	$9,750,000
Meat (other than dairy)	$6,000,000
Dairy Products	$3,750,000
Poultry and poultry products	$1,250,000
Tomatoes	$143,000
Vegetable Crops	$666,000
Fruits	$100,000

WHOLE MILK sold last year by 1,191 farms produced 107,169,102 pounds of milk, the value of which, when sold, was $3,738,323 and in addition 90 farms produced 78,883 pounds of cream the butterfat, of which, was valued at $44,621.

In 1957 on the farms of the county 19,000 heads of cows two-years-old and older, were in milk. In addition there were probably 4,000 head of dairy animals under two-years of age, and it was estimated that approximately 4,000 more, dairy animals, and veal calves were sold for slaughter during that year.

☆

LENAWEE COUNTY does not lead the state of Michigan in dairy industry. There are at least 12 other Michigan counties that have more dairy cows on farms than this county.

Lenawee county leads all other counties of Michigan in the number of beef steers finished in the feed lots of this county for market, some 25,000 head annually.

This county leads in the number of hogs produced on farms and is among the top three counties in sheep production and lamb feeding, which emphasizes the diversity of our livestock interests.

Returning to the dairy industry: It can be said that the quality of the dairy animals kept and the dairy products sold compare favorable with all other counties on a per head basis as well as quality of product.

Lenawee county has four Dairy Herd Improvement Associations with nearly 100 herds on test and in addition a number of herds on owner sampler method of testing. This work has continued now for over a quarter of a century.

Artificial breeding of dairy animals has prevailed in this county for the last 12 years. There are six associations operating in the county that are Co-operatives; and in addition there are some private companies that are breeding dairy animals artifically in this county.

There are three active breed associations for dairy cattle—Holstein, Guernsey and Jersey—that hold annual meetings, summer breed shows, exhibits at the county fair, in some years.

These dairy organizations are cooperating with the 4-H and Future Farmers of America, youth programs that relate to the dairy projects.

Want to Own Racing Stable? Pigeons, That Is

Twenty-three in Lenawee county are now owners or co-owners of racing stock-pigeons, that is.

The racing homer pigeon has long been known as the poor man's race horse and in the last three years, 17 lofts have sprung up in this area.

The Maple City Pigeon Club, centering in Adrian, is made up of members from Adrian, Petersburg, Clinton, Tecumseh and the Irish Hills area.

The club boundaries encompass a 17-mile radius, using Adrian as the hub.

Tecumseh is represented by one loft belonging to Bill and Larry Becky of 703 Adrian street.

Bill is the secretary of the club and anyone with a desire to become a fancier is invited to contact him. Complete information can also be had at Ben's Sport Shop in Clinton.

"A community the size of Tecumseh should have several lofts. Anyone interested?" asks Ben O. Mahrle, publicity chairman of the club.

MR. AND MRS. HUBERT NORCROSS . . . she's from Okinawa

Bride from Okinawa

★ ★ ★

She's Fascinated by Tecumseh Trees

★ ★ ★

By MARY SEAGER

Many of you feel you know what Okinawa looks like. Why? Well, because you've seen the movie "Teahouse" of the August Moon," whose setting was Okinawa.

You might know, that is, except that "Teahouse" was actually filmed in Japan.

However, according to Hubert Lee Norcross, a youthful Tecumsehite recently of the Navy, the picture was remarkably accurate. Okinawa does look like that, for the most part.

Ex-Gob Norcross should know, he was based there more than a year.

☆

OKINAWA IS an island 70 miles long and 13 miles wide that is southwest of Japan. April and May are the rainy season and September and October are the months of the typhoons.

Even with all the rain in those two months Okinawa is dry and rather barren. No real trees of any great height grow there, only scrub.

The huge green maples, elms and oaks that line the streets of Tecumseh fascinate Hubert's young native wife, Sueko, who arrived in this country two weeks ago from Okinawa.

In her homeland there isn't much green grass as we have it here.

In fact, in most places the land is irrigated by hand; the people carry their water in pails from the town well. Often, water is even sold for three or four cents a gallon.

☆

FIRST WATER rights go, of course, to the farmers' small rice paddies and truck gardens.

Sueko's parents raised rice and goats, but other animals such as pigs, chickens and an occasional cow are also raised by the islanders.

All types of vegetables are grown with the farmer getting two or three crops a year. Because the climate is similar to that of Florida, some citrus fruits are raised.

Okinawa is so Americanized that in two short weeks Sueko has an opinion on rock and roll. She doesn't like it, but she does like Pat Boone.

BECAUSE THERE are so many American Armed Force bases on used to the Western style of living. In fact, Mr. Norcross said that an American wouldn't notice any difference except for the people and the climate.

There was a day, however, when Sueko and her family were not so familiar with America and things American.

Her family was hiding in the northern bush country during World War II while the Japanese and Americans were fighting over possession of the island.

One day, one of the family found a can of GI cheese that had been thrown away. Sueko and her mother, thinking it was like a type of Japanese tinned soap, tried to wash all their clothes with it. After the first couple of shirts they decided it might not be soap after all.

Now they are completely familiar with American canned goods, and other imports.

As this reporter said goodbye to the tiny Okinawan with the charming accent, we can hope that she will like us as well as we like her.

THE Long & Short OF IT

THERE ARE A DOZEN things to write about this week and we hardly know where to begin.

Let's start with the Memorial Day parade. It was my first here and I never imagined how terrific it would be.

Seeing so many folks taking part and such a flood of people viewing this spectacle left me with this reaction: I'm really proud to be living in Tecumseh.

The VFW and Girl Scout floats were breath-taking. Next year we'll bet there will be many more.

And now to our new Chamber of Commerce secretary.

Quite a number of business people have already met Don Murphy of Hastings and the consensus of feeling is a definite: "Seems like a fine fellow."

The Chamber's board of directors spent six weeks searching for an experienced secretary, one with a lot of fire and desire. In Murphy, boardmen have found their man.

We'll wager that Tecumseh is going to be pleased with him.

The board is holding a "Meet Murph Banquet" Wednesday, June 18 at the Country Club for members and wives.

Again, we're happy to live in Tecumseh when we witness the business-like precision exhibited by the Chamber in becoming organized and chosing a leader.

Which brings us to a little junket made last week by the Chamber's officers — Dr. Richard Coak, Dick Eggleston and Gale Fisher — to the H. W. Tuttle Co. in Adrian, the industry coming to Tecumseh.

The fellows thought it would be a good idea to offer an official welcome to its president, Mrs. Madeline Tuttle.

Mrs. Tuttle was most appreciate and gave the trio a complete tour of her firm's present facilities.

She also re-affirmed what she had told The Herald two weeks previous; Tuttle Co. was definitely coming to Tecumseh.

Apparently, an article which appeared in the Adrian paper prompted her to make this latter statement.

The day after The Herald reported the news, The Telegram wrote that Tuttle "was studying a possible move to Tecumseh."

It may have made some folks here, including our Chamber officers, a mite nervous, but Mrs. Tuttle cleared up the point nicely.

And to close this week's opus, shall we chat about swimming?

The city pool open for the summer Thursday — after a three-day session over the Memorial Day weekend, marred a bit by poor weather.

It is open to the public from 2 until 5 and 6:15 until 9.

If you're interested in having the youngsters take swimming lessons, see Carl Hale at the pool.

Answer Is Still 'No' --- Council

An hour-long discussion at council meeting Monday night failed to change the moratorium now in effect for construction of gas stations.

Councilmen, members of the Planning Commission, Roy Richard, bulk distributor for Leonard Oil Company, a company representative and others voiced opinions.

The controversy not only concerned future gas stations, but the manner in which the Richard station application was handled.

Many agreed there are too many stations now, and a vote to rescind the moratorium for additional stations was rejected 4 to 3.

The defeated motion, if passed, would have paved the way for council to reconsider Mr. Richard's application, which had been made before the moratorium went into effect.

The company official opined that council was being unfair since the application was submitted before the recent council-planning commission special meeting, out of which came the moratorium.

He stated action to stop station construction should have been made prior to the application, not afterwards.

Councilmen John Hamilton, Mayor Oley Hanna and James Freckelton voted in favor of rescinding the moratorium. Donald Brazee, Dr. William Britton, Harold Easton and Donald Purkey were against it.

Members in favor of temporarily rescinding the moratorium also were in favor of continuing it after acting on the Richard application.

☆

CLIFF PRESTON, owner of Airport Bowl, sought approval for expansion of his bowling center. Since the area is zoned residential, a public hearing was scheduled for June 20.

Harry Beland, seeking approval for an addition to his plant on Occidental road was referred to the planning commission.

Legion Installing Officers Thursday

Officers to be installed for the Underwood-Orr Post of the American Legion Thursday evening are:

Commander—Larry Cote.

First vice-commander—Dennis Goller.

Second vice-commander — Douglas Tate.

Chaplain — James Vallie.

Sergeant-at-arms — Dean Pilbeam.

Finance officer — George Green.

Historian — Douglas Maves.

Adjutant — Donald Woods.

A shrimp supper will be served at 6:30 preceding the meeting. All members are cordially invited.

The County 40 & 8 team will install the new officers.

Class of 1918 Holds Reunion

A reunion of Tecumseh high school's Class of 1918 will be held June 7 at the home of Mrs. Bertram Updike, 102 South Adrian street at 3 p.m.

This precedes the alumni banquet at the high school at 7 p.m.

Joseph Satterthwaite, now of Washington, D.C., and Wade Van Valkenburg, former speaker of the House and now an attorney in Kalamazoo, are members of this class.

Of the 27 original members, four have passed away. They are Kathryn Reed Winn, Adah Howe Galdani, Leigh McLain and Neal Rentschler.

ACTING MANAGER — Calvin Zorn, city engineer and assessor, has been named acting city manager by council until Ed Nelson is able to return to duty. Mr. Nelson suffered a heart attack two weeks ago and is recuperating in Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Power Mower Slices Off Part of Foot

A power lawn mower sliced off a portion of Mrs. Robert Crockett's right foot in an accident Monday at her Matthews road home.

Mrs. Crockett was taken to Herrick Memorial and then to St. Joseph's in Ann Arbor, where she is now confined.

The mishap occurred as Mrs. Crockett was pulling the mower backwards and it hit a rock, jumped into the air and came down on her foot.

Deer Bounds into Path of Auto

Loretta Bable, 302 S. Evans, was most astonished Wednesday morning when a deer darted in front of her car on M-52 one-quarter mile east of Rogers highway.

Loretta suffered no injury, but $150 damage was done to her car and the impact killed the fawn.

Harold Webster witnessed the mishap while driving his truck and tried to signal the Bable car but the deer darted onto the road before he could.

Meet New Chamber Secretary

Don Murphy of Hastings has been hired as Tecumseh's new Chamber of Commerce executive secretary.

Holding a similar position in that Barry county city for the past 29 months, Mr. Murphy was persuaded to come to Tecumseh at a special board of directors meeting here last Wednesday night.

The 42-year-old secretary will take over July 1.

He has already spent considerable time in Tecumseh, sizing up the opportunity here, meeting dozens of people.

"Tecumseh offers a great challenge," the new secretary has said.

Originally from Pennsylvania, Mr. Murphy is married and the father of two children, Janet Lee, a high school sophomore, and Keith, a fourth grader.

The Murphys will move to Tecumseh as soon as housing is located and their home in Hastings is sold.

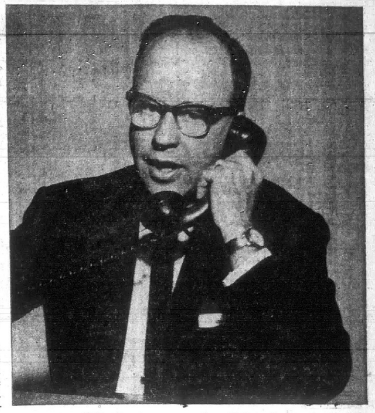
Mr. Murphy was born in Collier, Pennsylvania. His father was with the United States Steel Corp., and he spent 10 years with the firm.

During World War II, the new Chamber secretary served 44 months in the Air Force as a radio operator and maintenance man. He was overseas 11 months.

Mr. Murphy attended California Normal in Pennsylvania, studied accounting by correspondence. He is currently taking a course in Chamber of Commerce work at Michigan State University, expects to complete it this summer.

TECUMSEH HERALD PHOTOS

"Tecumseh offers a big challenge"



Telephoning . . . . there'll be plenty.

Among his accomplishments at Hastings:

√ Worked out adequate parking plan.

√ Organized Barry County's $2 million tourist trade so that its promotion is handled entirely by the Hastings Chamber office.

√ Kept 12 active Chamber committees hustling.

√ Began plan for unified shopping district with early American store fronts, new sidewalks and street, new downtown street lighting.

√ Helped increase retail membership from 44 to 82, mainly by his 12 major annual promotions.

√ Got federal and state aid to make class "A" airport at Hastings.

Girl Graduates Hold Spotlight

Julia Boyce, Joan Kempf and Jane Colgrove will be principle speakers at the Tecumseh high school commencement program Thursday evening at 8.

Miss Boyce is the valedictorian of the class and Miss Kempt, the salutatorian.

Miss Colgrove will present the evening's address, "Tonight is Ours."

An expected 112 graduates will receive their diplomas from F. James McDowell at the close of the evening's program, which will include music by the High School Chorus, the presentation of the class gift by the president, Darrell Lowery, and the presentation of scholarships and awards.

☆

REV. A. JESCHKE of the Grace Lutheran English Church was the speaker Sunday evening for the baccalaureate service, which was held in the high school gymnasium.

The processional was played by Jane Hodges at the piano. "Thanks Be To Thee" and "The Blessings of Peace" were selections sung by the High School Chorus under the direction of Leslie Bennett, accompanied by Marilyn Helzerman on the harp.

Rev. Jeschke spoke on the subject, "Succeed With Jesus."

Nearly 3,000 View Memorial Day Parade

Floats by the Girl Scouts and VFW highlighted this year's Memorial Day parade witnessed by about 3,000.

Theme of the Girl Scout's entry was "World Friendship" between Scouts and Girl Guilds all over the earth.

Troops 16 and 17 made the float.

The VFW mobile display conceived by past commanders, told at a glance where poppy sale money goes. Featured was a disabled veteran, being cared for by a Red Cross Gray Lady. Standing guard over GI graves were World War I and II representatives from all branches of service.

About 700 took part in the parade, including all segments of Boy and Girl Scouts, proudly marching with their leaders.

The Tecumseh high school and junior high bands provided music, both in the parade and later during the ceremony at Brookside cemetery.

OTHERS IN line of march:

● Crack VFW men's drill team and a similar unit from the American Legion Auxiliary.

● Vehicles from the 46th Michigan National Guard Division.

● Red Cross Gray Ladies.

● Decorated bicycles and a group of riders and horses.

● Car honoring Spanish-American War dead.

● Truck bearing floral tributes for graves.

Under parade marshall Gerald Smith, the parade got underway at 10 a.m. at Ottawa and Chicago boulevard, moved west to Union and then north to the cemetery.

Every available viewing point along the way was jammed, some spectators taking up position as early as 9 a.m.

☆

FROM A bunting-bedecked platform at the cemetery, Rev. Robert Bergman delivered the Memorial Day address, asking that the war dead never be forgotten.

During the service, taps were played and a wreath placed at the Civil War monument. VFW members fired the rifle salute.

Mayor Oley Hanna was master of ceremonies, Rev. Dale Harvey gave the invocation. Members of council sat with them on the speaker's platform.

Junior League Begins Season

Junior Major League baseball play opens Tuesday on the new diamond east of the swimming pool.

The Majors this year will consist of a six team league.

Teams will be sponsored by Hodges Drugs, Tecumseh Products Workers Union, Rotary, Kiwanis, Jaycees and Exchange.

In the opening game at 4:15, Exchange meets Rotary and at 6 the JCC plays the Union.

On Wednesday Kiwanis meets Hodges at 4:15 and the Exchange plays the JCC.

Thursday at 4:15, Rotary faces Kiwanis and at 6 the Union takes on Hodges.

The league is composed of boys between the ages of 10 and 12.

Action will begin unofficially Monday evening when teams loosen up with 45-minute scrimmage games.

Exchange faces Hodges at 5, Rotary and Union at 5:45, JCs and Kiwanis at 6:30.

Picnics, reunions, fishing jaunts and just plain good old fashioned visiting filled the weekend holiday for Tecumseh people after the parade and memorial service Friday.

Gerald Smith, officer of the day, and all who took part in the services and parade to honor the war dead are to be complimented on the fine work done.

√

A potluck picnic was held Memorial Day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hart on West Cummins street. Those attending were the families of Ted Sisson, Thomas Kampmueller, Duane Bihlmyer, Duaine Murphy, Jack Colson, Richard Whelan, Jerry Eggleston, Dennis Goller, Mrs. Harold Mead and daughter and Mrs. DavidOusterhout and daughter.

√

Mrs. Louis S. Schneider entertained Mr. and Mrs. George Wolters and Mrs. Doris Hunt of Muskegon for the holiday weekend.

√

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Lowry of Bloomfield Village spent Memorial Day with his sister, Margaret Lowry.

√

The families of W. D. Hite, Keith Barron and George Green, Jr. enjoyed a picnic on the Green's back lawn Friday.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson and two daughters spent the weekend in Pittsburgh visiting his family.

√

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Artman are leaving Sunday for Ideal, Georgia to visit their daughter-in-law, Mrs. James M. Artman, Jr. They will be accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Marcus Hayes, and granddaughter, Marta Lu.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Peterson and children, former Tecumseh residents, have moved to Ridgeway, in the house across the street south from Benham's market.

√

Ralph Westgate and grandson, Robert, of Blissfield who is spending the summer here, in company with Jack Wilson of Toledo, William Heller and William Butler spent the weekend at Drumond Island with Charles Westgate. Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Ralph Westgate enjoyed the weekend together here in town.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harwood of Alma were Thursday night guests of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Kennard Wise. Friday evening all were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Othel Green of Heights Drive, Wamplers Lake. The group spent the remainder of the long weekend in Alma and Grayling.

$50,000 in Cattle

A Jersey cattle sale, in which more than $50,000 changed hands in five hours, was staged on the Dale Dean farm in Ridgeway last week.

A total of 63 animals were auctioned off at prices which averaged out at $806.40.

Two cows went for $3,100 each.

Seven hundred cattlemen, representing 13 states and Canada, attended the festivities.

This was the first such sale here since 1955. Previous to that year, Mr. Dean explains, there were annual auctions.

License plates seen at the sale included Utah, California, Arkansas, Ohio, Indiana, New Jersey, Texas, Wisconsin, Illinois, Kentucky, Maryland, Oregon and Ontario, Canada.

About 95 children are enrolled in the Vacation Bible School of the Grace Lutheran Church.

Classes will be in session from 9:30 to 11:30 in the morning, June 9 to 20.

A special closing night is planned June 20 to take place at 7 p.m. when the children will provide the program. There will be games and refreshments.

Teachers of the school are requested to meet for the final discussions and arrangements this Friday at 7 p.m.

Sunday services are held at 9:30 and 10:30 a.m. June 8 the theme of the sermon will be "Christ's Peace For Us."

Janet Mackey, Ricky Teske and Patricia Schwede will sing during the 9:30 service.

Gloria Dei Holds Vacation School

Gloria Dei Lutheran Church will conduct a Vacation Bible School, June 16 through 27, Monday through Friday, for children from 3-years of age through the seventh grade.

The school will start at 9:30 and conclude at 11:30. The program will include Bible study, music and handwork.

Mrs. Robert Bergman will supervise the beginners department, ages 3 to 5; Mrs. Kenneth Hooten, the primary department, ages 6-8; and Mrs. Curtis Wright, the junior department, ages 9-12.

Mrs. Stephen Illeck will be in charge of the music. Mrs. Donna Rohweder will conduct a nursery for the mothers with younger children who will be teaching.

Young people older than the enrollment age will serve as helpers.

Children of the community are invited to attend. School will be held in the parish house and the chapel at N. Evans and Brown street. Further information may be obtained by calling any of the supervisors or the parsonage, 1187-J.

ONE IN A SERIES

Parking Survey

(Editor's note: This is the second in a series of articles on Tecumseh's parking situation. It is a portion of the report made by the Detroit firm of Gibson and Kileen.)

CURB PARKING REGULATION

Curb parking is important in any business district because of its convenience. However, it must be emphasized that curb spaces are not always available because the street space occupied by parked vehicles may be needed to keep the flow of traffic in the area moving with safety and ease.

It should be a matter of city policy to permit curb parking only at such times and in such locations as it does not interfere with the safe and free movement of traffic.

Furthermore, because of the value of such space, when such parking can be permitted time limits should be tailored to the proven needs of shoppers. This entails periodic checks to keep restrictions in line with current needs.

It should be emphasized here that time limits require continuous police enforcement to insure maximum turnover of restricted spaces.

The current parking regulations on the streets in downtown Tecumseh reveal some confusing situations. One-hour spaces with no meters are found in the same block with two-hour metered spaces.

Free parking spaces are found in the same block with two-hour meters in two blocks and other valuable curb space is not regulated at all.

This situation is totally unrealistic and is grossly unfair to the motorist because of the confusion and is unfair to the merchant because the spaces in front of his store are not efficiently utilized.

This often means a loss of patronage not only for a single merchant, but for the entire area which tends to undermine the tax value of property in an area where it should be safeguarded.

☆

A SURVEY was made of the actual use of all the metered curb spaces in this area for two full days (Friday and Saturday) in order to determine how long shoppers actually parked, how many spaces were used, and how many parking violations occurred.

The duration of 827 parking acts was checked by recording the license number of every vehicle parked at the curb every hour.

On Saturday, over 90% of the parking acts were for less than one hour and on Friday, over 80% were for less than one hour. These figures indicate a need for the revision of current time-limits.

Based on this, we recommend the elimination of all two-hour parking on Chicago boulevard. The predominate time limit here should be one hour with 12 or 15-minute meters at each end of every block and in front of banks and utility offices. Short time meters are also recommended for the post office area.

The elimination of parking is recommended along several curbs where traffic using parking lot drives requires good sight distance in order to maneuver safely.

During the course of the field studies it was apparent that the maintenance of meters and the enforcement of time limits and the prohibition of double parking was totally inadequate.

☆

METERS WERS out of order over a period of several weeks, incorrect time limit plates were affixed to meters and the plates on some meters indicate that parking time limits extend to 9 p.m. on Saturday.

Since most merchants in the area remain open until 9 p.m. on Friday and close at 6 p.m. on Saturday the plates and the city ordinance should be changed to have the Friday evening period covered. As a matter of fact, the present Saturday evening limit is not covered by ordinance.

Good meter maintenance is absolutely necessary to secure public acceptance of the meter as the best means of insuring equitable distribution of curb space. In addition, good maintenance insures reasonable revenue from the meters.

☆

PARKING enforcement must be continuous and impartial in order to be effective. This is not the situation in Tecumseh at this time. Violation flags were observed 84 times during the two days when license plates surveys were made.

There were many other instances where a car parked more than two hours, the driver inserted additional coins in order to avoid having the violation flag show.

These facts indicate that steps should be taken at once to improve surveillance of curb-parking practices.

In summary, it is recommended that the existing curb parking restrictions in the central business district of Tecumseh be revised to conform with current needs, that a continuous meter maintenance program be instituted, and that a complete review of enforcement policies be made at once.

These steps will insure the best possible use of valuable curb space for both shoppers and merchants.

Next Week — Parking Demands.

By GLENN WILLIAMS

The past two weeks we have met the baseball and track teams, both of whom turned in some fine performances. Now we will meet Coach Doug Murdock's golf team for 1958 at Tecumseh high school, which last Saturday afternoon, emerged as state class B co-champs.

MAX SMITH, senior. This was Max's fourth year on the golf squad and his second year on the first unit. He jumped from fourth man, which he played most of last year, to first man this year at the end of the season. He took medalist honors for both the regionals and the state finals for Tecumseh. Max is planning on entering Michigan State University this fall.

DAVE LAMKIN, senior. This was also Dave's fourth year on the team, for which he has been number one man about two and one-half years. Dave's scores stayed around 80 all year. Dave plans to enter the University of Michigan this fall.

DICK BAKER, senior. This was Dick's fourth year on the team and he finished the season as number three man. He was second in the state finals this year, probably one of the longest hitters. Dick is going into the Air Force.

JOHN ELLIOTT, senior. Four years with the golf team, John was fourth man, "Duke," as he is known by his teammates and friends, got off to a slow start this season as he couldn't break into the starting foursome, but through practicing regularly, he finally made it about midway through the year. Duke, a consistent low 80's shooter, will enter the University of Michigan this fall.

GORDON GREIMAN, junior. This was Greiman's third year on the team and he was battling Duke Elliott for fourth spot all year. Buddy will be back next year.

DAVE ELLIOTT, senior. This was Dave's fourth year on the squad. Dave will go to Albion College.

The rest of the squad includes Dave Hohenstein, Dave Champapois and Ray Lasky. These boys didn't get to play this year but are all juniors, so will get their chance next year.

SHARP MARCHERS—Tecumseh high school band provided music for Memorial Day parade.

MAJOR BOSE OF INDIA WAS a guest speaker at an assembly last week. He spoke of the quaint customers of that nation. He also had two Indian costumes displayed. One interesting fact was that parents decided whom their children will marry.

Students Entertain Parents for Dancing

Before the May altar of flowers and lighted candles the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades of St. Elizabeth's School presented a demonstration of ballroom dancing for parents and friends May 27.

The students have been studying under the direction of Mrs. Marian Bascom of Ypsilanti. Sister Anne Xavier, O.P. accompanied dancing at the piano. Records were also used for the popular dances.

Following the demonstration the children asked their parents to dance and also regular partner's parent to dance.

The school auditorium was filled to capacity and cookies and punch were served in conclusion.

If you want a good 2-family in an extra good location, we have one on E. Chicago Blvd.

Log cabin on Wolf Lake. This is new and lake front, $6,500.

A real nice large building on W. Chicago Blvd. Priced right, with small down payment.

2-bedroom brick in Onsted, full basement, $1,200 down, all closing inc.

4-bedroom brick on Ridge Hwy, 2-car garage, dining room, 2 acres, worth the money.

On Ternas Road we have some of the best buys in Tecumseh. There is a new tri-level, a new all brick, a used 3 bedroom and a 3 bedroom with brick front. These all can be bought on good terms, any of them you would be proud to own.

Nice 3-bedroom in River Acres. Owner will trade.

4-bedroom on Murray Drive. Clean and priced worth the money.

3-bedroom on Occidental Road. Buy on contract.

Make an offer on this large older home on W. Logan. $1,500 will handle this.

On N. Maumee st. we have an excellent 3-bedroom with terms to fit your pocketbook.

Unfinished 2-bedroom home on Sunset St. Tecumseh. Name your terms.

Dick Kahle says "tell the people it's my house they can buy for $400 down." So he owns the 2-bedroom on Burt St. That is an extra good buy.

Nice 3-bedroom year around home on Big Stony lake. 2-car garage lots of shade, full price $9,000.

New brick homes any place in Lenawee Co. We will get it financed.

We sure need some listings. If you have any thing for sale priced right let us work on it for you, right now we're lucky and things are going good. So give Lamar a call at 35F4 in Onsted, Tobe at 102 or Del at 849 Tecumseh or Old Jack at 7050W. Don't look now but your kids just made it to 1 more grade and are on the street again. Don't run over any of them.

ANNIVERSARY — An open house is planned for Sunday at the IOOF Hall in Tecumseh for Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Mead, who will celebrate their 35th wedding anniversary. Ilah Swift and Rudie Mead were married June 6, 1923 at the Methodist parsonage in Adrian. They are the parents of one daughter, Mrs. Dale Clark of Tecumseh. The open house will be held from 2 to 5 p.m. with relatives and friends welcome.

With Tecumseh Teens

BY MARY V. SEAGER

DURING SOME OF THE MOST beautiful weather we've had all year, a horrible thing has happened.

Semester tests have rolled around again.

After 18 weeks of loafing along, we are rudely awakened to the fact that we should have studied harder, much harder during the semester.

☆

ASIDE FROM THE TESTS, this week has been busy in a different way. This is Graduation Week.

It started with Baccalaureate Sunday.

Class Night will be Wednesday evening with Commencement Thursday.

☆

REPORT CARDS AND awards will be given Friday morning at nine o'clock, marking the end of the '57-'58 school year.

☆

THE ATHLETIC BANQUET was held last Wednesday night at the high school cafeteria. Letters and awards were presented to track, golf and baseball team members.

☆

JUNIOR HOMEMAKER DEgrees were awarded to Future Homemakers Barbara Gebarowski, Donna Roe, Sheila Kirk, Alice Neuman, Francis Short, and Kay Schultz.

This is the first time these awards, keys to be worn on the FHA pin, were given.

☆

THE TEEN CLUB LEGISLature meets June 14 to make the final decision about the Club being open during the summer.

☆

AT THE LAST MEETING OF the year for the Lois D. Service Future Teacher's Club officers were elected.

Anne Marie Haughn is the new president with Dave VanValkenburg as the vice-president.

The secretary is Kendra Frost, and the treasurer is Roger Mead. The combination historian-librarian is Sally Vincze.

The song leader is Sondra Hathaway and the Student Council representative is Grace Dennis with alternate Barbara Gibson. Mr. Douglas Murdoch is the new adviser and parliamentarian.

Mrs. Annabelle Cadmus was presented with a gift by the club as she is leaving her adviser's post to teach in the junior high. The club now has about 30 members.

Medical Staff Stages Banquet for Herricks

Herrick Memorial Hospital medical staff and their wives were hosts to the Hospital Board of Trustees and their wives for a testimonial banquet honoring Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Herrick on Tuesday at the Country Club.

Approximately 50 were present to pay tribute to the Herricks for their contributions in establishing the local hospital.

On this occasion, which was a surprise to the Herricks, a plaque designed for the medical staff by Mrs. John Dennis, was presented by Dr. Richard Dustin.

It stated, in part, "It was through your inspired vision and leadership in providing the means of easing human suffering that establishment of this outstanding institution was begun and developed into the best facilities available anywhere."

In brief spontaneous testimonials from various physicians on the staff, it was pointed out that the city has a hospital comparing with the best in the country.

Judith Lee Foos Marries Herman Steuwe, Jr.

The North Blissfield Lutheran Church was decorated with bouquets of white gladoli and carnations Saturday for the wedding of Judith Lee Foos and Herman Steuwe, Jr.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Foos of 416 North Evans street and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Steuwe of south Main street, Britton.

Rev. Weinlander, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony and Ann Wellnitz provided nuptial music and accompanied Lawrence Marks who sang.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a wedding gown of white chantilly lace over taffeta in floor length princess style with three-quarter sleeves and a sweetheart neckline.

The fingertip veil of white net was held in place by a band of pearls and she wore a single strand of pearls at her throat and earrings to match. She carried a white orchid corsage and Bible.

THE MATRON OF HONOR and the bridesmaids all wore identical waltz-length gowns of white lace over taffeta in different colors with matching net veils held in place by matching headbands. Each carried carnation bouquets in colors matching their gowns.

Mrs. LaVern Moll, sister of the groom, was matron of honor in orchid, while Mrs. Larry Meilock wore yellow, Patricia Klein wore blue and Sally Klein wore pink.

Raymond Steuwe served as his brother's best man while Harland Preston, William Ferow and Orville Sieler seated the guests.

Mrs. Foos chose a blue nylon tucked sheath for her daughter's wedding with while accessories and a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Mrs. Steuwe wore a grey lace gown over taffeta with pink accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

☆

FOLLOWING THE ceremony a reception was held at the Tecumseh Products Workers Union Hall with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas King serving as host and hostess.

A four-tiered wedding cake and three smaller two-tiered cakes were cut and served by Mary Shiels and Mrs. Jerry Miller while Mrs. Ethel Wellnitz served coffee and Mrs. Lawrence Marks punch.

Judy Ann Keebler had charge of the guest book and Mrs. Lester Klein and Mrs. Yvonne Frear had charge of the gift table. The rehearsal dinner was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Steuwe on Friday evening.

The bride is a graduate of Tecumseh high school and is employed at Herrick Memorial Hospital as medical record librarian. The groom is a graduate of Britton-Macon high school and is employed by Tecumseh Products.

Guests attending the wedding came from Tawas City, Ypsilanti, Britton, Ottawa Lake, Holloway, Saline and Jackson.

Green Named Committee Chairman

George C. Green, Jr., owner of the Green Funeral Home, has been appointed chairman of the Lenawee County United Fund quota committee, states Howard White, president.

"The Quota Committee," Mr. White reports, "will be assigned the task of determining the campaign goals of the Adrian, Deerfield, Hudson and Tecumseh Community Chest for their coordinated campaigns this fall with the County Fund."

"This committee shall not begin to operate until the County Fund Board of Director determines its own over-all campaign goal for Lenawee County," Mr. White said.

Mr. Green is past president and campaign chairman of the Tecumseh County Fund. He is a member of Rotary, VFW and Financial Officer of the American Legion.

A former Trustee of the First Baptist Church in Tecumseh, he holds a Bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Michigan, and is also a graduate of the Worshems College of Mortuary Science.

Tecumseh Chairman

Mrs. Geraldine MacLean is Tecumseh area Democratic chairman for a tea to be given Monday in Adrian honoring Governor William's wife, Nancy.

Lt. Governor Philip A. Hart and Robert G. Hall, who are seeking nomination for Senator and Congressman respectively, will attend a businessmen's luncheon on this day at the Rock Inn.

THIS WEEK'S Police Blotter

The holiday high-accident toll was reflected in Tecumseh with six accidents.

James Stanley, 23, of Bucyrus, Ohio hit a car driven by Estella May Curtis, 20, of Britton at the intersection of Chicago boulevard and Ottawa street.

Anne Ruth Fairbanks, 38, 408 N. Main street, Britton, was ticketed for failure to yield the right-of-way when her automobile hit one driven by Gwen Carolyn Tate, 22, or Paragould, Arkansas as she was making a right turn from Chicago boulevard.

Iva Grace Hotrum, 58, 203 E. Shawnee side-swiped the car belonging to Charles E. Skinner, 53, of Arlington Heights, Illinois as she was passing his car in the cemetery driveway.

☆

OTTO HERMAN BAASKE, 63, 309 S. Union street was ticketed for failure to yield the right-of-way when he drove in front of Marjorie Montella Heflin, 40, of 114 N. Division as she was making a left turn from Chicago boulevard onto Union street. Mrs. Heflin suffered abrasions on her left elbow and chest contusion.

Carl Francis Schwab, 38, 714 Frank, Adrian was stopped on Chicago boulevard waiting for traffic to clear before making a left turn, when his auto was hit in the rear by Gerald Charles Craig, 41, 116 S. Evans. Craig was ticketed for failure to stop in the assured clear distance ahead.

Mrs. Edgeworth Whitecotton, a passenger in the car of her husband, was admitted to Herrick Memorial Hospital with a neck injury after the Whitecotton car was hit by one driven by Maria L. Montalvo, 21, of Britton.

Montalvo was ticketed for failure to stop in the assured clear distance ahead.

The Whitecottons reside at 511 W. Chicago boulevard.

Raisin Cookies Begin Practice for Softball Tilt

Members of the Raisin Cookies 4-H Club voted to purchase softballs and a bat for the club at the meeting Monday evening held at the club house.

Ball practice will be held Saturday at 3 p.m. and a game is scheduled with the Country Hi-Steppers for sometime in July.

Ann Schroder will give her winning contest speech for dairy princess at the meeting of the Farm Bureau Women Thursday evening.

Reports were presented on conservation, photography and junior leaders.

Meredith Sims conducted the games. Refreshments were served by Eva Davis.

At the next meeting, June 16, Sharlene Hoffmeister will give a demonstration on mounting wildflowers.

Refreshments will be served by Ann Schroder and Cheryl Simmons and Diane McNicol will be in charge of games.

Holding Breakfast

Circle 1 of the Presbyterian Church will hold a breakfast from 9 until 11 a.m. Thursday, June 12, at the home of Mrs. Dale Bowen, 2541 N. Occidental road. Anyone desiring transportation may call 7103-J. The collection will be a silver offering.

Circle 1 Hears Report on Book

Circle 1 of the Presbyterian Church met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Russell Carey. Co-hostesses were Mrs. C. L. Cook and Mrs. Leon Rosacrans.

Mrs. M. R. Blanden was in charge of the program and introduced Mrs. Gwen Quigley, who gave a book report on "Sagebrush Surgeon" by Florence Crandall Meads.

Devotions were led by Mrs. Joseph Galazzi.

Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Dale Bowen September 2.

Supervised Play Planned for Kids

Attention, all children.

There will be supervision of playgrounds at Herrick Park, Central and Tecumseh Acres schools by adults from 9:30 to 12, on Monday through Fridays, starting on June 23 and continuing until August 22, announces Vic Lawson.

Activities for the younger children will be supervised.

Badminton, croquet, ping pong, handicraft, and small group games along with a story hour will be offered.

Minor League Boys Meeting on Monday

A junior Minor League baseball candidates meeting will be held Monday afternoon on new Little League diamond at 2.

All boys ages 10, 11 and 12 are invited. Boys who are 9-years of age and feel they are capable of playing baseball are invited to be there also.

Any boy in the above age group may play in the Minor League even if he didn't try out for the Majors.

The League will be composed of four teams and will play two games per week starting the week of June 23.

High school boys will act as coaches of the teams and all boys that come to practice and are interested will get to play in the games.

Softball League for Peewee Boys

A Peewee Softball League for boys, 7, 8, 9, and 10-years of age will be organized for play in the Recreation League this summer.

The first meeting will take place at the softball diamond on Recreation Field on Tuesday at 2.

All boys interested in playing in the league, whether they have signed up or not, should be present at the meeting.

The teams will be coached by high school boys and there will be two leagues composed of four teams.

All boys that come to practice and show interest will be able to participate in the games.

Receives Members

Reception of new members and the installation of its first pastor marked the observance of the Festival of the Holy Trinity for Gloria Dei Lutheran Church on Sunday.

New members received into the church were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Blanchard, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bowser, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Goller, Mrs. Gordon McKee, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tabbert and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Willnow.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

The Woodchuck Wouldn't "Chuck"

Lady called up our newspaper and asked how to get a woodchuck out of her garage. I referred her to young Chip Wilkins, our Field and Wildlife Editor.

"That's easy," says Chip. "Just roll some bread into pellets, and make a trail of them leading out of the garage."

Next day she called Chip again. "You sure are smart," she coo-ed, "to know a woodchuck will follow a trail of breadcrumbs. Now I've got two woodchucks in the garage!"

From where I sit, sometimes "expert advice" turns out to be not so expert. Reminds me of those who are always ready to advise us how to relax...how to work...whether or not to prefer coffee (for instance) to a glass of beer. I think a lot of us ought to think twice before advising people to do this thing or that thing. In the long run, it will make us all better neighbors.

Dear Master:

I know that there are many times when you get angry at me and you have a right to be. For instance, the time I chewed up the leg of your new chair, the time I chewed up your new slipper, not to mention the time you came home late and I thought you were a burglar and awakened the whole house.

I also know that deep down inside of you and the family you love me very much. I can tell this by your looks when we are out hunting, by the action of your children when we play and by the petting I get when I sit by your chair during the evening.

Yes, you all love me and that is the reason I am appealing to you to have me immunized against rabies during Rabies Control Week, June 9 to 14. I know you would not like to see me die from this horrible disease when for $2.00 and a few minutes of your time, I could be protected.

"So Master, please take me to our Veterinarian and let me have my rabies shot."

Sincerely,
FIDO

Rabies Is Killer

There will be a Rabies Control Week—June 9 through 14.

This is sponsored jointly by the Lenawee County Veterinary Society, Kiwanis Clubs of Lenawee County and the Lenawee County Health Department.

During this week, dogs will be vaccinated at a reduced price, at the office of county veterinarians.

If your dog gets rabies, he will die.

If you get rabies and are not treated, you will die.

There are no known exceptions. Once the disease develops it is always fatal. Prevention therefore, is an absolute necessity. To prevent rabies in dogs, all pets should be vaccinated.

☆

RABIES IS caused by a virus that attacks the brain and spinal cord. Although all warm blooded animals can get rabies, dogs are the chief source of the disease.

It is usually spread by the bite of an infected animal, the virus being present in the saliva. Rabies may also develop if a broken skin surface has been exposed to infected saliva.

Any time your dog acts strangely or is sick, consult a veterinarian. The first symptoms of rabies may be a slight change in behavior which can be noticed only by those well acquainted with the animal.

Later, the dog may become nervous, vicious and then paralyzed, or paralysis may set in without any stage of excitement.

☆

IF YOU ARE bitten by a dog, consult a physician immediately and be sure that the County Health Department is notified. Any dog that has bitten another animal o ra person, may have rabies.

The only way to find out is to have the dog confined under observation for ten days.

If the dog is still alive after ten days, he could not have given you the disease. If the dog dies within ten days, the dog's head will be sent to the laboratory for analysis of its brain for evidence of rabies.

The course of action decided upon by your physician will be determined largely by the results of the laboratory analysis of the dog's brain.

A dog suspected of rabies should not be killed if it can be avoided. However, if it becomes necessary to destroy the dog, he should be killed in a manner that won't destroy the brain and spinal cord, as these are needed for laboratory analysis.

Clinton Speedway Opens Saturday

Clinton Speedway opens Saturday night at 8 for the summer race season. The track accommodates micro midgets and quarter midgets.

The Speedway is owned and operated by the Clinton Jaycees, built last year as a money-making project with the thought that profits would go toward a fund for a town swiming pool.

The track is 1/8 mile oiled dirt. Micro midgets can gain speeds of about 60 miles per hour on the course. Quarter midgets, which are driven by children between the ages of 4 and 16, go between 20 and 40 miles per hour.

The Clinton Speedway enjoys a good reputation as a good and a safe track and the Jaycees have received national sanctioning. They are contemplating running a national championship race in the fall.

Through My Window

MAY I INTRODUCE!

With so much attention being given to the birds outside, Pete is becoming more and more upset. He is demanding equal time.

Now according to the books, Pete is a parakeet. These brightly colored semi-tropical birds, originally native to Australia, have in the past few years become the most popular cage birds in the country.

This is all well and good, but the fact is, Peter doesn't know he is a bird. He thinks he is a person (And as such he has assumed dictatorial powers in the family. He rules the household like a lovable, gruff old tyrant.

A city bird by hatching, Peter came to us a little chick of eight weeks, almost nine years ago. He was a birthday present from a favorite aunt and uncle. At first we were a bit dubious, we had never had a bird before.

Bird dogs, yes, but a bird — something that has wings and that flies and will live inside — what would we do with it?

We soon found, however, that this bird required comparatively little care and the pleasure that he gave was far, far greater than the little extra work that he made.

His amusing antics and wonderful un-bird-like disposition were irrestible—in a matter of a few hours he had endeared himself to us all and since has been a much loved member of the family.

Although we are undoubtedly prejudiced, we think that Peter is an especially beautiful parakeet. He's such a big blue fellow possessed with boundless energy. I also might add that he is very vain—he thinks that he is as pretty as we do.

☆

HIS BREAST is a lovely shade of cobalt or wedgewood blue; his back and wings are striped and barred with black and white. His small hooked, parrot-like bill is topped with a soft blue ridge and his face and back are snowy white.

Bright little eyes sparkle with mischief and around his neck are petite dark markings which form a perfect necklace. Light blue at the base, his long slender tail gradually darkens until at its narrow tapered end the blue is almost black.

The trueness of color and flawless execution of his intricate design is amazing. We have taken particular notice of molted feathers and each one is perfect. Certainly no human artist could achieve such perfection.

From the very first Peter began asserting himself and proclaiming his own individuality.

Although perhaps not a hard and fast rule, covering a bird's cage at night is certainly an accepted practice. Believe me, one doesn't cover Peter's cage. The first evening we tried he objected long and violently. Loud, ear-splitting, shrill squawks, mad thrashing in the cage and finally, the tattoo of wings being beaten against the side bars. No, he wasn't frightened, just mad.

For such a little bird his temper is amazing. His vocal explosions, when upset, can be called nothing but ill-mannered shrieks. As soon as the cover was removed he settled down with the smugness of having won his point. He is wonderfully carefree and happy as long as things go his way and he never misses a chance to gloat when his wishes win over ours. How he can bask in self-satisfaction.

☆

ANOTHER FAVORITE theory among parakeet raisers which backfired when we tried applying it to Peter, is the mirror-in-cage routine. The idea is to keep the bird from getting lonesome—he sees his reflection in the mirror, thinks it is another bird and thus, with a companion he'll not be lonely.

We got a shiny, bright little mirror and carefully put it in Pete's cage. He found the "other bird" all right, but within a week we had a neurotic on our hands. Although such thoughtful consideration for another's welfare is definitely not part of Peter's usual make up, he began, as soon as the "other-bird" was spotted, to worry about his new friend's eating habits.

At least for the three or four days that we left the mirror in the cage, he did nothing but take the food from his own dishes and pile it in front of the mirror.

When his own dishes were empty and there was a neat pile of seeds in front of the mirror he settled back and waited for the "other bird" to eat. He himself lost all interest in food and his bells and rings were left unplayed with.

As each day found the "other bird" continuing to not eat, Pete lost his superabundant energy, his coat became dull and he whistled and chattered no more.

Enough was enough, we were not going to sit idly by and watch our bird mope and worry. The mirror was removed and immediately Peter spruced up. Within a day he was his old self again and all neurotic symptoms had vanished.

☆

IT WAS DECIDED from the very start Peter would be a cage bird. Although many parakeets are given free run of the house this was definitely not practical for the littlest Duncan.

With so many people coming and going, it would have been altogether too easy for Peter to accidentally get outside. We had seen far too many advertisements telling the heart breaking story of pets who were thus lost.

We went on the theory that what he had neved known he would never miss so Pete, never knowing what it was to fly freely about, is perfectly contented in his spacious cage.

The few times he accidentally slipped out were not happy experiences and he seemed most relieved and thankful when returned to his home.

With plenty of room for exercise, enough playthings to keep him busy and many obliging people whom he can order about, Peter is perfectly happy. He is busy every minute and has so far avoided all the illnesses and injuries peculiar to his kind.

"So, there you are, Pete. Satisfied now? Has this introduction been to your liking? Good—maybe now we can watch things outside the window with fewer vocal objections from inside."

Auxiliary Begins 'Coffee Series'

Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary has launched a new fund raising project which is expected to net $2,500. The money will be used to purchase equipment to furnish a recovery room at the hospital.

This project, called "Vanishing Coffee Series," will include women from all of the surrounding communities which this hospital serves, Britton, Clinton, Holloway, Manchester, Onsted and Petersburg, besides Tecumseh.

☆

A RECOVERY ROOM is a separate department, operated in close conjunction with the operating room of the hospital, where patients are taken immediately following surgery.

Care of the patient, immediately following surgery and while the patient is still under the influence of an anesthetic, is a most important period. Proper attention and supervision at this time materially aids the patient's ultimate recovery.

It is necessary to provide a resuscitator, piped-in oxygen, equipment for intervenous feeding and blood transfusions and special patient beds to meet any possible emergency which could occur while the patient is still under effects of anesthetic.

Blood pressure and respiration can be checked regularly by the Registered Nurse in attendance, until the patient is fully awake and ready to be returned to his room.

☆

THE COFFEE SERIES starts with one hostess inviting six friends or neighbors in for coffee. Each guest will donate 25c or more, and will in turn invite five guests the following week for a coffee hour in her home.

Each of these five donates her money and will have her four guests the following week.

The hostess of each of these functions will make out a list of her guests names and the money received, place these in an envelope and take it to the United Savings Bank in Tecumseh, where it will be placed in a special box. The money will be counted weekly and deposited in a separate account for the Auxiliary.

With the cooperation of all the women in the neighboring communities which Herrick Memorial Hospital serves, it will be assured that sufficient funds are provided for furnishing the recovery room.

This is a project which will enable every home to contribute to this purchase, since it is open to all people in the surrounding communities. This is sponsored by the Auxiliary, but is not limited to members.

☆

HERRICK MEMORIAL is a unique hospital in that it is a privately supported institution which does not receive funds from the taxpayer.

The Auxiliary aids whenever it can to raise needed funds for special purchases.

The Vanishing Coffee Series to raise funds for the recovery room has as chairman, Mrs. Robert Fuller, phone 57-M.

Serving on her committee are Mrs. Richard Coak at 492, and Mrs. Fred Pokorny at 1103. These women may be called for information, supplies and instruction sheets.

REALTY VIEWS

Consider the advice of a real estate broker with 50 years experience, Frank L. McGuire of Portland, Oregon, often called "America's largest home seller." As of May of this year, he sold 42,426 homes so he undoubtedly qualifies as an expert.

Says McGuire: "Now is the time to buy real estate. There are real bargains in today's market, and the coming boom of 1960 will see record high prices and rents, plus more inflation. Real estate is a sure hedge against inflation."

McGuire's long-range forecast of boom times ahead agrees with Kiplinger and many other competent observers. They predict a housing boom in the 1960's because the "war babies" will reach marriagable age. The rate of formation of families will greatly increase. Naturally all of these families will have to have some form of housing. Hence, the big demand and "boom."

Now is the time to buy, while the closer, better homesites are still available.

And as McGuire concludes: "People who have faith in the future of America buy during a recession, and sell during a boom and become independent."

May we help you find a "good buy" on today's market?

How Much Automobile Liability Insurance Should You Carry?

HERE'S A GOOD RULE:

Add up the cost of your car, securities, business interests and other property. Say this runs in neighborhood of $35,000. The proper amount of insurance to carry would be $50-100,000 with $25-50,000 considered a bare minimum by prudent people. Extra protection costs so little you should not be without it. Call us.

ARE YOU REALLY? — Trudy Johnston, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Johnston, 803 Adrian street, wonders if this is actually Chief Tecumseh. Five-year-old Steve Hanson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hanson, 209 S. Pearl street, looks on. So that readers will know, this isn't the old warrior, just Leon Williamson, 4021 W. Chicago, dressed like him. Occasion was the Safety-Check parade.

Methodist Hear Bishop on Sunday

Tecumseh Methodists heard Bishop Marshall R. Reed preach Sunday at the service of consecration.

District Superintendent, Dr. L. LaVerne Finch, read the scriptures and offered the pastoral prayer.

Bishop Reed recalled the experience of having seen the world's four greatest mountain ranges within the period of one month.

He said "man cannot stand in the presence of great mountains without something happening to him."

Turning to Biblical mountain references and to the mount of transfiguration of our Lord, he pointed out that to stand on great mountains turns us to God in worship.

☆

"A SANCTUARY with such beauty as we behold in the place where we are worshipping will provide many mountain-top experiences of worship by which we are to be drawn closer to God" Bishop Reed declared.

Carlos W. Jones represented the sanctuary planning committee in the service of consecration. Mrs. Reed and Mrs. Finch were presented to the congregation by the pastor during the service and joined their husbands and Rev. and Mrs. James Nixon in the reception line following the service of consecration. The Reeds and Finches were dinner guests at the parsonage.

This event marked the completion of the sanctuary renewal program which occupied the first five months in this the 131st year of the Methodist Church in Tecumseh.

Free Booklets Can Help in Buolding

If you're planning to do any building on your farm, you can get valuable assistance from a new extension circular just received in the Lenawee county extension office, according to County Agricultural Agent Hall.

The circular, "Selecting Wood Joists and Beams for Farm Buildings," gives information to help solve some of the main problems in picking out joists.

The circular is one of several prepared by the department of agricultural engineering at Michigan State University to help farmers with their building problems.

Agent Hall invites farmers to look over the entire farm building series of circulars in the extension office. Copies are free for the asking.

"How does a joint checking account work?"
When starting such an account, the two people who are to use it sign an agreement that either may draw checks against it. Either may also make deposits. Many couples find special advantages in maintaining a joint account: For example, any bill can be paid by husband or wife, suiting their convenience. Other couples prefer having separate accounts. Either way, two people enjoy the four advantages of paying by check: Convenience, speed, safety, and accuracy. We'll welcome your checking account at our bank!

WE STICK TO OUR LASTS
There was a time when pharmacists often were called "Doc." Doubtless it was a complimentary gesture.
Even in this late day, the pharmacist frequently is asked to diagnose and prescribe by his customers.
But like the shoemaker, we pharmacists stick to our own lasts. We neither diagnose nor prescribe. These health team functions fall within the special province of physicians both by law and professional training.
As a member of the health team, we are an intermediary, serving both the doctor and the patient. Our job is to compound your prescriptions carefully and promptly.

Display at Market Is One Chosen for Lenawee County Fair

The North East Tecumseh Extension Club has received a letter from the County Extension office stating that the window display shown at Marv's Market during Home Demonstration Week is one which has been chosen for exhibit at the Lenawee County Fair.

During the May meeting at the home of Mrs. Raymond Bird, members voted on suggested revisions of the Constitution governing the Lenawee County executive board.

Following the business session, Mrs. Elmer Wilt instructed members in the making of door mats from discarded baler twine.

A picnic lunch was served in conclusion by Mrs. George Watson and Mrs. Clifford Southard.

June 23, the group will hold a potluck picnic supper at the home of Mrs. Wayne Blanchard. Members may bring any unfinished articles from projects to work on during the evening.

Diamond Loop Begins Wednesday

A new Tecumseh baseball league for boys 13 to 15 will begin action next Wednesday announces Vic Lawson.

Patterned after the popular Babe Ruth League, initial action will be at Recreation Field, 4:15 p.m., with the Indians meeting the Eagles.

The same day, June 11, the VFW plays Tecumseh Products.

Thursday the Indians will play the VFW at 4:15 and the Eagles faces the Products at 6.

Starting the week of June 16, games will be played Monday and Thursday evenings. The teams will play a 15 game schedule and the season will be completed by August 1.

The complete schedule of the league will be given in next week's Herald.

Church Conference Will Be in Flint

The Detroit Annual Conference of the Methodist Church will meet this week in Flint.

The sessions conclude Sunday with the service of ordination that afternoon, followed by the reading of pastoral appointments.

Tecumseh will be represented by the pastor, Rev. James Nixon, and Mrs. Robert W. Bonner, who is presently serving a four-year term as the lay member to the Annual Conference.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter German spent Decoration Day at Birmingham with Mrs. Winifred Rainey and Grace Rainey.

√

Annual Memorial Day services were held Sunday at the cemetery. Due to rain most of the afternoon, the program had to be shortened.

The Britton-Macon Band played several selections and the Rev. Elvin Brazee of Iron Creek gave the prayer. The Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts with their Scoutmaster, Dean Moore, and the Den mother, Mrs. Paul Vollmer, placed the wreaths on the soldiers graves.

√

The official Church board will meet on Tuesday June 10, at 8 in the church.

√

Monday evening the Boy Scouts of Macon held a meeting. The Tecumseh VFW presented the Scouts with an American Flag. Awards went to Fred Betzodlt, Richard Zickone, Earl Goodin, Joseph Lopez and Gerry Bowers. A Courr of Honor will be held later.

Lawrence and John Burleson of Flint were Thursday callers of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morden.

√

On Sunday, June 15, the Macon Boy Scouts, their parents and the committee men and their families are to have a picnic dinner, following church service. It will be held at Camp Kanesa take on Washington Lake.

Sunday following the church service there will be a Fellowship Farewell dinner in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Bates and family. Each family is to bring their own table service, a dish to pass and sandwiches or rolls. A program is being planned. Everyone is welcome. We are very sorry to have the Bates family leave the community. We wish them a successful future.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Zick and sons spent Memorial Day in Saginaw visiting his nephew, Albert Lapine. They returned to Gregory and spent the night and Saturday with Mrs. Zick's mother, Mrs. Frank Waters.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clark entertained a large group of young married couples Sunday. They enjoyed a picnic dinner, a farewell party for Rev. and Mrs. Donald Bates and family.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Van Valkenburg entertained Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Van Valkenburg and son of Tecumseh, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lindsley and sons of Clayton.

√

Saturday Evening Mr. and Mrs. Dean Collins entertained their Euchre club in the home of Mrs. Collins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Linden in Tecumseh.

√

An unusual bridal shower was held Sunday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Hauk in Dearborn. It was in honor of Marjorie Papp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Papp, whose marriage to Dale Monigan of Ypsilanti, will take place in July.

Among the guests were Mrs. Gazella Kovach Kasno of California, Mrs. Harold Amstutz of Ypsilanti, Mrs. James Taylor of Dundee; Mrs. Claud Penn of Vandercook Lake; Mrs. Henry Brown of Britton, Mrs. Louis Kovach, Mrs. Herman Mehler and daughter, Hallie Jane; Mrs. John Taylor, Mrs. Mike Papp and daughters, Janet and Marjorie. The bride-to-be opened many lovely and unusual gifts for her future home. The bride will graduate in June from Eastern Michigan College.

Mr. and Mrs. David Handley have returned to North Carolina, after spending several weeks with his father, Edward Handley, and family.

Rev. and Mrs. Donald Bates went to Westminister, Maryland, on Wednesday to attend the Baltimore Conference. They will return the last of the week.

OPERATOR RETIRES — When Don Blesing, long-time Herald Linotypist retired last week, the staff threw a party for him. Featured was a cake, fashioned as a replica of the paper's front page. The banner head screamed, "Best of Luck Don!" The subhead read, "Local Newspaper Losing World's Best Linotype Operator." For more about Mr. Blesing, see "The Long & Short of It."

Chamber Members 'Meet Murph'

Members of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce and their wives will formally shake hands with their new executive secretary Wednesday night.

Occasion will be the "Meet Murph Banquet" at Tecumseh Country Club, beginning at 6:30 p.m.

In the spotlight will be Don Murphy of Hastings, who takes over the Chamber position here July 1.

As a part of the festivities, Mr. Murphy will roam from table to table, greeting each Tecumsehite, who'll be wearing a tag which states, "Hi, Murph, I'm . . . . . "

Dr. Richard Coak, president of the Chamber, will be master of ceremonies and Chuck Butler will lead group singing.

Mr. Murphy will be the evening's speaker.

Following the meal and talks, there will be dancing.

Final arrangements for the event were made Monday evening at a board of director's meeting.

Boardmen state that non-members are also invited and may obtain tickets at Easton's Friendly Service, Eggleston's Jewelry and C. A. Wright & Son. They are $2.75 each.

Odds Good for a New Plant Here

Another industrial manufacturing plant may come to Tecumseh in the near future.

This word is according to Joseph J. Weyn, president of the Thornton Products Company of Dearborn, who has already started a home in River Acres and also begun construction on an office for his firm and several others.

The plant would be for plating metal with a new process, exclusive patents for which are owned by Mr. Weyn's firm.

Mr. Weyn is a personal friend of Ted Templeton, owner of Templeton Construction, and it was a result of Ted's suggestion that Mr. Weyn picked Tecumseh for his office and possible plant location.

☆

TEMPLETON Construction already is in the process of building the office building, just north of Tecumseh Airport on M-52.

The new plant under study will house the Light Metals Company, a new concern dealing in the light metals of zirconum, titanium, and the wonder metals.

A brick, colonial office of over 3,000 square feet will be built for Thornton Products; Kotts and Sheridan, patent attorneys; Light Metals Company, Practical Investment Company, Templeton Construction, Rena Fitzpatrick Realty, and the Joel Investment Company, owner of the building.

A new home by Templeton Construction is also under way in River Acres for Earl Kotts, patent attorney.

Student Speakers Praise Parents at Graduation

Parents of Tecumseh high school's 112 graduates were lavishly praised by student speakers at Thursday night's jammed-house commencement.

"Without their help, love and encouragement we wouldn't be here tonight," Jane Colgrove told the audience of 1,500.

"They have sacrificed in many ways for us. May we live so that they'll always be proud of us," Miss Colgrove continued, closing with, "Only because of them, tonight is ours."

Joan Kempf, who was salutatorian, singled out parents, teachers and friends of the graduates to whom she expressed appreciation.

"We know we can depend on you. We salute you," were Miss Kempf's words.

She also pointed out that one's education does not end with graduation, but that she and her class-mates must continue to gain knowledge.

Valedictorian Julia Boyce, who followed in the footsteps of two older sisters in the role of top student in her class, said,

"Our future is what we make of it. Each of us has a goal. To reach it we must have desire and perseverance.

"We must be willing to strive, to sacrifice, to work.

"We must have faith. Faith in God, in our country, in ourselves.

"With the help of God we will achieve our purpose, our goal in life," Miss Boyce concluded.

IN OTHER portions of the program, Miss Boyce and Miss Kempf were presented pins for excellence in scholarship by Lee Coffey, commander of the Tecumseh VFW post.

Diplomas were awarded by James McDowell, superintendent of schools.

Class president Darrell Lowery presented the school with a check for $200 to be used in purchase of audio and visual aides.

Rev. Blair Bashore gave the invocation and benediction, also presented Herrick Foundation scholarships.

Neville Hart, high school principal, announced and presented other scholarships.

Scholarship Winners

A story about winners of college scholarships among Class of 1958 members appears on page 1 of the second section.

WINS PRAISE—Bernice Simons, a member of the Tecumseh high school Class of 1958, won special praise from Superintendent James McDowell and a thunderous ovation from the 1,500 attending commencement. Bernice, who was injured as a child and has been forced to walk with crutches ever since, completed her high school education with her class.

VALEDICTORIAN — Julia Boyce, tops in her class as were her two sisters before her, delivers the valeditory address at last week's commencement. Julia won two scholarships, which were announced by Neville Hart, a fitting climax for her straight-A high school record.

THE Long & Short OF IT

IF A LINOTYPE MACHINE could talk, we probably would have had a dozen questions from ours Monday morning.

First off, Mr. L. would have asked:

"Where's Don?"

He would be wondering where his long-time operator Don Blesing had gone.

For nearly 30 years, Don sat down at the keyboard promptly at 8 a.m. each Monday and started putting the week's stories into hot type.

He was as regular arriving at his post over those years as any working man has ever been. His labor was steady and accurate.

There was never a moment's worry about Linotype work with Don on the job.

But as it comes with all men, Don reached retirement age and decided to call it a career.

And what a career it has been.

Don, who was born in Tecumseh, in a home where the Church of Christ now stands, came to The Herald when he was 18 — just 47 years ago.

He began in the job printing department, feeding presses that were operated by foot power.

After a few years, Don saw greener pastures in the growing automotive plants, and besides, his legs were probably getting tired. He labored in Jackson and Detroit through World War I and in 1920 decided that he'd return to Tecumseh.

At first he was employed by American Steel & Wire, the firm which occupied buildings now a part of Tecumseh Products.

But before long, Don was back with The Herald.

Mrs. Gertrude Stacy had been editor and publisher when Don originally broke in and Frank Turner, her brother-in-law, was operating the business when he returned.

During those early years, the paper was hand set — each letter was placed in a stick until one line was complete. When the paper had been printed, the type was returned, piece by piece, into cases.

Edwin Armstrong took over the paper and it was he who started Don's Linotype career.

The Herald had a machine and an operator — until one day he quit.

"Armstrong took me by the arm to the machine and said 'There it is'" Don recounted last week on his last day.

Don had watched the Linotype run, but never set a line on it. But being the sort of fellow he is, Don simply took the seat behind the keyboard and began pecking away. He served faithfully under Earl Wickwire, his daughter, Marjorie, Fred and Phil Belleville and the present management.

Now, Don and his lovely wife, Anna, are making ready for a junket to Europe.

Along with Anna's son Clarence Walter, his wife and daughter of Oak Park, the Blesings will fly to Europe June 22 via Pan American Airways.

It will be an eight-week adventure with highlights of the trip being visits with Anna's three sisters and their families in Alsace.

Their plane will touch down in Ireland en route, then to France. There, Clarence, who is a WJBK-TV camera man, will purchase a car.

The party will motor through France, Alsace, Switzerland, Germany and Italy.

So, Mr. Linotype, that's the full story. I'm sure that you, along with the rest of us at The Herald, wish Don all the best.

3 from Area Win Western Degrees

KALAMAZOO — Among the 955 students at Western Michigan University receiving degrees Saturday are:

Bruce G. Baker, Wisner road, Bachelor of Science and secondary certificate.

Peter M. Rhein, 611 Outer drive, two-year electronics technology certificate.

William M. Dartt of Britton, two-year drafting-design certificate.

Services are planned at 9:30 a.m. in Waldo Stadium, and in case of rain they will be moved to the new university field house.

Dr. Finis Engleman, executive secretary of the American Association of School Administrators, Washington, D.C., will be the speaker for this occasion.

198 Attend Alumni Banquet

Old grads — and some young ones — numbering 198 attended the alumni banquet Saturday evening in the high school Gymnasium.

Roger L. Waring, Class of 1908, was the speaker of the evening.

Spring flowers were used in decorating the tables. The dinner was served by members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Auxiliary under the direction of Mrs. Gaza Kish with Mrs. Daehne and Mrs. John Braden in charge of the dining room.

New officers elected for the coming year are:

President — John Hamilton.

Vice-president — Dr. Robert Mohr.

Recording secretary — Mrs. Robert Hanna.

Treasurer — Donald Purkey.

Corresponding secretary — Mrs. Russell Cheever.

Assistant corresponding secretary — Mrs. Dwight Hodges.

☆

A MOTION was carried that Jack Osburn be in charge of caring for the old school pictures that are available.

The Rev. Alvin Brazee gave the invocation.

The welcome to the class of '58 was given by Robert Hanna and the response by his son, Gary.

During the program, selections were presented by Jane Hodges on the piano, James Lambes on the guitar and Jan Kachur on the accordian.

Classes of 1943 '33 '18 and '08 enjoyed reunions at the homes of several of the members preceding the banquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Randall have recently moved into their new home at 609 Murray Drive from Bridgewater Center.

Parents Want Busses

After a lengthy debate Monday night, the Tecumseh school board moved to bus children, who by necessity would have to walk along Adrian street, to the new Tecumseh Acres school.

The bussing of children will take place only if sidewalks are not constructed along the street.

Several residents in the Sunset Meade and Sunset Meadow areas objected to their children walking along the street, which has not sidewalks at the present and is one of the town's busiest thoroughfares.

Supt. James McDowell voiced the opinion that sidewalks would be constructed before school starts next fall.

Tecumsehite Gene Mackey asked the board why a new basketball court, north of the high school, was constructed instead of a tennis court.

Mr. McDowell explained that the court was planned last summer and was needed for girls and boys physical education classes.

In other action, the board authorized the purchase of 16 new Singer sewing machines.

Bon Voyage Party Held for Jackie

Jackie Rucker was honored with a surprise bon voyage party at her home Friday evening.

Refreshments were served after the group of friends and classmates enjoyed several games.

Those present were Joyce Hadsell, Julia Boyce, Norma Jewell, Barbara Boynton, Hilary Browne, Barbara Crowell, Nancy Dinse and Joan Kempf.

Others were Lois Kiser, Marilyn Nash, Fay Perrin, Sharon Ries, Carol Sue Rutherford, Esther Stutesman, Gayle Swift, Mary Jo Tressler and Nancy Weaver.

Mary Wojtowicz, the hostess, was assisted by Alice Neuman.

Bus Drivers Stage Picnic

Bus drivers of the Tecumseh public schools held a family picnic Sunday at Vineyard Lake. Water sports and baseball provided entertainment for the day.

Those attending were the families of Donald Woods, Jack Hollenbeck, Harold Anderson, Douglas Fairbanks, Maurice Evans, Mitchell Mobley, Clifford Adams, Stanley Rentschler, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Green and Fay Kempf.

Cook Electric Expands, Moves to New Site

Perry Cook, owner of Cook Electrical Contracting has bought out the Tecumseh Electric business at 115 S. Evans street.

His concern, now called Cook Electric, Incorporated, has moved into the store occupied by Tecumseh Electric for the past six years.

Mr. Cook, a native of Tecumseh, has been in the electrical contracting business here for the past five years. He worked previously in Adrian.

About one year ago he expanded his business and opened a retail store in downtown Tecumseh.

He added nationally famous Tappan and Gibson range lines, Emerson radio and television, ABC washers and dryers.

☆

THESE LINES will be continued along with the Hotpoint and Motorola, carried by Tecumseh Electric.

Cook Electric does contracting work for Templeton Construction Company, Town and Country Homes, local home builders.

Recent work includes the Hanna Insurance office, Baptist church, D&C Store and the new A&P store now under construction.

The radio and TV repair work of Tecumseh Electric will be expanded with Vic Peterson and Julius Vincz, who between them have 20 years experience, in charge.

George Derby and Ralph Sager, partners in Tecumseh Electric, were in business together for six years.

Mr. Sager, who attended the University of Wisconsin, majoring in electrical engineering, will continue in the electrical contracting business.

Mr. Derby's future plans are uncertain.

Class of 1918 Gathers at Home of Updikes

Sixteen members of the class of 1918 enjoyed a reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Updike Saturday afternoon before they attended the alumni banquet held at the high school.

Class pictures were shown and a social time enjoyed. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Letters were read from several who were not able to attend. They were Joe Satterthwaite of Washington, D.C.

Leslie Johnson of Santa Barbara, California.

Goldye Palman of Toledo, Ohio.

Ruth Robert Dewey of Mt. Pleasant, Michigan.

Mildred Armstrong of Adrian, a former teacher.

☆

THOSE PRESENT were:

Wade Van Valkenburg of Kalamazoo.

Florence Van Winkle Gherity of Highland Park.

Lillis Howard McLain of East Detroit.

Anna McKendry McClure of Detroit.

Marjorie Boyce of St. Clair Shores.

Ruby Reckner Young of Brighton.

Edna Taylor O'Connor of Plymouth.

Albertine Mobbs Davis of Michigan Center.

Pearl Feller Brown of Adrian.

Mildred Lamkin Berry of Blissfield.

Irene Richards Riley of Onsted.

Myrtle Steves Dowling of Onsted.

Margaretta Gibson Brisbin of Tecumseh.

Eula Stevenson Large of Tecumseh.

Luella Lowry Lent of Tecumseh.

Dorothy Balmer Updike of Tecumseh.

☆

OTHER GUESTS present were Mr. Updike, Dewey Berry, James Gherity and Lewis Lent.

Esther Raymond Moore came from Los Angeles, California for the reunion, but was called home by the death of her husband.

Lucille Camp Coover of San Diego, California and Loleta Onsted Lawrence of Hillsdale are other members of the class.

13 Class of '08 Member Have Fun at Their Reunion

Thirteen of the original 33 members of the Tecumseh high Class of 1908 met Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Herbert Munger to celebrate their golden anniversary.

Tea was served by the hostess. Earl McNeil, their senior president, conducted an informal "Do you remember?" session during which messages were read from several of the remaining 24 class members, who were unable to be present.

Later the group attended the alumni banquet where a table had been reserved and where Mr. McNeil gave a short extemporaneous speech regarding the class.

Those present from out-of-town were Florence Keyser Honsinger, Ypsilanti; Roger Waring, Lakewood, Ohio; Grace Albert Detwiler, Grosse Pointe Park, Mich.; Pearl Beebe Leonardson, Wamplers Lake and Raynor Scudder, Saline.

Local members are Ivah Waldron Munger, Helen McCoy Wilson, Leota Atem McConnell, Percy Bowen, Margaret Waldron Kidman, Alvin Brazee, Clara Waldron and Earl McNeil.

Dale H. Tingley Buried on Monday; Was 60 Years Old

Funeral services were held Monday at Green Funeral Home for Dale H. Tingley, who passed away Friday morning.

He had been in failing health for the past six years.

Born in Monroe county in 1898, he was 60-years-old at the time of his death.

Mr. Tingley was a member of the Underwood-Orr Post of the American Legion and of the Tecumseh Masonic Lodge.

He is survived by his wife, Myrna Van Vleet Tingley; a son, Dale E. Tingley of Big Rapids; a daughter, Mrs. Boyd Baird of Gaylord; two grandchildren; a brother, Clifford Tingley of Detroit and two sisters, Mrs. Viola Daisher of Britton and Mrs. Charles Chandler of Midland.

He was preceded in death by two sisters and a brother.

Rev. George E. Walworth was the officiating minister and a military service was conducted by the American Legion with Larry Cote, commander, and James Vallie as chaplain.

Lyman Curtiss, Lilliard Brown, Sr., Albert Bagshaw, Marvin Watkins and Ned Baldwin, were bearers.

Burial was in Brookside cemetery.

Room for More at Bible School

The Vacation Church School sponsored by Gloria Dei Lutheran Church, which opens Monday and continues through June 27, still has room for more children.

The theme of the School is "We Follow Jesus" with a Mission stress on Japan.

The schedule of the school will include Bible study, music instruction and projects in handwork.

Classes will be held daily for the two-week period, Monday through Friday from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m.

For children needing transportation, information concerning rides to and from the school can be obtained by calling Mrs. Tom Kampmueller, 881-J or the church parsonage, 1187-J.

All children are welcome to attend the school, which will be held at the church and parish house, 108-120 W. Brown St.

Tecumseh Man's Brother Killed

Two Muskegon men killed last Friday in a plane crash north of Grand Haven included a brother of a Tecumseh resident.

Hubert Lavender, 508 Stacy, was notified late Friday afternoon that his brother, Raymond Lavendar, 33, Muskegon, died when the plane in which he was a passenger crashed into a sand dune, just off Lake Michigan.

You Told Us

BY DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

Parties and receptions honoring the graduates both from high school and many from college have been filling the evenings and weekends of Tecumseh residents.

Alumni banquets and class reunions are in prominence this week also.

Clara Waldron attended her 45th college reunion at Michigan State Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Service and family on the Clinton-Macon road held open house Sunday afternoon in honor of their son, Gary, who graduated from Clinton high school Thursday evening.

About 100 relatives, neighbors and friends were in attendance and Gary received many fine gifts. He will enter Michigan State University in the fall.

Mrs. Raymond Service entered St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor Monday where she underwent surgery on Tuesday morning.

A family picnic dinner was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Faust in Adrian to honor their son, Pvt. Donald L. Faust, who is spending a furlough at his home here.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Faust, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Bugbee and daughter, Sherry; Myrna Bugbee of Tecumseh, Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Bugbee and family of Macon, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bailey, Sandra and Frederick Faust of Adrian.

Private Faust has just completed basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri.

Mrs. A. W. Allen and son, Paul, of St. Louis, Missouri, have been spending several days with her mother, Mrs. Mae Dickinson, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaza Kish and family spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Retter, of Blissfield.

Harold Weakly arrived home from Western Michigan College Wednesday.

Mrs. Lucille Marine has moved from her farm to her new home on Maiden Lane.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Boyce and family were in Alma Saturday for the graduation of their daughter, Marie, from Alma College. They were accompanied by Mrs. S. W. Boyce.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sheldon are spending this week in Saginaw and Flint for the graduation of their grandson, Paul Frederick Hoag. He is also the grandson of Mrs. Bertha Hoag of W. Logan street.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sheldon celebrated their 59th wedding anniversary May 31.

Jimmy Ramsay of Trenton is spending this week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Green, Sr., while his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Allan Ramsay, accompany his sister, Priscilla, to Montreal, Canada, where she will board the ship taking her to Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Bailey entertained Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Clark of Rockford, Michigan, over last weekend. The Clarks attended the 35th wedding anniversary celebration for Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Mead. Mrs. Bailey returned to Rockford with them to spend a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lippiatt, Bruce and Brenda of North Carolina spent the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kopka, leaving Monday to visit his people in Salem, Ohio. While here, 2½ year old Bruce helped his father wash the car and like most youngsters tired of the tedious work. He meandered about the new A & P property making his own tour of inspection, finally disappearing.

When the family started looking for him of course he didn't seem to be any place they looked.

After about an hour and a half his grandmother decided to call her husband to join the search.

Mr. Kopka of the city water department can be contacted by calling the Police Department which he wife did, but was told he was out on a call.

The gracious policeman asked if he could be of any help and when informed of the difficulties immediately quieted all the anxiety by saying,

"Don't worry any more, we have him here at the office." ....

The Lippiatt and Kopka families are most grateful to the police department and to Mike Sarvan, proprietor of the Top Hat restaurant, who notified the police of the wanderer's whereabouts.

Mr. and Mrs. David Green and son, Allan, left for Massachusetts Monday after spending the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. George Green, Sr.

David has accepted a position as assistant professor in the

DAVID GREEN

Psychology section at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, Massachusetts.

He recently completed the requirements for a doctorate degree in psychology at the University of Michigan. He is a graduate of Tecumseh High in 1950.

THE SECOND inter-club match at home went to Toledo's linksmen in rain and wind. Scores were fairly good considering the weather conditions, but both teams had trouble with the slick greens. A buffet followed the match.

A special kicker handicap event was played with four ties at 74. These were Chuck Newell and Frank Muszinski from Tecumseh and Roy Pemberton and Joe Szymezack from Toledo.

Andy Holmes was nearest pin on No. 6 at 45 inches and Royal Welch won honors for No. 9 pin at 47½ inches.

Tecumseh scores:
Paul Callahan, 80.
Ed Mossing, 81.
Chuck Newell, 81.
Frank Muszinski, 83.
Dr. Bob Bowers, 85.
Willis Porter, 85.
Ned Rosacrans, 85.
Jim Spooner, 87.
Max Smith, Sr., 86.
Max Smith, Jr., 86.

ANNIVERSARY — An open house is planned by the children of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Patterson for their 25th wedding anniversary. The event will be held at the Britton Congregational June 15, from 2 to 6 p.m. Mr. and Mrs. Edwards were married June 17, 1933 at the bride's home in Ypsilanti. They are the parents of two children, Jack of Adrian and Larry, a student at Adrian College and one grandson, Ricky of Adrian. All relatives, neighbors and friends are cordially invited.

'Dad'

Editor's Note: Mrs. Chauncey Harrison, who is employed by the United Savings Bank, submits this appropriate poem for this week's edition.)

AN APPRECIATION

Who is it wears the patch work hose
And seldom goes to picture shows,
That his girls may have nice clothes.
—It's father.

Who is it wears last summer's hat,
That his boy may join a sport frat
And thinks its quite all right, at that.
—It's father.

Who is it gives us bread and meat
And puts the shoes upon our feet,
And then gets shoved in a back seat.
—It's father.

We've Mothers Day and Poppy Day
And many other holidays,
But every day is Labor Day
—For Father.

So get his slippers and easy chair,
Give him a hug and rumple his hair
And let him know you're glad he's there.
—Your Father.

Dickinson Family Can Well Be Proud of Allen and Anita

Allen Forrest Dickinson, son of Mrs. Mae Dickinson, has again been granted one of the nineteen Guy M. Wilson scholarships for 1958 by the American Legion.

He is attending the Ferris Institute, School of Pharmacy at Big Rapids and plans to attend summer school.

He will spend the weekend of June 14 in Tecumseh before the summer session begins on Tuesday.

His sister, Anita, who will graduate from the St. Joseph Hospital School of Nursing in Ann Arbor this year, is the president of her class and gave the response to the welcoming speech at the alumni banquet held there last Wednesday evening.

Mrs. A. W. Allen of St. Louis, Missouri was home to attend the banquet and hear her sister speak. She was a graduate of the same school in 1945.

Charles Spreeman, Adrian CC Graduate, Honored with Party

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Spreeman entertained Sunday in honor of their son, Charles, who graduated that day from Adrian Catholic Central high school.

The table decorations were carried out in the school colors of blue and white with the centerpiece of white mums with blue spears and little white napkins tied with blue ribbons to represent the diplomas.

Mrs. Robert Hunt, a neighbor, surprised Charles with a large cake decorated in blue and white, topped with a diploma.

Mrs. Alvin Kimling of Hudson presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Rebekah Hunt had charge of the guest book.

Included among the 65 guests were Mrs. Mary Ronsom of Grand Rapids, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence McGill of Bryan, Ohio; Guy McGill, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Kimling, all of Hudson; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Larsen of Adrian, Mr. and Mrs. Arno Spreeman of Tipton and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Spreeman of Blissfield.

The honored guest received many fine gifts.

Later in the evening about 50 of his classmates from Catholic Central arrived to greet him.

—o—

Approximately 300 guests attended the open house held last week at the Robert C. Jones division of the Milan area schools. Guests were shown the displays prepared by the teachers and their pupils.

It HAPPENED In MACON

By MRS. HAMILTON MOORE
Phone 10-F-3

Macon Community Club will meet Tuesday evening, June 17, at 7:30 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. Evans in Milan. Members are to bring cake, cookies or strawberries and their dishes. Ice cream will be furnished. Members are reminded to bring whatever history of Macon that they have collected.

√

The Good Will truck will be in Macon on Tuesday, June 17. Things may be left with Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Travis.

√

Rev. and Mrs. Walter Damberg and daughter, Janet, and son, Jimmie, of the Upper Peninsula, will be the new Methodist pastor, starting Sunday, June 22.

√

Plans have been completed for the Vacation Bible School to begin, Monday June 16 from 9 until 11 each morning, with closing program on Sunday morning June 22, during the Sunday school hour.

√

Friends at Clinton and Macon have received word from Dr. and Mrs. Franklin Littell and family in Germany. They are to leave for the United States June 10 and will make their home here.

Dr. Littell will be teaching church history in the Candler School of Theology, Emory University, Georgia, next fall. Many people will remember them as pastors of the Clinton and Macon Methodist Church from 1947 to 1949.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Miller of Ridgeway, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Moore and daughter were Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller in Saline. Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Miller moved this week to the house vacated by Mr. and Mrs. William E. Brown and family on Smith road. The Brown family has moved to a new home on Hendershot road.

√

Mrs. Ada Rhodes has returned to her home from the Herrick Memorial Hospital, where she spent several days.

√

Joseph Howell and some of his family of Clairemore, Oklahoma, are spending a few days with his mother, Mrs. Mary Howell and friends. They formerly lived in Macon.

√

Richard Moore entertained Arlynne Schineman of the Franklin, Nebraska Future Farmers Chapter Tuesday.

√

Mrs. Melvin Travis and her sister, May Baker, were in Toledo Friday on business. Mrs. Rose Harmon of Toledo spent the weekend in the Travis home.

√

Ann Arbor District Seminar meetings of the Women's Society of Christian Service will be held in the Howell Methodist Church July 15; in Petersburg, July 17; in Napoleon, July 24; Romulus, September 9, this latter session for those unable to attend the summer meetings. There will be more publicity near the dates, but all officers and committee women are expected to attend at least one meeting.

√

Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore was the lay delegate from Macon for the Detroit Church Conference in Flint, from Wednesday until Sunday afternoon. Mr. Moore, their son, Richard, and the junior lay delegate, Richard VanValkenberg, attended Saturday and Sunday sessions.

√

Farewell fellowship dinner was served in the church dining room Sunday in honor and appreciation to Rev. and Mrs. Donald Bates and family, who have served the Macon church for the past two years.

He is leaving this week to attend Seminar in Washington, D. C.

Following the dinner a program was given under the direction of Herbert Morden and Mrs. Reva Godfrey. Since Rev. Bates is fond of baseball, it seemed only right to use that as the theme.

Mrs. Carl Thomas started the program by playing "Take Me Out To The Ball Game," then everyone sang it.

Reva Godfrey was master of ceremonies and introduced Robert Osborne, Jack Crittenden, Bernard Tucker, Dean Moore, Charles Gorton Jr., Gerald Miller, Kendra Frost, Mrs. Russell Collins and Mrs. Harold Kuder.

A baseball and catcher's mitt was presented to the Bates family. The ball was filled with

Mr. and Mrs. Rodger Gillespie, Mr. and Mrs. Gail Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Williams were in Port Huron Sunday attending an annual school picnic.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Jordon and their son, Truman, of Albion College, were in East Lansing Sunday for the graduation of their daughter and sister, Mrs. Lenora Rathburn, from Michigan State University where she majored in hotel management. She has taken a position with the Lansing YWCA.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Russel VanValkenburg held open house in honor of their son, Richard, who graduated from Britton-Macon high school Thursday. Guests were from Clayton, Ypsilanti and Macon.

√

We are very sorry to have them leave, but we wish them lots of success in the future.

'Abundant Water' Is Theme

Mrs. Richard Lask presided at the meeting of the Baptist Womens Society Monday evening when the devotions, "Abundant Water," was presented under the direction of Mrs. Orville Bishop.

Mrs. James Danforth and Mrs. Lee Prettyman sang a duet, "Only a Touch of Thy Hand, Dear Lord" accompanied by Mrs. Vern Brown.

Mrs. Lask presented the program which included two piano duets by Gloria and Jo Ann Green.

Jamie Danforth also sang.

A playlet, "The Overflowing Waters," completed the program with Mrs. Lask, Mrs. Vern Eyler, Mrs. Lee Prettyman, Mrs. E. H. McConnell, Mrs. Eddie Kirkland and Mrs. Charles Beland taking part.

Mrs. McConnell thanked the members for the $40 contribution to the County Migrant work.

Mrs. Beland read a thank-you note for the clothing sent to Mather School.

A lovely gift of $13.20 was received and dedicated.

Refreshments were served with the officers as hostesses with Mrs. Vern Eyler as chairman.

The table was beautified by an attractive arrangement of flowers from the garden of Mrs. McConnell, who arranged and donated it.

Mrs. R. W. Herrick and Mrs. John Surratt presided at the tea service.

The next meeting will be a family picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Woods.

Jaycees Vote to Back Move for Dial Phones

After installation of new officers last Thursday night, the Tecumseh Jaycees presented awards to winners of the recent Teenage Roadeo and approved a motion to help secure a dial telephone system for Tecumseh.

Larry Robison received the first place award for his driving skill; Mike McCann, second; and Mike Walters, third.

Young Robison will be sent by the club to participate in the state tournament at Detroit.

The local organization voiced its objection to the present phone system. The club voted to back any local movement for dial phones.

Terry Mackin, chairman for carnival arrangements, announced plans and committees. The carnival will be held here June 24 through 28 on Russell road, just south of Tecumseh Acres.

Golf Tournament Open to Boys 17

The annual Jaycee golf tourney will be held Monday and Tuesday, June 16-17, on the Country Club course.

Applications are available from Leo Bishop and must be completed by Saturday. The tournament, open to area boys who will not reach age 18 by August 18, will consist of 18 holes each day.

The top four shooters will be entered as a team in the state tourney, July 7, at Ann Arbor.

Dr. Robert Laidlaw is chairman of the local event.

Jack Osburn Seeks School Board Post

Dr. Ralph Helzerman and Jack Osburn have filed for the one seat up for election on the Tecumseh Board of Education.

The election is July 7.

Dr. Helzerman has been a member of the board for 12 years, 11 years as secretary.

Mr. Osburn, local realtor, is seeking his first public office. He's been active in many civic affairs.

WHO? — Two 8 by 10 photos are available for anyone identifying these children. The picture was taken by the late Lester Coller of Sunbeam Studio probably some years ago. Mrs. Arthur Holdridge of 502 Orchard Lane has the pictures, one the same as this one, in color, and one of the little girl in color. She says, "It seems a shame to destroy them." Her phone—881-R.

Story of Life Given at Party for Miss Manley

A miscellaneous shower was held Friday at Tecumseh Friends Church honoring the approaching marriage of Marilyn Manley to Willis Kilbourn.

Spring flowers enhanced the Escolme parlors for the event and Miss Manley was seated before a sunburst of rainbow colors to enjoy the program as presented by Mrs. Melvin Muhn, mistress of ceremonies.

Mrs. Paul Brantingham played several piano selections, Sharon Muhn sang, "A Little Band of Gold" followed with short talks by several telling of the highlights of Miss Manley's past life.

Her mother, Mrs. Charles Manley spoke of her babyhood; Sharon Muhn told of their play and early childhood; Gerry Hirsch spoke of their school days together; Mrs. Allen Bordine told of their work at the United Savings Bank and Mrs. Naomi Sallows told of Miss Manley's work in the church.

Mrs. Muhn, Sharon, Mrs. Perry Hayden and Mabel Lockwood were hostesses for the occasion. Each guest was presented with a little booklet containing a picture of the honored couple.

The gift tables were decorated in rainbow hues and tiny umbrella favors were used. Many lovely gifts were presented to the couple.

Among the guests from away were Mrs. Fred Lippiatt from Draper, North Carolina; Mrs. Charles Anderson from Brazil and Mrs. Charles Manley and daughter, Vickie, from Adrian.

Need May 15 Issues

Brian Packard Gets Scout Award

Brian Packard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Packard, received the Boy Scout "God and Country" award recently during the worship hour at the First Baptist Church.

He was proposed for the award by his Sunday School teacher, Orville Bishop. Rev. Blair Bashore presented it.

The award represents 150 hours of service, in church work besides attendance at church and Sunday School, a working knowledge of the National Council of Churches as well as the local church. Visitation of nursing homes, and knowledge of their operation, were other requirements.

Only three awards of this kind are given in Tecumseh.

Among the Scouters attending were Scoutmaster Jack Saxton, and his assistant, Delbert Tallman, Jr., Garfield Smith, camp and activities chairman, and his wife, 14 Scouts and Explorers from Troop 5 of Clinton; Eli Dickerson, Wolverine Council Advancement chairman, and his wife, and Howard Wilson, Scoutmaster of Troop 73, Tecumseh.

Susan Prettyman Is Given Party

Mrs. H. Lee Prettyman entertained nine children Thursday in honor of the fourth birthday anniversary of her daughter, Susan.

The Prettyman home was decorated with varied colored balloons.

The guest list included Cathy Lask, Nancy Schwartz, Dwight and Mark Burkhard, Debbie and Ruth Ann Velandra, Beth Ann Curtiss, Jeffry Langham and Wanda Craft.

Singing games were enjoyed by the children as well as pinning the mouse on the Hickory Dickory Clock. Prizes were awarded to Nancy, Mark and Beth Ann.

RICHARD JOHNSTON

Dick Johnston Wins His Stripes

Airman 3rd class Richard R. Johnston recently received his stripes.

Richard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnston.

Airman Johnston was graduated from Tecumseh high in 1957, enlisted in the Air Force in March and took his basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas.

He is now in radio school at Keesler Air Force Base, Mississippi.

—o—

Forty-two people met at the Rea Methodist Church from Cone, Rea and Summerfield for an evening of singing. Ellis Johnston led the group in singing hymns. Dale Stull, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Stull, entertained with a saxaphone solo with Lois Bird accompanying him. The last sing of this season will be June 8 at the Summerfield Church.

THIS WEEK'S Police Blotter

Last Thursday an accident occurred at the Tecumseh Products parking lot involving two vehicles and a pedestrian.

The pedestrian, John M. Applegate of Britton, was struck by the rear of a car driven by Roy E. Baldwin of Manchester.

Baldwin was traveling east on Patterson and started a turn when his brakes failed. In an attempt to avoid hitting Mr. Applegate he hit a pick-up truck traveling west on Patterson, driven by Albert Palmer, Britton.

This caused the rear of his car to strike Applegate, who was admitted to Herrick Memorial hospital with a concussion and bad cut over his right eye.

Baiwin was given a summons for failure to have his car under control.

TWO OTHER minor accidents occurred last week.

Pearl Kuder, 75, 213 W. Logan, suffered a knee abrasion when she drove through a stop sign and struck an auto driven by Earl David Yoakum, 707 Inner Drive.

She was treated in a doctor's office and ticketed for failure to yield the right-of-way.

The other accident occurred at Ottawa and Chicago boulevard when Florence Elizabeth Mills, Raisin Center Highway, pulled in front of a motorcycle driven by Troy Lee Harris, Comfort road.

Mrs. Mills stated that she stopped and did not see the motorcycle. She was ticketed for failure to yield the right-of-way.

Scouts Attending Annual Camporee

Boy Scouts of Troop 73 attending the Camporee this weekend at Camp Kenesatake will leave the Scout cabin at 4:30 p.m. Friday with their packs.

The $3 charge includes the badge the boys will be given for participation in the event. Each patrol will do its own cooking and the troop will be given points on neatness of appearance and campsite, knot tying, fire building, nature, cooking, morse code and other camp skills.

A family picnic will be held at the Camp Sunday at 1 p.m. with each family bringing food to pass and their own table service.

Pinkard Infant Buried on Saturday Afternoon

Arrangements were made by the Green Funeral Home for the graveside service held Saturday for the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Pinkard.

The child passed away at 7:10 that morning shortly after birth at the Herrick Memorial Hospital.

She is survived by her parents, who live at 13005 Western Drive, Tecumseh; a half-brother, James; her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Arlie LeBaron, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Pinkard of Adrian and Caleb Mize of Alabama.

Service was conducted by Rev. Alvin Brazee in Brookside cemetery.

"How soon can I get a bank loan for home repair needs?"

Our bank makes such loans promptly. Fast action is our motto, for we know that the longer you are obliged to put off making a necessary repair the greater your ultimate cost is likely to be. The steps in applying for a loan are just three: Get contractors' estimates on the work that's called for; decide how much cash you can assign to the project; sit down with one of our officers to work out details of borrowing the balance at low cost, and your plans for repayment of the loan. How much do you need?

Allow Earlier Wheat Planting

Agricultural chemicals may break the back of one of the wheat growers' most troublesome problems.

Two systemic chemicals, Thimet and Bayer 19639, have effectively controlled the Hessian fly in two years of testing by researchers at the Michigan State University Agricultural Experiment Station.

Systemic materials are absorbed into the plant's system and kill the insect when it bites into or sucks the plant's fluids.

These results are preliminary and must be followed up with more extensive tests, the researchers say. If further tests show the chemicals can be recommended, then Michigan farmers will not have to worry about waiting until after the fly-free date to plant.

The early planting date would also mean better establishment of the stand and some farmers could use the wheat for pasture.

☆

IN THE TESTS, the chemicals were applied both as a seed treatment and in the row along with the fertilizer in late August and early September.

Treated plots showed a range from less than 1% infested plants to 5% infested plants. Untreated areas showed infested plants ranging as high as 18.3%.

The treatment does reduce the stand slightly and slows down early growth. But the plants recover very well and vigor increases after recovery. When a fungicide is added to the seed treatment, damage to stand is reduced considerably

Scholarships Won by These Tecumseh Graduates

Julia Boyce, Edward Roselle and Alfred Dick were "double winners" in the awarding of college scholarships at last week's graduation ceremonies.

Each was granted a $2,400 Herrick Foundation scholarship, which can be used at the college or university of their choosing.

Miss Boyce, who maintained a straight-A average through her four years in high school, also was granted a four-year scholarship to Ohio Wesleyan University.

Mr. Roselle's second award is four years at Tri-State College of Angola, Indiana.

For Mr. Dick it was four years at Dartmouth University in Hanover, New Hampshire.

Fourth winner of the Herrick Foundation scholarship was Esther Stutesman.

Other graduates honored:

Joyce Hadsell, four years to American University in Washington, D. C.

Janet Brollier, $200 from Lenawee District Nurses Association.

David Lamkin, four years to University of Michigan.

Norma Jewell, $200 from Lenawee District Nurses Association.

Sharon Ries, four years to Michigan State University.

Thomas Price, four years to Michigan College of Mining and Technology.

Alice E. Neuman, one-year to any school from Lucius T. Lilley Foundation.

Joan Kempf, one year Hart Memorial to any school.

Not 2 Worlds in Life, Priest Tells Graduates

"Your personality will now become more and more important," Fr. Thomas J. Collins told 20 eighth-grade graduates of St. Elizabeth's school at their commencement Sunday night.

"The personal relationship between you and your Lord will become stronger," the speaker continued, "and no one can love God in your place. You have to approach Him by yourself."

The pastor pointed out that there are not two separate worlds — one religious and one secular. He emphasized that everything the graduates do should bring them closer to God.

Fr. Collins noted that each of us is different, each has been given different talents by God and each will be responsible for the development of these gifts.

"Depending on how you grow in wisdom and knowledge and love of God will determine how successful your life has been," the priest said.

The class included William Wallace, Joseph Bolton, Roger Herbert, Donald McCrate, Lawrance Neidlinger, Paul O'Connor, Michael Rohrer and Christopher Roll.

Sandra Bishop, Ann Ambrose, Sharon Buku, Kathleen DeLisle, Mary Fatchett, Virginia Friday and Virginia Hodges.

Audrey LeFevre, Barbara Sherman, Hilda Short, Suzette Velandra and Jo Westfall.

Bankers Hear Talk on Public Relations

The Lenawee County Bankers Association met recently at the Tecumseh Country Club to elect officers.

Russell Coleman, assistant cashier of the Thompson Savings Bank of Hudson, was named president to succeed Arthur Woodward, assistant cashier of the United Savings Bank of Tecumseh.

Lester E. Finley, assistant vice-president of the National Bank of Detroit, was the speaker. His subject was "Public Relations."

Good News, Dad, Put Mower Away

The turf on many lawns is ruined by too frequent and too close mowing, say turf specialists at Michigan State University.

This is especially true of shady lawns, where the competition of trees for water and plant food is great, and on lawns which are injured by drought in summer.

Better turf will result if such lawns are mowed less often. Maintain such lawn grasses as Merion and Kentucky bluegrass and red fescue at a height of 1½ to 2 inches in open, sunny areas. Keep red fescue and rough bluegrass grown in shade at 2 to 2½ inches.

Keep your lawn mowed as recommended until about June 15, then put the lawn mower away. Bring it out only if summer conditions are so favorable that the grass is likely to become unsightly.

Tecumseh Motor Court Motel

JUNE 12, 1958 OUR 5th ANNIVERSARY

Within the City of Tecumseh, yet on a lovely country estate. Shaded by towering elms and maples of another century, and surrounded by shrubbery and flowers, the Tecumseh Motor Court Motel is a wonderful setting for comfort and relaxation. With all the natural beauty of a country estate, it is but a few short blocks from the center of the city.

Five short years ago "Hospitality" was in the Dictionary

After 129 years of prosperity, in 1953 our community at night was "off limits" for the visitor. There had been no modern overnight accommodations for the traveler, and the world was doing a very effective job of staying away from Tecumseh.

On June 12, 1953 this condition was corrected. The Tecumseh Motor Court Motel opened its doors, and hospitality became a living reality. Today as then, it is unquestionably the nicest of our entire area. The Tecumseh Motel serves both travelers and our community well.

Our Thanks To You

At this time we pause to thank the many kind and loyal friends who have favored us with their support. We are truly grateful.

Among the nice features of the Tecumseh Motel are:

* Tiled tub and shower in every room.
* Plenty of nice softened Hot Water.
* Wonderful Beds.
* Automatic Gas Heat in each room
* Aluminum Screens and Storm Windows.
* Record of 8,000 happy and satisfied guests.
* Your business is appreciated.
* Each room completely insulated and Sound-Proofed from others.
* Comfortable furnishings, light and always clean.
* Thorough ventilation.
* Pleasant surroundings and reasonable rates.

Through My Window

JUST ONCE EVERY YEAR

His first visit was four, maybe five years ago. Since then each spring, just as the trees are taking on their new green leaf coats, one of his kind makes an appearance.

The visit cannot be scheduled with any accuracy by the calendar and in the past years it has varied in length from a brief five minutes to a lengthy day and a half.

This spring the visit was, unfortunately, of the shorter type. It was some weeks ago and we had just finished eating when Dad looked out the window, broke into a broad grin, and exclaimed, "Oh, look! He's back again!"

Sure enough, there in the small mulberry tree, which grows just back of the white street barrier at the end of Logan Street, was a beautiful Rose-breasted Grosbeak.

For 10, maybe 15 minutes he stayed in sight and what a sight he was—a striking combination of black and white accentuated by a rosy-red cravat. In the spring when he has donned his bright new courting clothes he is magnificent.

THE RED-BREASTED Grosbeak is a truly handsome bird. A little more than eight inches long, his back and head are an all-over black, his wings are black too but with large patches and bars of white; his tail is also black but again, white near the base and on the outer edge feathers offers relief.

His breast is a dazzling white and, of course, his name-sake characteristic is the bright patch of color under his chin. Another identifying characteristic is the short but broad and thick white bill.

In the fall and winter our dapper friend wears a much more sombre suit. His back and shoulders are brown streaked with black and he sports several whitish stripes on his head.

His snowy white lower breast turns brownish white and is streaked with a washed out reddish pink. Year round the females and young birds are garbed in a comparatively dull and drab suit similar to the male's winter outfit.

SINCE THE Grosbeaks seem fated to make but one visit per year to us we are pleased they pick a time when their courting plumage is at the peak of its loveliness. This year as Mr. Grosbeak worked his way from tree to tree, up the creek and all to soon out of our sight, he was truly lovely. Every movement seemed calculated to show off his black, white and rosy-red beauty to the best advantage.

According to John Kieran, the well known naturalist-author, the Rose-breasted Grosbeak is the epitome of perfection in the bird world.

"He is beautiful, melodious, easy to identify, beneficial to agriculture, and good to his family."

It might also be added that he is a clean, neat bird, seldom nervous and always displaying great dignity and forcefulness.

HE IS AN unusually affectionate mate, helping with the construction of the rather rough nest and even takes his turn sitting on the eggs. He is an excellent provider and faithfully brings food to his mate when it is her turn to sit.

As the family grows up, his affection never wavers and proud Papa Grosbeak is a tireless worker in finding tasty insects to satisfy his youngsters' almost insatiable appetites.

Actually I think that we are fortunate to see a Rose-breasted Grosbeak from the window. Although not a rare bird they are certainly not too common, sad to say, we don't find them hopping around the lawns.

Neither are they feeding station birds.

The Rose-breasted Grosbeaks are not to be confused with the lovely black, brown and yellow evening Grosbeaks who, during the cold winter months, are often tempted to a well-stocked feeding tray.

THESE ATTRACTIVE summer birds are most happy in a woodland tract of large trees with an open area densley grown up with tall shrubs close at hand.

Theoretically we should have some Grosbeaks nesting in the neighborhood. Perhaps we do and maybe we just don't see them.

The female and young birds must be quite inconspicuous and, of course, when the male discards his bright spring suit, he too would be quite hard to see as he perches high in the tops of the tall shade trees he loves so well.

We keep looking, but since that eventful Saturday we have not seen Mr. Rose-breasted. It's beginning to look as if again this year we'll have only one visit.

(Next Week: A Most Unnerving Day)

Named Two New Coaches

New coaches for Boysville have been named.

Walter "Mike" Gentzwell of Iron River will be head tutor in football, basketball and baseball.

Coach Gentzwell is a graduate of Western Michigan College, spent two years in service.

He was in the Dearborn school system two years and for the past three at Manchester.

Married and the father of four daughters, he and his family will reside on the Boysville campus and he will teach science and math.

Assisting Mr. Gentzwell will be Dick Heynes, a University of Michigan graduate, and a former all-stater from Grand Rapids Catholic Central.

Mr. Heynes is slated to instruct biology and general science, will assist in football and basketball, handle track if that sport is introduced next spring.

Boysville has applied for entrance into the River Raisin League, having dropped out of the League of the Lakes following the withdrawal of Dexter and Manchester.

Mrs. Mitchell Honored at Auxiliary Reception

Mrs. Edward Mitchell, Ladies Auxiliary Patriarchs Militant president, was honored at a reception and banquet Saturday evening in the Youth House of the First Baptist Church in Tecumseh.

The tables were attractive with bouquets of roses and iris. The centerpiece of purple and yellow mums in front of Mrs. Mitchell, was presented to her as well as a beautiful blanket from her Auxiliary, Adrian 8.

Favors were tiny military caps crocheted to resemble those worn by the Department ladies.

Mrs. Mitchell received a shower of gifts, including two white orchids from her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Struyk of Port Huron, who were unable to attend due to illness.

☆

MRS. WALTER LOVE of Blissfield registered 147 guests as they entered the Youth House from Detroit, Lansing, Grand Rapids, Midland, Ann Arbor, Flint, Battle Creek, Kalamazoo, Blissfield, Galesburg, Algonac, Sans Souci, Pontiac, Adrian, Jackson, Port Huron, St. Clair, Lapeer, Plymouth, Muskegon, Owosso, VanderCook Lake, Temperance, Monroe, Britton and Tecumseh.

Mrs. Gregory Barrett of Monroe had charge of the reservations and tickets.

Greetings were brought by Odd Fellows officials.

Those making arrangements for the reception and banquet were Pearl Smith of Britton, Mrs. Charles Sherman of Blissfield, Mrs. Arlie Becker of Tecumseh, Mrs. LaVern Moore of Blissfield, Erma Fenton of Adrian and Mrs. Grace Van Riper of Ida.

Retail Division of New Chamber Is Now Forming

Retail division of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce is now forming.

A three-man nominating committee — Dick Eggleston, Skip Rex and Chuck Butler — was named at a board meeting Monday.

When the list of candidates is complete, it will be mailed to each retail member for voting.

Purpose of this division is to work solely on retail promotions and problems.

Saddle Club Will Be Holding Separate Sessions

The Lucky Clover 4-H Club met Saturday night at the home of Joe Lewis.

During the business meeting it was voted to have separate meetings for the saddle club. The motion made by Diane Handy and seconded by Dnalee Coty. The saddle club will meet Saturday at 10 at Patricia Randolph's home. Training will be in the arena and a weiner roast will be held at noon.

Future meetings will be held at the Pythian House as a result of unanimous vote, motion by Jean Starkey and seconded by Patricia Randolph.

It was also voted to put up the welcome road sign by the 4-H for the benefit of the community. The motion was made by Linda Starkey and Karen Hilwig seconded.

Eleven new members received their bulletins on cooking, rabbits, vegetables and photography.

☆

FLASH PICTURES were taken of all members and parents present and of Sandra Petrovish cutting her birthday cake, which Mrs. Dorothy Reeves had baked.

The softball teams are being organized, both for the boys and girls. The girls team will meet Thursday at 2 at the home of Linda, Jean and Jeanette Starkey for practice.

Mrs. Helwig and Mrs. Lewis served refreshments to the 49 people present.

The next meeting will be June 21 at the Pythian House. All feed record cards must be up to date by this meeting.

The cooking meeting was held Tuesday at the Pythian House with demonstrations by Roberta Lee, a drink; Mary Ann Allen, brownies; Jeanette Starkey, mombo shake; and Sandra Petrovish, tuna salad sandwiches.

o

Last Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. James Mitchell and son called on Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Berry of Blissfield.

Complete Hospitality – It Lightens The Burden . .

Every person coming to the Green Funeral Home feels at ease. Of this you are assured.

The fine qualities of the Home itself are most hospitable. Our staff personnel are completely gracious and helpful, and make everyone welcome. Your family and friends are the special object of our efforts — they will be kindly received here. These qualities are essential to the finest funeral service.

This is much more than a popular toast to your pharmacist. Like your physician, he is dedicated to a single major cause — to keep you well and healthy.

The "ounce of prevention" adage is all important in preventive medicine. Annual physical examinations and prompt diagnosis of illness enable your doctor to save you precious time and money.

More and more people recognize the wisdom of a regular medical checkup. It is the best way to put that "ounce of prevention" to practical use.

If a prescription is necessary, we are prepared to give you immediate service.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. That the clerk shall serve a copy hereof by first class mail upon all interested persons by sending to same, a copy of this resolution, giving at least ten days notice of a special meeting of this council, to be held on the evening of June 16th, 1958 at 8:00 p.m., at which time objections to this special assessment may be heard.

2. That said residents are hereby notified that the foregoing special assessment pertains only to the installation of said sewer and water mains and laterals to property line and does not include the contingent and eventual expense of connection therewith by the different property owners.

3. That the said special assessment district be set up for a five year period with one fifth plus interest not to exceed 5% paid each year.

RESOLUTION DECLARED ADOPTED:
Dated: 2 June 1958
Attest: Naomi Sallows, Clerk
J5, 12 c

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS it is the desire of this body that a continuing improvement be made in supplying the City with adequate curb-and-gutter installations; and

WHEREAS RESIDENTS HAVE PETITIONED THE COUNCIL, praying for such installations adjacent to their property.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. That the installation of curb-and-gutter shall be undertaken as soon as practicable on both sides of the street.

a. On North Union Street between Evans Creek and West Brown Street.

City Cemetery	674 Ft. $808.80

FOR ALL WE HOLD SACRED . . . ATTEND CHURCH !

I'M ASHAMED OF MYSELF--------

Yes, I'm ashamed to admit that when I sent Eileen and Jimmy to Daily Vacation Church School, it was for a selfish reason. Having them at school each day would give me a couple of carefree hours of my own!

Then, the first afternoon, they came home bursting with enthusiasm. While I gave them a snack, they sang me a song they had learned, based on the books of the Bible—and they knew each one! Guiltily, I asked myself if I could do as well!

Vacation Church School will be over in another week, but in our house it's going to continue until fall. Each morning, Eileen, Jimmy and I will have a school session of our own, and they can help me re-learn some of the things I'd half forgotten. And when next summer comes, Eileen and Jimmy will be going to Vacation Church School again—but for themselves, this time, not for me!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Parking Survey

(Editor's notes: This week's portion of the Tecumseh parking survey, made by Gibson and Kileen of Detroit, deals with parking demand.)

A complete analysis of the demand for parking space in Tecumseh's four central business district blocks, based on the amount of commercial floor area in use, was made as the second step in this survey.

The need for parking in a retail business district bears a direct relationship to the size of individual stores and the type of goods or services offered to the shopper.

This relationship is stated as the ratio of square feet of parking area needed for every square foot of floor area of a specific business establishment.

Thus a one-to-one ratio means that one square foot of parking area is needed for one square foot of retail floor space.

These ratios are realistic in that they recognize, for example, that a furniture store requires a large amount of floor space for display purposes although it serves fewer customers during a given day than a variety store or a super market.

These ratios, therefore, are not based solely on retail floor area, but also recognize differences in activity.

☆

THE RATIOS used in parking studies of this type have been developed after many years of study and have proven applicable in establishing the parking requirements of modern zoning laws and have also been used in for parking feasibility surveys.

The amount of floor area and the current use of all buildings in each block was established by studying the assessment records in the city engineer's office and by field checks.

From these figures, using the ratios discussed above, the parking need for the store in each block was established. Upstairs apartments and offices were allotted space for tenant use. The amount of curb parking space around the block and off-street space designated for customer use was determined. Thus, a comparison between demand and supply of parking was made. The results of this study are discussed in the following paragraphs.

☆

THE BLOCK bounded by Pearl, Logan, Chicago and Evans contains a hotel, bank, theater, supermarket, department store, auto sales, and several other types of store.

The commercial development, exclusive of the theater, requires 160 parking stalls and there are 30 curb spaces and 98 off-street spaces available. Thus, there is a shortage of 32 spaces in this block.

When the theater is open there is a need for an additional 145 spaces. This is computed on the basis of one stall for every four seats in the theater.

It is not difficult, therefore, to visualize a critical parking shortage in this block on a Friday evening when a film having wide public appeal is being shown and theater patrons are competing with shoppers for available parking space.

Since Saturday morning seems to be the other peak of activity there is no other conflict with the theater parking demand.

In addition, the demand for space to service the hotel will not coincide with the commercial demand. This shortage is not critical.

☆

THE BLOCK bounded by Pearl, Chicago, Pottawatamie and Evans contains a bank, telephone office, dry goods, drug store and several other small stores.

It is not as completely developed as the block to the north and there is a large parcel of vacant land in the center of the block which belongs to the United States Government. There is a need for 100 spaces to service this block and a total of 123 are available. Currently, this indicates a surplus of parking, but if title to the government property is not acquired, almost half the supply is lost and a serious shortage would exist.

☆

THE BLOCK bounded by Logan, Evans, Ottawa and Chicago is intensively developed along Evans and Chicago, but is partially residential in nature along Logan and Ottawa.

The conflicting land use and owner interest creates problems in setting curb space controls in this block.

At the present time 165 parking spaces are needed and only 68 are available so that a shortage of 97 spaces exists. This situation makes it imperative to reinstall meters along Logan and Ottawa to get the best possible use of curb space.

The next step should be the acquisition of land and its development for parking.

The block bounded by Chicago, Evans, Pottawatamie and Ottawa has nearly all of its commercial area concentrated on Chicago frontage. This block needs 92 spaces and 141 spaces are available so that a surplus of 49 spaces now exists.

Motel Celebrates Fifth Anniversary

This week begins the fifth year of operation for the Tecumseh Motor Court Motel, owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Hamaker.

On June 12, 1953 John Blocker of Lawrence, Kansas and his mother, former residents of Tecumseh, registered as the first guests.

This was the opening of the first modern accommodations for travelers in Tecumseh's 129-year history.

Since that date, the Tecumseh Motel has been host to more than 8,000 persons.

They have come from every state of the U. S., from every province of Canada, from Hawaii, Alaska, and 27 foreign countries.

Included in the guests also have been 41 dogs and 13 cats, all with perfect deportment marks.

☆

IN SEEKING business, the Tecumseh Motel has advertised summers in newspapers in Peoria, Dayton, Columbus, Toledo and Detroit.

The Tecumseh Motel is recommended by both AAA and Duncan Hines.

More than 10,000 pieces of literature describing Tecumseh, have been printed and mailed by the Motel and 27 outside road signs have been placed.

The Blockers, the first patron five years ago, have been frequent visitors. One guest, Bud Wicklund from Muskegon, has missed staying there only eight weeks in the five years, qualifying as the most persistent.

Sheep Field Day Will Be Held in Hillsdale June 19

Up to date trends in sheep breeding and management are to be feature attractions at the 10th annual State Sheep Field Day, June 19, at the Hillsdale County Fairgrounds at Hillsdale. Starting time is 10 a.m.

Hillsdale county's excellent purebred and commercial sheep flocks will be featured, according to Graydon Blank, extension sheep specialist at Michigan State University.

A type discussion using animals from purebred and commercial sheep flocks will be led by Dr. Arthur L. Pope, former Hillsdale county 4-H sheep club member and now in charge of sheep at the University of Wisconsin. Fifteen breeds will be on display.

☆

TOP QUALITY grade flocks will provide animals for several cross-breeding programs.

Ben Seeley, Reading, five times champion flock master in the former Wolverine Lamb Production project, will exhibit "Old No. 45," a ewe which has raised 18 lambs in the past eight years to a total weaning weight of 1,771 pounds. She has had 20 lambs in nine years and may produce a ton of lamb in her lifetime.

Other program topics include discussions on lamb and wool prices, and disease and parasite control. A noon lunch will feature barbecued lamb sandwiches. Various sheep production equipment will also be on display.

The field day is sponsored by the Michigan Sheep Breeders association, the Hillsdale Sheep Breeders association, the Hillsdale county cooperative extension service and the MSU animal husbandry department.

Blissfield, Dundee Are Newest Members of Athletic League

Two more schools have joined the Huron League of which Tecumseh high is now a member.

Latest additions are Blissfield and Dundee.

The other schools already in are Milan (B), Flat Rock (B), Ypsilanti Lincoln (B), Airport (B) and Grosse Ile (C).

To become a member, Blissfield pulled out of the Lenawee County Athletic Association, beginning in 1959-'60.

Withdrawal of Blissfield from the LCAA, in which it was the largest for student membership, leaves Hudson, Morenci, Onsted, Addison, Clinton and Pittsford.

A new River Raisin Athletic League is newly formed with Summerfield, Ida, Whiteford, Madison, and Sand Creek as its nucleus. Summerfield is withdrawing from the LCAA at the end of next season.

Four teams which withdrew from the Huron League make the new athletic alignment possible. They were Saline, Chelsea, University high in Ann Arbor and Roosevelt in Ypsilanti, which joined with Manchester and Dexter to form League-of-the-Lakes.

Taking their place as new members of the Huron League are Grosse Ile, Tecumseh, Airport and Blissfield.

Auxiliary Drill Team Outstanding

Redford Township American Legion's annual Memorial Day parade was held June 1, promptly at 2 p.m.—and just as prompt was the rain.

The Tecumseh American Legion Auxiliary drill team, under the direction of Doug Tate, put on a spectacular display of precision marching and intricate drill maneuvers.

The show was only enhanced by their complete oblivion to the downpour which continued during the entire afternoon.

Over the two-mile march route, their snappy cadence was to the tune of the "Marlboro Song."

They were outstanding among various American Legion bands and drum and bugle corps from other cities in Michigan.

Legion Nine Seeks Third Win in Row

Tecumseh's American Legion junior baseball team goes after its third win of the year, meeting Ypsilanti here at 4 p.m. on Recreation Field.

Sunday, Tecumseh entertains Morenci at 2 p.m.

Last week, the local Legion nine won two including an 11-inning thriller from Hudson.

Jerry McCrate's single in the sixth drove in the tying run and then the game was scoreless until the final frame when three straight doubles by Wayne McCarty, Louis Laslo, Jr. and Bob Wilkins brought victory.

Tom Judkins was the winning moundsman, striking out 14.

Blissfield proved a little easier, with Tecumseh taking a 4 to 2 win in regulation time.

Bob Wilkins was the winning hurler as he set down 12 via the strike-out route.

Seve Kruger helped Wilkins' cause with a homer and Tony Kasik contributed two base blows.

50 Gal Golfers Start Season

Fifty women attended the Kick-off Breakfast held at the Tecumseh Country Club Wednesday morning.

The winners in the golf tournament which followed were Mrs. Frank Rice, Mrs. Orville Laidlaw, Mrs. James McDowell and Mrs. Ford Mudgett.

Wednesday the ladies were to be guests at the Lenawee Country Club for golf and lunch.

$17,633 FOR TECUMSEH

Tecumseh receives $17,633.73 as its share of the first quarter state motor vehicle highway fund.

A total of $354,749.64 was distributed within Lenawee county.

NAMED AIRMAN OF MONTH

A/2 Class Gary M. Hizer has been named Airman of the Month for Frankfort, Germany. Gary, an airborne radio operator there, was awarded a three-day pass for receiving this honor. He is the son of Mrs. Walter Hizer of Tecumseh.

Bar-B-Qs Will Be Held on Fridays

At a recent meeting of the Happy Home Builders Class of the First Baptist Church, members voted to cooperate with the Christian Workers Class and change the night of the Bar-B-Qs to Friday rather than Saturday through the summer.

The annual affairs, when Tecumseh housewives take the evening off and families meet to feast and visit, will begin June 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil DePuy and Arlie Becker were hosts for the evening while Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gillespie had charge of the entertainment and Mrs. C. O. Bailey, the devotions.

Faculty Stages 3-Way Potluck

A school faculty potluck dinner honored: 1. Mr. and Mrs. Neville Hart, 2. The approaching marriage of Sue Schoenlien and Charles Gross. 3. Going away of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Breniff.

It was held Friday in the school cafeteria following the honors assembly. A gift was presented to the Breniffs.

Those in charge of the arrangements were John Babcock, chairman, Mrs. Roy Cadmus, Mrs. Mervin Soltz, Frances Wagner and Mrs. Sam Sisson.

"NATURE KNOWS NO PAUSE IN PROGRESS AND DEVELOPMENT"
—*(Author's Name Below)—

Our fight against sickness is a continuous one. Research workers are always seeking better drugs and new treatments. About one-third of the ingredients in last year's prescriptions were unknown the year before.

We must keep well informed. A newly discovered drug can almost overnight change a physician's prescribing habits, so that there is no further need for the replaced drug. Every prescription pharmacy regularly discards these drugs that are no longer used.

Despite all this, the cost-per-illness of medicines grows less each year. You get better so much more quickly.

Arnold Grandson Is Going Abroad

The grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Arnold of 405 W. Patterson street has been chosen one of the six Civil Air Patrol cadets in Michigan to participate in the international exchange program.

He is John Arnold, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Arnold of Detroit. This year marks the tenth anniversary of the program, "Ambassadors with Wings," which has successfully brought closer friendship among the countries which participate.

Mr. Arnold will be flown to Washington, D. C., in July for briefing and will go from there to Switzerland for a one month stay.

While in that country he will enjoy tours of historic and scenic interest, will meet outstanding personalities and sample the home life of a typical family.

REALTY VIEWS

"I was told by a mutual friend in Detroit to look you up," said a tall man who introduced himself as Mr. Sample, the new manager of a national concern operating in this area. "We want to buy a 3-bedroom house here."

"Fine," I said, "what district did you have in mind?"

He looked at me and replied with an impish grin, "I figure that's your job to show me where I should live. We want to be in a district with good resale possibilities. While I don't expect to be transferred out in the next year or two, still that possibility exists in working for a big company. Frankly, we want to buy the kind of a house we can sell again in a hurry if we have to."

"I'll accept the assignment," I answered, and showed Mr. and Mrs. Sample our city. Then I selected a home in a nice neighborhood which I felt would appeal to them.

"You've solved our problem," said Mr. Sample, "I'm sure this home would appeal to another couple if we should have to leave town."

Tell us what you NEED in a home. Then we'll help you find the right property to meet your needs.

She Was Kindergarten Student in Tecumseh

A former Tecumseh girl, Phyllis LePon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur LePon of Wilmington, California, graduated in January from Phineas Banning high school in Los Angeles.

She was valedictorian and National Merit Scholarship finalist.

Mrs. LePon is the former Margaret Williamson.

Miss LePon attended the kindergarten class of Mrs. Bertram Updike with this year's group of Tecumseh high school graduates.

She is at present attending a junior college in Los Angeles and in the fall will enter Stanford University at Palo Alto, California where she has been awarded Honors at Entrance.

Given Book of Prayers

Graduating seniors of St. Peter's Episcopal Church were presented gift editions of the Book of Common Prayer at the June 1 family service Sunday.

They were Janet and Joyce Brollier, Jane Colgrove, Hilary Browne, Sandra Irelan, Lois Kiser and Peggy Newell.

The annual parish picnic was held in the Parish Hall following the morning service.

The summer schedule of service will be followed during the months of June, July and August.

Holy Communion will be celebrated at 8 a.m. in June and August (none during July) with the family service at 10 a.m.

The 1 1a.m. service with church school for all grades will be resumed in September.

A nursery class will be conducted by the ladies of the parish during the summer.

Circle 2 Meets at Nichols Home

Circle 2 of the Presbyterian Church met recently at the home of Mrs. George Nichols with 13 members present.

A discussion was held as to the program the group will provide for the Women's Association meeting to be held in September. It was decided to have a pot-luck dinner.

Mrs. Fred Dickinson had charge of the devotions and Mrs. John Quigley reviewed the book, "Sage Brush Surgeon" for the entertainment of the ladies.

Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Russell Southwell.

ULCW Officers Are Installed at Gloria Dei

Rev. Robert Bergman conducted the installation service for officers of the ULCW of Gloria Dei Church June 2.

Devotions were conducted by Mrs. William Rohweder.

During the meeting the constitution was read and adopted.

Permanent committee chairmen are:

Membership — Mrs. Elizabeth Wing.

Education — Mrs. Ed Mengerink.

Christian service—Mrs. James Tonneberger.

Offering — Mrs. Rohweder.

The program, "Thank Offerings," was presented by Mrs. Don Buell and a social time followed.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Stanley Rentschler, Mrs. Royce Durkee and Mrs. Thomas Kampmueller.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL

Mrs. Kenneth Hand was admitted May 15 to University Hospital, Ann Arbor, where she underwent further surgery, returned May 27 to her home on Ives road, Tecumseh, Mich.

VFW, Auxiliary Planning Party for Hospital

Plans were completed for a party at the Ypsilanti hospital June 17 by the members of the VFW Auxiliary when they met June 4 at the Post Home.

Mrs. George Downard will be chairman and members both of the Post and the Auxiliary who will attend may meet at the home at 6 p.m.

Mrs. Mamie Henson was accepted into the membership.

Mrs. Richard Eisenmenger, Americanism chairman, reported a total of 29 flags have been purchased for the Tipton, Ridgeway, Macon and Tecumseh Acres schools.

During the meeting it was decided that the Auxiliary will hold only one meeting per month during July and August. Also plans were made to purchase a hood and ventilating fan for the kitchen.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Roger Butler and her committee.

JUNIOR GARDENERS

The Junior Garden Club will meet Saturday morning at 10 at Stern's house. Members are to bring the report of the trees that were adopted as well as several leaves to be used in making leaf prints.

HOME FOR VACATION

Robert Francouer is home for a two-week vacation from the University of Michigan. He will leave June 21 to be a counselor at a boy's camp near Charlevoix.

HOLY COW!

We Thought We'd Heard and Seen Them All But Here's a New One . . .

One of these days soon your phone will ring or there'll come a knock at your door and some slick, silky voice will say, "Can you tell me the favorite color of Red China?" or "Who is Mamie's husband?" You give the right answer, of course, and the oily voice gets excited. "Madam, you have just won in our great nation-wide contest and you are entitled to three beautiful enlargements done by our famous photographer right from Hollywood. When can we photograph you?"

So You Are Photographed

And you bump into some guy you never saw before. He flashes his teeth (if he has any). You flash yours, and he snaps the picture.

But, That's Just the Start

You find that the "beyootiful enlargements" are just bait to get something bigger. So you order some additional portraits at two or three times what you could get them for from your home town photographer. After a long wait, they finally arrive. They may be good or they may be bad—but either way, this stranger has your money, and now he's a long ways away running his "quiz" game in some other city. There's no chance to make him accountable for his work.

Like Measles and Bunions and Falling Hair

The itinerant photographer is something that must be put up with, it seems.
Trade with him if you must, but remember that he is a stranger—more interested in his welfare than yours.

Tragedy at Wamplers

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Father of Six Drowns Saturday at Lake

What was to have been a pleasant Saturday evening at Wamplers Lake turned into stark tragedy for a Tecumseh family.

Dick Beemer, 32-year-old Consumers Power area manager, was drowned in a boating accident as his wife and some friends were preparing a steak roast on the shore.

Left fatherless by his death are six youngsters, from two to 11 in age.

The night started about 7:30 when six couples met at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schneider for an outdoor meal.

As the first batch of steaks were being grilled, Mr. Beemer and Ken Herrick, another guest, decided to take a brief spin in the Herrick 16-foot inboard boat.

Mr. Herrick was riding in the rear of the craft with Mr. Beemer at the controls when suddenly it swerved and both were apparently hurled into the lake.

The boat roared on eventually ending up on shore one-half mile away.

The two men were about 300 yards from land. Mr. Herrick was able to swim back and report the mishap.

Boats headed for the area, but couldn't locate Mr. Beemer.

☆

JACKSON COUNTY sheriff Fred Hammer was called and his office soon had its rescue boat and patrol craft in action.

Fourteen skin divers responded to the call for help, four State Policemen and 10 Jackson area men, who were summoned by the sheriff's office. The Lenawee county sheriff patrol boat also joined the rescue.

At first it was thought Mr. Beemer might have swam to another part of the shoreline.

By midnight, hope was given up that he had survived and the divers concentrated on an area where Mr. Herrick told rescuers the mishap took place.

Early Sunday, a 20-foot line was strung between the two sheriff patrol boats with 10 skin divers spaced out along it. The boats started across the area and within 15 minutes the body was recovered.

☆

Their children, Dennis, David, Ricky, Sharon, Cynthia and Susan, range in age from two to 11.

Other survivors are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Beemer, and two brothers, Everett and Robert, all of Grass Lake.

Consumer Power manager in Tecumseh for seven years, Mr. Beemer was a member of the First Methodist Church, Rotary and the Junior Chamber of Commerce. He was a naval veteran, having served with the Pacific fleet during World War II.

Services were held Wednesday afternoon from Green Funeral Home with Rev. James Nixon in charge. Burial was in Grass Lake cemetery.

A fund for the family of Richard Beemer has been started by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. Donations can be made at Ousterhout's Flower Shop.

Joseph Satterthwaite Honored

An honorary Doctor of Laws degree was presented to Joseph C. Satterthwaite at the University of Michigan's 114th commencement Saturday.

The Tecumseh man, who has served with the State Department for 33 years, was one of three persons to be so recognized.

Dr. Satterthwaite was born in Tecumseh March 4, 1900, graduated from the high school here in 1918, then went directly into the army.

He received his Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts degrees from the University of Michigan following military service.

In "Who's Who," Dr. Satterthwaite lists Tecumseh as his home town. He is now stationed in Washington as director general of the State Department.

The newest U. of M. degree cited him for his 33 years of service with that vital governmental body.

The citation says in part, "He has represented our Government in widely diverse activities, and in locations that range the globe. His capacity to adapt effectively to different peoples and conditions, often under the strains of war or postwar adjustment, has vitally assisted our diplomatic relations in an uneasy world."

Dr. Satterthwaite has been visiting in Tecumseh the past few days, and will return to his post Thursday afternoon.

Council Has Stormy Session

Before a packed chamber, Tecumseh's council approved one sewer and water installation and delayed another until residents could be notified of the cost.

Area to get city water and sewer is Shady Lane, between S. Occidental and Murray drive, and on Occidental from Shady Lane to Russell road.

Cal Zorn said work probably would start next fall.

Council action for residents living on Murray drive, Russell road and Orchard Lane for water and sewer facilities was delayed although petitions had been filed.

Council asked for new petitions since the others had been filed for nearly a year and residents did not know what their costs would be at that time.

The council room was jammed for the hearing and there was considerable misunderstanding. Council members told the people that they would put in sewer and water lines only if a majority of the people wanted them.

Some residents expressed the opinion that council was forcing additional costs upon them. City officials emphasized that they were not forcing anything on the people, but wanted to help if a majority of property owners sought new sewer and water lines.

☆

MALCOLM WARING of Waring and Johnson Planning Consultants, outlined a master plan for Tecumseh and answered questions of councilmen.

Curb and gutter on N. Maiden Lane between Shawnee and Bidwell streets were approved, and a curb and gutter assessment on N. Union from Evans Creek to Brown street also was approved.

THE Long & Short OF IT

SPORTING A BRAND-NEW playing field, Tecumseh's junior baseball teams got their season underway last week.

Mike Rotunno, burly ex-Michigan football lineman, is serving as commissioner of the circuit this summer.

Mike took time off from his official duties the past weekend to marry his sweetheart at the U. of M., but was expected back before too many contests were played without his presence.

The four-team league with each athlete completely uniformed, is a boon to the young men of the area.

Mike and Vic Lawson and others did a marvelous job in preparing the field. It's located north and east of the swimming pool in an ideal area for a diamond.

There'll be stands before long and you old-time baseball greats, now a few years beyond your prime, will enjoy just sitting and watching the boys do their stuff.

Some of the lads are pretty talented, too.

One of them is Bob Barth, who smacked out a home run in one of his first appearances as a member of the Products Union team and collected 3-for-3 in another tilt. Bob is labeled by Rotunno as one of the best hitters playing this year.

Watching stubby Murray Richardson pitch for the Union nine is a treat.

Against Hodges Drug he had two strikes on a potent-appearing batsman. On his next offering, he came in with a knuckler that would have brought joy to the heart of a high school coach. The batter swung lustily, about 10 minutes before the ball arrived.

Then there are sideline comments from some of the young fans which can't help but entertain.

Two lads strolled up to the field and one asked his buddie, "Who are you rootin' for?"

His pal noted the lettering on the shirts of the two teams and replied,

"Hodges, I guess, you get the best root beer in town there."

It's all free—the playing and the comments, that is—drop over and watch the youngsters. There are two games every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

Tuttle Veep Tells Kiwanis about Company

H. W. Tuttle, Jr., vice-president of the Tuttle Co., in Adrian, talked to Kiwanis June 11.

Mr. Tuttle, Jr., told of the history of Tuttle Co., and also some of its plans for the future.

He also gave an account of the firm's newly-patented "Adaptatherm" which is a process for manufacturing electric heaters and heating elements.

A specially insulated resistance wire is formed to give the desired heat distribution pattern and then made an integral part of a casting of a heat conducting material such as aluminum.

Because the resistance wire is "cast in," generated heat is transmitted directly and immediately to the surrounding metal.

Mr. Tuttle also stated that he hopes "Adaptatherm" will become a household word.

He concluded by saying that Tuttle Co. definitely was moving to Tecumseh and that it would probably be sometime in September.

Mrs. Fred Nash played the piano for the club and guests were Clarence Brown, lt.-governor for District 7; D. Ramsey of the East Jackson Kiwanis Club with his guest D. LaFond; Keith Kurtz of the A & P Store and Glenn Kohler and Richard Morse

MRS. A. TONNEBERGER

Grandmother Wins Master's from Michigan

Mrs. Albert Tonneberger of 212 E. Logan street received her Master's degree from the University of Michigan Saturday.

This seems quite an accomplishment for a lady with two adult sons and two grandchildren.

Mrs. Tonneberger has taught for 10 years in the Onsted school system and just this past year in Tipton.

In the fall she will be the teaching-principal at the Macon school, instructing first and second grades.

She received her Bachelor degree in 1953 from Eastern Michigan College in Ypsilanti.

Mr. and Mrs. Tonneberger have one son, James, who lives with his wife and two children, Jimmy and Carolyn, on Newberg road and another son, Jack who is the music director of the Augsburg Lutheran Church in Toledo.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cisco and son, Dan, of Hudson have moved to their home in Tecumseh at 307 S. Maiden Lane. Dan will enter Tecumseh high school this fall as a senior.

Millers Celebrate 25th Anniversary with Party Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Klanke will hold open house from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. at their home at 1301 Sauthwestern drive, Sunday.

The occasion is in honor of Mrs. Klanke's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Miller, who will be celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller's children who will be joining in the festivities are Mrs. Klanke, Mrs. Gordon Goldsberry of Tecumseh, Mrs. Ford Jersey and Kenneth Miller of Adrian, Charles Miller of Clinton and Merle Miller of Clayton, along with the Millers' 10 grandchildrern.

Mr. Miller was employed by the R.S. Moore Lumber Company until recently when he lost his sight. The Millers then spent some time in Florida, returning to Tecumseh a short time ago.

Officers to Meet

Officers and leaders of the Hi-Steppers 4-H Club attended the meeting Thursday evening held in the Project building at the Fairgrounds.

The meeting concerned training in the duties and responsibilities as officers of the local club.

Those attending were Raymond, Nelson and Gloria Sweet, Frank Creger, Diane and Sharon Mitzner, Carolyn Woods, Mrs. Russell Mitzner and Mr. and Mrs. Raynor Sweet.

Raisin Cookies Plan to Market Garden Produce

Members of the Raisin Cookies 4-H Club voted to sell some of the produce from their gardens to raise money for the club at Monday's meeting.

A paper drive was also discussed.

The annual club tour and potluck dinner will be held Sunday, June 29, with members meeting at the clubhouse at 1 p.m. Dinner will be served at the home of Ann Schroder following the tour.

A demonstration on "Mounting a Wild Flower" was given by Sharlene Hoffmeister and a vegetable quiz by Mrs. Hoffmeister.

Games were enjoyed under the leadership of Cheryl Simmons and Virginia McCarley. Refreshments were served by Ann Schroeder.

The next meeting will be held July 2 at 7:30 p.m. at the Club House.

Spencer Is Chairman of County Campaign

Harry L. Spencer, executive vice-president of Tecumseh Products, has been named general chairman for the Lenawee County United Fund Campaign this fall, announced Howard White, president of the County Fund.

"It will be his responsibility to plan and develop the United Fund campaigns in most of the industries in Lenawee County," states Mr. White. "To assist him, he shall later appoint vice chairmen to head the industrial divisions in Adrian, Tecumseh, Hudson, Deerfield, Addison and other areas of the county."

"Labor Participation plays a major role in United Fund campaigns," White reported, "and Mr. Spencer is now in the process of obtaining three labor representatives to serve as co-chairmen to him from the AFL, CIO Union Council and Independent Labor Unions. These men shall appoint labor co-chairmen in all campaign divisions and sections as needed."

☆

MR. SPENCER'S responsibilities will also include the promotion and coordination of the Adrian, Tecumseh, Deerfield and Hudson Community Fund campaigns in so far as campaign dates, publicity and solicitor training are concerned.

Mr. Spencer has had long experience in community fund affairs as he was a member of the Muskegon, Michigan Community Fund board of directors while employed there as Plant Manager of the Norge Division, Borg-Warner Corporation.

He is on the board of directors of Tecumseh Products, Tecumseh city planning commission and a member of the board of sessions of the First Presbyterian Church in Tecumseh.

He and his wife reside at 713 Red Mill Drive.

Catholic Parish Opens for Public

Open house will be held at St. Elizabeth's Parish Sunday, June 22, from 1 to 4 p.m.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Friends may tour the new rectory, completed last fall. The church, school and convent will also be open for inspection.

Rev. Father Thomas Collins has announced that two more class rooms will be added to St. Elizabeth's school this summer to help handle increased enrollment.

Jaycee Carnival Will Open Tuesday Night

The annual Tecumseh Jaycee homecoming will be celebrated next week with a carnival on Russell road.

The carnival will be open Tuesday through Saturday with plenty of rides, amusements and refreshments promised.

Terry Mackin is chairman and Dwight Helms, vice chairman.

All Jaycees will participate in the project of which the purpose is to raise money for youth activities and civic benefits.

MEMBERS assisting the chairmen are Jack Shutt, Jack Oburn, Del King, Bill Pace, Don Brazee, Pete Dermeyer, Dick Kahle, Bob Wallace, Carson House, Cal Zorn, Merlyn Downing and Dr. Robert Murray.

Wade Shows of Detroit will put up their rides and equipment next Tuesday. The Midway will open at 6 p.m. each day except Saturday when the hours will run from noon to midnight.

Two bicycles and two radios will be given away, one each on Friday and Saturday nights.

Four Chosen for Girls State

Four Tecumseh young ladies will attend Girls State at the University of Michigan June 17 to 26.

Mary Lou McConnell and Joanne Wing, sponsored by Tecumseh American Legion Auxiliary.

Marilyn Helzerman, sponsored by Tecumseh Business and Professional Women.

...Johanna Young, sponsored by the United Products Workers Union.

Girls' State is a national program of the American Legion Auxiliary. In these days of stress and unrest, Girls' State brings to the girls of today a knowledge of the fundamental principles of American government through actual practice.

☆

WOLVERINE GIRLS' STATE is limited to any girl in the junior or third year in senior high school.

Three-hundred-sixty girls have been selected in Michigan to attend. At the conclusion of Girls' State, two girls will be chosen from the 360 to attend "Girls Nation" in Washington, D.C., where they will see the United States Government in operation.

Selection to attend Girls' State is a high honor.

The girl chosen is a potential leader, honest, industrious and has a high sense of duty. Her physical condition should be such that she can actively participate in the athletic and fast-moving program.

It is the hope of the American Legion Auxiliary that Girls' State will inspire and develop an interest in the study of our government, foster civic leadership and stimulate a desire to protect the privileges and responsibilities of our democratic form of government.

You Told Us

BY DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

The news that the city manager Ed Nelson arrived home from Herrick Memorial Hospital Sunday is most welcome to Tecumseh residents this week.

No doubt, the presence of his little granddaughter, Sara Ann, added much to his home coming. She and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nelson of Toledo, spent the weekend at the Nelson home on Park street.

√

Tuesday Charles Howe entered the Hospital suffering from a blood clot in his leg. His condition is improving.

√

Madge Lewis of Britton was preparing to entertain the Petite Salon No. 127 of the 8 and 40 last Monday evening when she was taken ill. A doctor was called and then an ambulance to take her to Herrick Memorial Hospital where she was entered as a medical patient. Her condition is gradually improving.

√

Mrs. Lillian Hoagland and Mrs. Lula McConnell returned Wednesday from a 10-day tour of Washington, D.C.

√

Mr. and Mrs. John Surratt and family entertained Mr. and Mrs. Orville Bishop and family and Ramone Caro of the Dominican Republic for dinner on Sunday.

√

Mr. and Mrs. John Surratt accompanied her mother, Mrs. Ida Small to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jonas Smiley, near Indianapolis where she will make an extended visit.

√

Mrs. William Snook was in Tecumseh Friday on business.

√

Mrs. Roger Butler entertained her niece, Kathy Nichols, from Toledo for two days last week.

√

Charles Schoenholtz of Tecumseh and daughter, Alice, from Detroit, left June 9 from Willow Run Airport for St. Petersburg, Florida, to spend a two-week vacation.

√

Mr. and Mrs. James Lincoln and daughter, Kay, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lincoln of Woodstock, Ohio.

√

Mrs. Thomas Riordan and daughter, Carol, attended a shower honoring Mrs. Riordan's future sister-in-law held at the home of her mother, Mrs. C. J. Eberhardt, in Detroit over the weekend.

Mr. Riordan and son, Bernard, were guests of the former's brother in Birmingham.

√

Callers in the home of Mrs. Vira Bancroft Saturday were Rev. and Mrs. Charles Bancroft and family of Barberton, Ohio.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Jerrold Barron graduated from the University of Michigan Saturday. She won her degree from the School of Nursing and he from the School of Business Administration.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Barron attended the exercises from Tecumseh and the former Mrs. Barron's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Day Harsh and two sons of Hart, Michigan also attended. All were weekend guests at the Keith Barron home here.

^

Charles Schoenholtz of Tecumseh and daughter, Alice, from Detroit, left June 9 from Willow Run Airport for St. Petersburg, Florida, to spend a two-week vacation.

√

Mills Swick is a patient at St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor for X-ray and observation.

√

Robert Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bailey, returned Friday to Gaylord, Michigan after spending one-week vacation with his parents. Thursday evening all were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Royce Beal in Ann Arbor. They enjoyed an outdoor dinner cooked over the grill.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Butler celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary Monday.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Childers of Fort Lauderdale, Florida are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Finch. Mrs. Childers will go to Bedford, Pennsylvania to attend the Kappa Kappa Gamma convention and Mr. Childers will visit some friends in northern Michigan and then return here to continue their visit before going back to Florida.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Smith of Lodi, New York spent the weekend here recently with friends and relatives, coming for the wedding of Sally Morgan which was held June 7 at the Episcopal Church in Plymouth.

Sally is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Morgan, former residents of Tecumseh. Others attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. John DeFoe and children of Nashville, Tennessee and Mrs. Earl Lindsley.

√

The DeFoe children, Kerry and Susan, are remaining in Tecumseh with their grandmother, Mrs. Lindsley for an extended visit. They will also spend some time in Clinton with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Harrison.

√

Mr. and Mrs. John Stephens recently spent a week in the Upper Peninsula at Curtis, Michigan fishing and relaxing. They pulled in trout and Rock fish, went over "the bridge" and visited friends in Charlevoix. Sunday they were guests in the home of their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stephens of Toledo.

William R. Montgomery, who makes his home with the Stephens, spent the time with his daughters in Dearborn and Monroe.

√

Ernie Beimer, Linotype operator at The Herald, spent last weekend at his home at Ludington, Michigan and made a trip across the new bridge at the Straits. He and Mrs. Beimer brought their son home from school at Houghton.

Attends Convention

Steve Walsh, pharmacist at Hodge's Drug Store, attended the Michigan State Pharmaceutical Convention at Mackinac Island, June 9-10-11.

He was the delegate from the Lenawee and Hillsdale County Association.

Hall-Bortel Wedding Held Saturday Evening

MRS. KENNETH BORTEL

Altar of the Tecumseh Methodist Church was flanked with lighted candelabra for the wedding of Sandra K. Hall and Kenneth A. Bortel Saturday evening.

The altar vases were filled with white peonies and white carnations and hampers of pink and white peonies were used in the chancel with green palms.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Hall of 312 W. Shawnee street and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Bortel of rural Britton.

Rev. James D. Nixon, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony before 400 guests.

Carol Musser of Farmer, Ohio sang, "Because" and Wallace Whiting sang, "The Lords Prayer."

☆

THE BRIDE, given in marriage by her father, was radiant in a white wedding gown of Italian silk taffeta and chantilly lace. Lace scallops outlined the portrait neckline and formed the brief sleeves.

The full floor length circular skirt had a redingote back, opening over chantilly lace that swept into a chapel train.

Her lace cap held the double finger-tip veil in place. She wore white gloves and a white gold locket at her throat, the gift of the groom.

She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid with a purple lip enhanced with lily of the valley.

THE ATTENDANTS were Rita Crosby, maid of honor; Jackie Dunn, junior bridesmaid; Shirley Bortel and Janet Martin, bridesmaids and Trudy Curtis, flower girl.

Miss Crosby wore a gown of lavendar chiffon over taffeta and carried an arrangement of coral carnations.

The other attendants wore orchid chiffon over taffeta and carried orchid tinted carnations.

All the gowns were fashioned with rounded necklines with skirts of unpressed pleats in ballerina length. They also wore tiny pleated, half hats.

☆

RICHARD BRUCE was best man and Gary Hall, Roger Bortel, Marvin Stautler and Larry Patterson seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hall wore a linen sheath of lime green with white accessories and a corsage of white roses.

Mrs. Bortel wore a gown of light blue lace with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Peonies were used in profusion throughout the Methodist Church social rooms for the reception.

Charles Sager, uncle of the bride, decorated the four-tiered wedding cake, which was encircled by pink peonies and daisies and flanked by crystal candelabra holding pink candles.

☆

FOR THEIR wedding trip south for one week, the bride wore a light green chemise with white accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet. When they return they will reside on Shaw Highway near Britton

The bride is a graduate of Tecumseh high school, 1957, and attended Stautzenberger Secretarial School in Toledo. She is employed by the Clinton Engines Corporation in Clinton.

The groom is a graduate of Britton-Macon high school, 1956, and attended Michigan State University.

Among the guests from out-of-town were the bride's great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Ely from Montpelier, Ohio.

The rehearsal dinner was held Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Bortel on Milwaukee road near Britton.

Coreen Honored at Shower Thursday

A miscellaneous shower was held Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Iva Marsh to honor the approaching marriage of Coreen Marsh and Avery Pool.

About 16 guests enjoyed games. Prizes were awarded to the bride elect.

Mrs. Fred Aebersold from Detroit was among the guests.

Mrs. Marsh was assisted by Mrs. James S. Hartsell and Mrs. E. J. Francouer.

The wedding will take place June 28 at the Tecumseh Friends Church.

Audrey LaPearl Exchanges Vows with Chuck Rose

Audrey LaPearl of Clinton and Charles William Rose of Tecumseh were married Saturday at the Grace Lutheran Church in Tecumseh by Rev. A. Jeschke.

The double-ring ceremony was performed before an altar arranged with vases of white peonies and flanked on either side with candelabra holding white candles.

The bride chose a gown in ballerina length of white nylon lace over satin. She wore a finger-tip veil which was held in place by a crown of lace worn high on the head and carried a white lace-covered Bible topped with a shower effect of white butterfly roses and white carnations.

Mrs. Thomas Mutter, sister of the groom, was the matron of honor and the bride's only attendant. Mr. Mutter was best man.

A reception was held at the Smith-Kimball Community Center in Clinton with Mrs. Duane Walters of Detroit as hostess.

Following a short wedding trip into Ohio the couple will make their home near Tipton.

The bride is a graduate of Clinton high school this year and the groom attended Adrian high school and spent four years serving in the United States Navy.

Hi-Steppers Invite Others to Gathering

The County Hi-Steppers 4-H Club wishes to extend an invitation to all other clubs to attend the June 28 meeting at the Hoyt E. Whelan Implement Company on W. Logan street at 8 p.m.

Films on livestock and 4-H Club work will be shown.

At a recent meeting held at the Sweet home the group decided to have a paper drive to earn extra money for the treasury. Anyone having paper they wish to donate to the club may phone 7140-J for pick up.

The project tour will be held June 22 beginning at 3 p.m. at the home of Carolyn and David Woods and will end at the home of Sharon and Diane Mitzner where a potluck supper will be served. Members are to bring their own table service, hot dogs, rolls and a dish to pass.

All the officers attended the training meeting and enjoyed the share the fun program, weiner roast, square and circle dancing.

ATTEND CONVENTION

Mrs. John Pobuda, Mrs. J. Babcock and Mrs. Richard Conk attended the Michigan State Association of Hospital Auxiliaries annual meeting Tuesday in East Lansing.

Funeral Held Monday for Anna B. McClure

Funeral services were held Monday at the Collins-Corkery Home for Mrs. Richard T. Mead who passed away Friday evening in her home at 103 S. Democrat street as the result of a heart attack. She was 75 years of age.

Anna B. McClure was born September 19, 1883, in Tecumseh, the daughter of Samuel and Ann McClure. She graduated from the Tecumseh high school, Class of 1899, and in 1903 married Mr. Mead. During her lifetime, Mrs. Mead was active in Tecumseh musical life.

Surviving with her husband are a son, Thomas M. Mead; a grand-daughter, Sandra; and a grand-son, Thomas Jr., all of Manhasset, Long Island; a sister, Mrs. La Monte Bangs of Tecumseh; and several cousins. Besides her parents, she was preceded in death by four brothers.

The bearers were C. F. Sage, Joseph Satterthwaite, Perry Satterthwaite, Ned Baldwin, Ralph Comfort and Russell Carey. Burial was in Brookside cemetery.

Community in Mourning

A community is in mourning.

The heart-felt sympathy of folks here goes out to Sheila Beemer and her six youngsters.

Gone is huband and father, Dick Beemer, a cheerful 32-year-old Tecumsehite who for the past seven years had been area manager for Consumers Power.

Dick was the victim of a boating accident Saturday and as news of it reached his hometown, friends and neighbors reacted alike. They were thunderstruck.

The community has lost an excellent citizen, a man devoted to making it a better place in which to live.

Dick was an active Rotarian and Jaycee. Just three weeks ago he lent his assistance to the annual Safety-Check and his presence helped make it a success.

We'll miss Dick Beemer.

Action . . . and Now

Notes for an editorial on the new hospital addition have been batted back and forth across the top of our desk since the dedication and it's high time we paid them some heed.

Attending that informal dedication gave us a feeling of warmth and pride.

The thought that rang crystal clear through our mind was, "Tecumseh is indeed fortunate to have such fine medical facilities."

This same bit of thinking must hit patients as they convalesce in this institution.

For many years now, citizens have pretty much taken the hospital for granted. It's there when they or members of the family need it.

But, there was a time, some years ago, that Tecumseh had no hospital and there were people who contended it didn't need one.

One man, a leading figure in the community, was violently opposed to the idea.

Despite his opposition, the hospital was built—and lucky for him. Not long after the doors were opened, he was stricken with a sudden and violent illness.

Only immediate hospitalization could save his life. He was rushed to Herrick Memorial and thanks to facilities there, he lived. Needless to say, the gentleman changed his mind in a hurry and became a great booster of our hospital.

The late Dr. H. H. Hammel and Ray Herrick formed a construction committee, which included Guy Belding, H. H. Hanna, Perry Satterthwaite, Chuck Butler and the late Karl M. Schneider, to start the hospital idea ball rolling.

They met weekly for six months as the initial plans were worked out.

Their efforts and those of other citizens who assisted with time and donation have paid handsome dividends for this community.

Handsome Dividends

If you have been reading the downtown parking report from week to week, you probably have a pretty good idea of problems here and what can be done.

The final installment of the series appears in this issue and from it we'd like to quote several vital points.

The surveyers, Gibson and Kileen, who are specialists at parking problems, made this observation:

"The parking problem in Tecumseh is not extremely critical at this time."

Then added, however:

"Failure to act now (in working out long-range plans) can not only cause a loss of business and a reduction in commercial property values, but may also require considerably greater expenditures for relief in the future."

Folks tend to put off doing things that may not seem entirely necessary at the moment. That's human nature. That reaction could be fatal in the current parking situation, we believe.

But, we must face up to the facts—if something isn't done now, the project could conceivably be too much for us in a year or two.

A&P and Kroger, two of the downtown area's biggest drawing cards, are moving to new locations far removed from the central shopping center. The main reason in both cases: lack of parking.

This alone should make us think seriously about what has to be done to keep shoppers coming to our downtown area on a regular basis.

Another thought brought forward by Gibson and Kileen was that merchants should think in terms of sprucing up rear entrances of their stores, looking forward to the day when most of their customers will find parking in off-street lots.

This, too, is worth careful consideration in the days of the stream-lined shopping centers, which draws trade by, among other things, sharp appearance.

9 Going to Boys State

Nine Tecumseh boys will leave on June 19 in the famed 40 and 8 box car to attend Boys State.

Boys State is sponsored by the American Legion, and will be at the Michigan State University campus June 19 through 26.

The Tecumseh young men are Gary Elliott, Gary Abner, David Champanois, John Dewey, Charles Hartsell, Taylor Harvey, David Holden, Gregg Mason and Mike Walters.

They are sponsored by the American Legion, Exchange Club, Tecumseh Products Company, Fraternal Order of Eagles, United Products Workers Union, Junior Chamber of Commerce, Ottawa Machine Company, Kiwanis Club and Rotary Club.

Upon their return the boys will give a report to their respective sponsoring organizations covering their activities while at East Lansing.

Vern Manwaring, Past Commander of the Underwood-Orr Post 34 American Legion, is the 1958 Boys' State chairman for Tecumseh assisted by Grenval Spangler.

Union Softball Team Continues in First

STANDINGS
MEN'S SOFTBALL
(Through June 16)

	Won	Lost
Products Union	7	1
John and Bill's	4	2
Clinton	3	4
Britton	2	4
Macon	1	6

Tecumseh Products Union continues to pace the City Softball League, posting three more wins.

Biggest was a 3 to 1 decision over the last period of action, over second-place John & Bill's with Carl Poling the winning hurler. He fanned seven as did his mound opponent, Hayden Mullins.

Max Gilpin of John & Bill's was the hitting star, netting 2-for 3.

In stopping Macon, 9 to 6, the Union nine got its big offensive punch from Junior Myers and Larry Stephans, who each nailed two base blows.

Macon's Paul Dunnham and Bob Kennedy had two apiece.

In the Union's third victory, Britton was the victim, 3 to 0.

The winners mustered but three hits, however got them when they counted. Jim Smith of Britton came through with both of his club's safe knocks.

☆

JOHN & BILL'S stopped Macon, 8 to 3, with Wayne Thorpe setting down five via the strike out route.

Cliff Deaner and Bob Roost, each with 2-for-4, led the winner's 10-blow attack.

Jack Kelly of Macon had two hits.

In a real slugfest, Macon snowed Clinton, 13 to 11, with Dean Collins the winning hurler.

Paul Dunnham cracked out 4-for-5 and John Kelly had 3-for-5 for Macon.

Clinton's Joe Lamansky contributed 2-for-3 and Bob Sonerant drilled a homer with the bases loaded.

Clinton stopped Britton, 10 to 0, as Bryan Pilbean fanned eight and collected two hits, including a four-bagger. Don Geiger also had a pair.

O'Neill's Double Break up Game

Bob O'Neill doubled with the bases loaded to give Tecumseh's Junior Legion team a 6 to 5 win over Morenci Sunday in a league contest.

Dennis Harrison and Tom Judkins pitched for Tecumseh, Judkins being the winner.

Both O'Neill and Jerry McCrate had two hits.

The line score:

	R	H	E
MORENCI	002 210 0	5	7 3
TECUMSEH	120 100 2	6	9 2

In a practice contest Saturday, Ypsilanti defeated Tecumseh for its first loss of the season, 8 to 2.

Bob Wilkins, although striking out six and giving up but two hits, was the loser. O'Neill relieved him.

Lynn Frost had two safe blows for Tecumseh.

The line score:

	R	H	E
YPSILANTI	203 300 0	8	6 2
TECUMSEH	000 002 0	2	8 2

DT&I Railroad Is Moving Out

Railroad freight service to Tecumseh by the Detroit, Toledo & Irontown will be all but ended July 1.

From that date, only full cars will be handled. Last month, only 12 were brought into Tecumseh by the DT&I.

The line informed New York Central, which has rented DT&I space in its Tecumseh office, that it would no longer operate out of this city.

Tipton Woman Dies Wednesday in Hospital

Funeral services were held at the Tipton Community Church Saturday for Mrs. Fanny Jeanette Jackson who passed away Wednesday evening at the Herrick Memorial Hospital.

She had been a patient there since May 31, was 69-years-old.

Mrs. Jackson was born Jan. 29, 1889, at Fremont, Ohio, the daughter of Thomas and Lillian Cooley Tuckerman. She was married to Rickard Jackson of Port Clinton, Ohio, Feb. 24, 1908, and moved to Tipton in 1920.

She was a member of Grace Lutheran church at Fremont, the Tipton Community church for 30 years, the Ladies Aid, Tipton Grange, the state and national granges, the Tipton Garden Club and Pomona Grange.

☆

MR. JACKSON died in 1951. She is survived by three sons, Wayne L. and Raymond R. Jackson of Tipton and Clifford H. Jackson of Blissfield; three daughters, Lillian E. Whelan and Helen C. Allen, both of Tipton, and Juanita J. Becker of Tecumseh; one brother, Ray Tuckerman of Cement City; four sisters, Mrs. Catherine Behnken of Fremont, Ohio, Mrs. Myrtle Hudson of Brooklyn, Mrs. Helen Davis of Detroit and Mrs. Leona Myers of Birdsall, and 12 grandchildren.

Rev. David Holly, pastor of the church, officiated and burial was in the Tipton cemetery with members of the Tipton Grange participating in the service at the grave.

The Collins-Corkery Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

Meads Celebrate 35th

One-hundred friends and relatives attended the open house June 8 at the IOOF Hall honoring the 35th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Mead.

A three-tiered anniversary cake topped with double rings, white doves and blue and coral roses centered the serving table. It was flanked by silver candle holders filled with white candles.

The cake was served by Mrs. Orlie Swift and Mrs. Melton Royal.

Mrs. Carl Fish and Mrs. Don Janes served coffee and punch, assisted by Mrs. Ardis Shiels and Mrs. Marietta Dick, Jr.

Others who helped were Delores Bush and Mrs. Nina Evans of Gobles.

Marie Phillips had charge of the guest book and Mrs. Marie Gall, the gift table.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Clark of Rockford, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mead of Detroit, Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Steele and daughter, Bessie of Royal Oak, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Royal of Milan.

Others were Mr. and Mrs. Don Janes of Holt, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fish of Onsted, Mr. and Mrs. Orlie Swift of Adrian.

Tipton, Britton, Brooklyn and Clinton were also represented.

Services Thursday for Mrs. Scovel

Services will be held Thursday at 1 p.m. at the Collins-Corkery Funeral Home for Mrs. Henry Scovel of 214 E. Kilbuck street.

She passed away Monday morning in the Parrett Nursing Home.

Born October 14, 1876, she was the daughter of James D. and Nancy Ligett Ward and was 82-years-old at the time of her death.

Surviving are one brother, John R. Ward of Adrian and one sister, Mrs. James Ward Wray of Tecumseh. She was preceded in death by her husband in December 1940.

Burial will be in the Michigan Memorial cemetery at Flat Rock.

Topics of Tipton

By MRS. FAYE LUCE
Phone 15

The hour of services during July and August have been changed by the board of the Tipton Community church. Sunday school will be at 9:30 a.m. and the worship services at 10:30.

√

Rev. Ralph Henard, pastor of the Tipton Community Church from 1939 until 1942 when he graduated from Adrian College, has accepted a call to the Methodist Church in Columbus, Ohio. He moved there with his family June 1.

Until his move to Ohio, Rev. Henard had been pastor of the Washington Park Methodist Church at Providence, Rhode Island.

He had been selected to spend two months in Japan this summer as a Christian missionary, but gave up the opportunity to accept the Columbus call.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stockinger and daughter attended a family dinner celebrating two birthdays and Father's Day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Buss in Chelsea on Sunday. Twenty-one guests were present.

√

Tom Bristol from St. Petersburg, Florida, is a guest for the summer of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Munger and family.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kohler were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Willnow in Adrian on Sunday.

√

Robert Barrett returned to his home on Sunday from Herrick Memorial Hospital.

√

Mr. and Mrs. McKinley Spalding were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Spalding and family in Toledo on Sunday. Additional dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Boyce.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Ireno Busato and daughter, Linda, spent Monday in Detroit.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Daniels, Mrs. Lida Spalding and Arthur Daniels attended the Daniels Reunion at Coldwater Sunday.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Cook and Curtis spent Sunday with her father, Earl Colbath at Walworth.

√

Tipton Grance will meet Friday night following a potluck supper at 7:30.

The supper committee will be Mr. and Mrs. Harold Every, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bale and Mrs. Iva Dowling. Members will please bring table service, buttered rolls, a dish to pass and pie.

At the last meeting, memorial services were conducted by the chaplain, Mrs. Marguerite Luce, assisted by Mrs. Wallace Wilkin, Mrs. Richard Platt and Mrs. Willis Davenport.

A solo by Mrs. Richard Carter, accompanied by Mrs. Clifford Hardy, concluded the program. It was voted to serve lunches at the County Fair in Adrian this fall.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Swarts attended the postmasters convention held at Mackinac Island June 11 to 18.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hardy received word Thursday of the death of his cousin, Lester Treat in Flint, and attended his funeral on Saturday. They were guests Saturday night and Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Goudy in Capac.

√

Jean Conlin spent the weekend at Ft. Knox, Kentucky.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Baker attended the graduation exercises at Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo Saturday. Their son, Bruce, was a member of the class.

He has accepted a position as teacher in Portage high school beginning next September.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Evans and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Evans and family attended the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Patterson held in Britton at the Christian Church Sunday.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Munger and family had as dinner guests on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Krall and daughter Martha of Brooklyn.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Clem LaFerriere and family accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Ida LaFerriere, and his sister, Mrs. Florence Dickinson of Vermont, spent a few days in Northern Michigan recently.

√

Arthur Daniel has returned to his home after spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Daniels and family in Flat Rock.

√

The annual Franklin Garden Club Flower Show was held at the home of Mrs. Dale Cook June 10 instead of in the Demming home, as previously announced, because of illness.

Twenty members and five guests were present, including two past presidents. Beautiful floral arrangements were used to decorate the home.

Mrs. McKinley Spalding was awarded first prize with her buffet arrangement of purple Iris and Lemon Lilies. Mrs. Grover Swarts and Mrs. Robert Roe tied for second place.

During the program a memorial service was presented by Mrs. Howard Mattis and Mrs. Dale Cook for five deceased members, Mr. Harry Fee, Dr., Wild, Mrs. John Ruesink, Mrs. Cloe Van Valkenburg and Frank Baldwin. As each name was read a rose was placed in a vase in their memory.

Mrs. Walter Bale gave a reading, a solo "In the Garden" by Ruth Ann Krout and the history of the club by Mrs. Howard Mattis, concluded the program.

For roll call each member related an incident or an outstanding memory of a Garden Club meeting.

Mrs. Dwight Service and Mrs. Kenneth Ernst were accepted as new members at this time.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Grover Swarts, Mrs. Glenn Kemp, Mrs. Richard Platt and Mrs. Robert Roe. Mrs. Alden Erlingbush, who was the first president of the club, was asked to pour.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Dowling were guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Sawdey Grant in Jerome. They also visited their former friends and neighbors in that vicinity.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Driffill, Mrs. Wayne McKnight and daughter, Roberta, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Grizzell at their farm in Osseo on Sunday.

√

Tecumseh Pythian Sisters united with Tipton Sisters as cohostesses for the Grand Chief Laura Coombs of Marquette on Wednesday evening in the K of P Hall, which was beautifully decorated with several large baskets of peonies.

Among the guests present were:

District Deputy—Gladys Wanty of Milan.

Grand Guard—Alice Kochendorfer of Allen.

Past Grand Chiefs—Dora Sutton of Morence and Maude Steidel of Milan.

Other guests were Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Thelma Kennedy of Ann Arbor, Mrs. Mae Fulcher, Mrs. Eva Clark and Mrs. Fern Nace of Milan, Mrs. Alberta Todd of Allen, Mrs. Mary Van Valkenburg and Mrs. Vivian Young of Morence.

This pair, along with Cole Smith (93 and 88) and Steve Forgacs (92 and 80), who finished third and fourth, will represent Tecumseh at the Jaycee state meet July 7, 8 and 9, at Barton Hills in Ann Arbor.

Popsickle Party Brings Donations for Recovery Room

A Popsickle party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kitson Thursday, honoring the seventh birthday anniversary of their son, David.

Birthday invitations were in the form of colored Popsickles and as they arrived the children were given hats also made in Popsickle form.

This is the second year Mrs. Kitson has entertained about 32 children in that block at this kind of a party, but this year they were invited to bring pennies in place of gifts.

The pennies — totaling $5.06 — will be donated to the fund for the new recovery room at the hospital.

Boss Family Car Demolished When in Wreck on Trip

Misfortune overtook the Merton Boss family of 408 S. Ottawa street as they were enroute to visit friends in Oregon.

They left the city June 7 and were involved in an automobile accident that completely demolished their car on June 12.

Mrs. Howard Wilson, Jr. gave the report to The Herald Tuesday morning from a letter her husband received from Guy Boss, a Scout in Troop 73.

Guy, 12-years-old, received a broken arm and multiple bruises. Mr. and Mrs. Boss and Merton, Jr. also received bruises and cuts.

Because the two boys are known bleeders they expect to remain at Cheyenne Memorial Hospital for 10 days before continuing their trip.

The demolished car has been replaced.

JOHN CAMERON . . . with his award.

John Cameron Wins Rexall Drug Award

John C. Cameron, owner of Cameron Drug Co. in Tecumseh, is one of a selected group of Rexall druggists to receive the new Mortar and Prestle Trophy, presented by the company as an annual award to outstanding member druggists.

The award is an authentic replica of a mortar and pestle dating back to Spain in the 15th century.

It was presented recently by Rexall representative R. A. Forsberg.

The historical mortar and pestle, still an important implement in the druggist's profession, is an ancient symbol of pharmacy. Its use for pulverizing medicinal herbs is recorded in the histories of ancient Egyptians, Hebrews of Biblical times and the Roman era.

☆

THE TROPHY award carries the face of Medusa, Queen of the Gorgons, on all four quarters. Tales of Medusa abound in Greek mythology, the most famous being the story of Perseus who cut off her head.

The myth was that anyone who looked on her face would be turned to stone. Since Perseus had become immune to this power, he held her head aloft in battle and vanquished the enemy.

Partly because of this myth and other allusions to serpents in literature, they have become a symbol to ward off evil. Hence, they are used in the staff of Aesculapius, the symbol of the medical profession, and in the well known Caduceus.

Antique mortars and pestles with distinctive characteristics are widely sought by collectors, often bringing as much as $1,500 and more for an unusual specimen.

The Rexall replica of this prized antique is mounted on a black walnut pedestal with a plaque inscribed with Mr. Cameron's store name.

Guild Picnic Held at Farver Home

Twenty-two members attended the St. Peter's Guild picnic held Thursday at the summer home of Mrs. O. W. Farver.

Mrs. Paul Ammer presided at the meeting and the worship was conducted by Mrs. Arch Wray.

A Guild breakfast will be held at the home of Mrs. M. W. Wilson July 17 at 9:30 a.m.

The next regular meeting will be a luncheon held September 11 with Mrs. LaVern Russell and Mrs. Arch Wray as hostesses.

Reunion Being Held June 22 in Ypsilanti

Annual reunion of the decendants of Abraham Valentine and Margaret Neafie Hunt will be held June 22 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hunt, 407 Ainsworth Circle, Ypsilanti.

A cooperative dinner will be served at 1:30 with beverage furnished. All relatives are invited and should bring their own table service.

Mrs. Kelso Winner of Golf Tourney

Thirty-five women played in the blind-hole tournament at the Tecumseh Country Club Wednesday.

The winners for this event were Mrs. Harold Kelso and Mrs. Willis Porter.

Next Wednesday a best ball threesome tournament will be played. The chairman will be Mildred Butler, assisted by Jerry Haight and Laura Bishop.

Ohio Driver Seeks Address of Local Lad

Postmaster Jack Metcalf received an interesting piece of mail from a Delta, Ohio man who seeks the address of a Tecumseh lad.

The young man, while hitching a ride, left a small radio and the Ohioan would like to return it.

Here's the letter:

Dear Sir:

Last evening I gave a Tecumseh boy a ride for a few miles over here in Ohio. This boy is in the Air Force. When he got out he left behind a small radio.

I would like to send him his radio if I can get in touch with him or his family.

I realize I have very little information about him, but I will give you what I have.

He is from a large family. He has 5 brothers and sisters at home. One brother is with the Army in Germany. I think it's spelled Bohnheim. He also has two sisters who are married and one brother who lives in Ohio. I think perhaps they are from the South.

If you can give me his name or his families or tell them to get in touch with me. I will send them the radio. My address is Route One, Delta, Ohio.

Yours Trulty,

Parking Survey

(Editor's note: This is the final portion of the Tecumseh parking survey, recently conducted by the Detroit consulting firm of Gibson and Kileen.)

SUMMARY

The parking problem in the business district of Tecumseh has not reached critical proportions yet.

It does approach the critical stage on some occasions, but generally it can only be classed as irritating or annoying at present.

It will become serious and critical unless steps are taken to relieve present shortages and to plan for future needs. Listed below are specific recommendations for immediate action and some proposals for a long range program.

IMMEDIATE PROGRAM

1. Revise current curb parking time limits.

2. Pave and light the city parking in Block 1 (Pearl, Logan, Chicago and Evans) and rearrange entrances, exits, aisles and stalls to insure maximum utilization of this valuable space.

3. Pave and light the city parking lot in Block 4 (Chicago, Evans, Pottawatamie and Ottawa). If this lot is improved and if merchants in Block 3 (Logan, Evans, Ottawa and Chicago) help to advertise its location it should provide some relief for the current shortage in that block.

4. Provide lighted pedestrian arcades in Blocks 1 and 2 (Pearl, Chicago, Pottawatamie and Evans) from the parking lots to Chicago to emphasize the proximity of these lots to commercial frontage on Chicago.

5. Install adequate signing on Chicago to direct shoppers to lots in Blocks 1, 2 and 4.

6. Encourage merchants to improve and beautify rear entrances to all commercial establishments so that parking lots will actually be "just outside the door" of any store.

7. Widen, pave and light alleys behind Chicago frontage to permit off-street deliveries and for improved access to stores.

8. Start proceedings to acquire title to land in Block 2 currently held by the Federal Government and develop it for parking purposes as indicated necessary in later studies.

LONG RANGE PROGRAM

1. After a reasonable period (90 to 120 days) following the revision of curb parking regulations and the inauguration of impartial and continuous enforcement as recommended above, recheck parking supply and demand to determine if changes have lessened demand for additional off-street capacity.

2. Following improvements to city lot in Block 4 as recommended above, resurvey demand in Block 3 to determine amount of parking shortage remaining.

3. If such a survey, as recommended in (2) above indicates a serious shortage still exists in Block 3, then steps should be taken to acquire land in this block and develop it for parking purposes.

☆

THE QUESTION of how to finance the development of parking facilities is often a major deterrent to real progress.

Here in Tecumseh the city has established a precedent by acquiring sites for parking in two of the four blocks. The same policy should be followed in the other two blocks.

It is recommended that the initial cost of paving, painting and lighting the lots in each block be financed through assessments against benefitting property in each block and that the maintenance costs of all parking facilities then be paid for out of parking meter revenues.

As indicated, the parking problem in Tecumseh is not extremely critical at this time. For that reason there may be some hesitancy about embarking on a program as outlined in this report.

It should be emphasized that failure to act now can not only cause a loss of business and a reduction in commercial property values, but may also require considerably greater expenditures for relief in the future.

A planned program based upon current needs and future requirements is the most practical and economical means of solving the problem.

Mrs. Laidlaw Entertains National Society

Mrs. Orville W. Laidlaw of Evans Creek drive, opened her home for the spring meeting of Michigan Court of the National Society, Women's Descendants of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company, Tuesday.

Honored was the National president, Mrs. John Bayley O'Brien of Bronxville, New York, who was guest speaker. Mrs. Laidlaw is an honorary state president.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Joseph C. Rice, Mrs. Fred E. Morse, Mrs. Hoyt E. Whelan and Mrs. J. Floyd Elliott.

Coming from Detroit and Grosse Pointe were Mrs. Charles Upton Shreve, first vice-president; Mrs. Lloyd DeWitt Smith, honorary National president; Mrs. J. W. Harworth, Mrs. Edward Atkins, Mrs. Neil A. Cameron, Mrs. Edward J. Savage, and others. Motoring from Flint were Mrs. William T. MaWhinney, a national officer; Mrs. Martin E. Hultander and Mrs. E. L. Seely.

Mrs. Burtsel Claus and Mrs. Clarence W. Fisher will come from Tipton and Mrs. E. C. Isley from Palmyra.

Mrs. Hugh W. Glover of Midland, state president, presided.

Pigeons To Race from Nashville

Winning honors went to Clinton again in the June 8 pigeon race as "Chicago Belle," a two-year-old blue check hen, won for Three "B" Loft.

This little hen streaked the 266 airline miles in a little less than six hours.

The Central Michigan 500-mile championship race will be flown from Nashville, Tennessee, Saturday.

Goodwill Truck Coming Tuesday

The next visit of Goodwill Industries pick-up trucks to Tecumseh and Britton is scheduled for next Tuesday. Goodwill trucks collect household discards of clothing, shoes, hats, toys, most types of furniture and other household discards.

To arrange for a Goodwill Industries truck pick-up, call Tecumseh 868 or Britton 2121.

VIC LAWSON REPORTS

Recreation Notes

BABE RUTH LEAGUE

The Babe Ruth League, with four teams, is for boys 13 through 15 years of age.

The rules are the same as for regulation baseball except a runner may not score from third base on a pass ball. Also, a regulation game must go only four innings and a game may end in a tie.

At the end of the regulation four innings, the substitutes must play the next two innings or until the time deadline.

In the first round of action the standings are as follows:

	Won	Lost	Tied
VFW	2	0	1
Eagles	1	1	1
Tecumseh Products	1	1	1
Indians	0	2	1

In the opening games the Indians and the Eagles played a 2 to 2 tie. Jim Bashore drove in Steve Kruger with the tying run in the fourth inning.

The VFW and the Products also played a tie 4 to 4. Mike Robison and Tim Whitney pitched for the Products and Jack Wraight went all the way for the VFW.

In Thursday's action Ron Hathaway held the Indians hitless as the VFW won, 6 to 0. In the second game of the afternoon, the Eagles defeated the Products 3 to 0, behind the pitching of Steve Kruger.

The Products defeated the Indians, 6 to 2, on June 16, as Tim Whitney hurled a three-hitter.

In the second contest the same day, VFW edged Eagles, 5 to 4, although the winners managed only one hit off Delbert Poskarbiewicz.

The league performs Mondays and Thursdays at 4:15 and 6 on the Recreation Field diamond.

☆

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Tot Lots and handicraft program will open Monday at Herrick Park, Tecumseh Acres and Central school playgrounds.

Jane Colgrove will be at Tecumseh Acres, Julia Boyce at Central and Sandra Schneller will be at Herrick Park.

☆

TENNIS

Tennis instruction will be given for beginners at the tennis courts at Central school on Mondays and Thursdays from 1:30 to 3:30.

☆

LITTLE LEAGUE

Special rules for the Tecumseh League:

STEALING — There will be no stealing or advancing of a base except on a bad throw by the catcher to the pitcher. The runner may take a lead of approximately eight feet after the ball passes the batter. If he exceeds the eight-foot limit, he is out. The catcher may play on any runner that leads off.

QUICK PITCH — The quick pitch will not be allowed. Any quick pitch will be ruled an automatic ball.

A boy may pitch only 18 outs per week.

Boys must act as coaches at first and third base.

VACATION, SICKNESS OR ACCIDENT POLICY — A boy who is injured or sick may be placed on the reserve list for a 10-day period and a replacement doesn't need to be brought up until the second 10-day period.

If the original boy cannot return on the 11th day his suit must be filled immediately. He may return after the second period or he must go into the open draft or back to the minors.

THE COACHES are responsible for the personnel of their team.

☆

LITTLE LEAGUE (MINOR)

The Minors will open play Tuesday, on the new Little League diamond.

Tecumseh Acres will meet Central No. 1 at 12:45 and Herrick Park will play Central No. 2 at 2:30.

Mike Walters — Tecumseh Acres.

Steve Kruger — Herrick Park.

Gary Elliott — Central No. 1.

Bob O'Neill — Central No. 2.

Thursday, June 26, Tecumseh Acres meets Herrick Park at 2:30.

☆

GIRL'S SOFTBALL

League play starts June 25 when Team 1 (Colgrove) plays Team 2 (Kapnick) at 4 and Team 1 meets Team 3 (Boyce) at 6.

☆

PEEWEE SOFTBALL

League play will begin on Wednesday, June 25. Practice will be held Monday on the softball diamond on the Athletic Field for all boys. They will be assigned to teams at that time.

All boys have been assigned to either Herrick Park, Tecumseh Acres, Central No. 1 or Central No. 2 and have been practicing as such, but these groups will be broken down into six teams instead of two teams from each group.

Not enough boys have shown interest and thus there are not enough members to form an eight-team league or two four team leagues.

All boys planning to participate in league play should be present Monday.

M. Richardson, Union	6	3	.500

It looks like an exciting summer in Junior League baseball circles, reports Mike Rotunno, who is in charge of the program.

In action, opening week:

Kiwanis 10, Hodges Drug 9

Gary Lee was the winning pitcher, following Terry Morden and Tim Heflin on the mound.

Lee also helped the attack, getting two hits, as did Jim Newell.

For the losers, Bob Glenn and Gene Manwaring each contributed two blows.

Exchange 6, Jaycees 3

Dennis Beemer turned in the winning pitching performance, besting Tom Dickeron

Big man with the stick was Jeff Ossburne who had two base knocks.

Rotary 4, Kiwanis 2

Banging out two hits apiece were Doug Goldsberry and Paul Snyder for Rotary.

Winning chucker Jack Dick was outstanding, giving up only three hits and striking out 11.

Union 2, Hodges 1

Getting credit for the victory, Bob Barth also banged out three.

Larry Whelen lost this close one. But his game wasn't entirely an unhappy one as he got two of his team's three hits.

Presbyterians Hear Dr. Neigh

Guest speaker at the Tecumseh Presbyterian Church Sunday will be Dr. Kenneth G. Neigh, executive of the Synod of Michigan.

On June 29, the Rev. J. Alfred Fryer from the First Presbyterian Church of Jackson will be the visiting pastor.

Bible School Closes Sunday

Closing exercises for the Vacation Bible school of the Tecumseh Church of the Nazarene will be held during the morning worship hour Sunday.

Hand crafts made during the sessions will be on display.

A Sunday School picnic for everyone will be held Saturday, June 21. For transportation call 507-M or 881-R.

Bar-B-Ques Open at Baptist Church

Many attended the first Bar-B-Que of the season held at the Baptist Youth House Friday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Orville Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Champanois and Mrs. Benjamin Antrobus were on the committee.

The events are to be held each Friday evening until August with the Home Builders and the Christian Workers Classes alternating in the sponsorship.

June 20, the Home Builders with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Davidson and Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Updike will be hosts.

Lenawee Soil Team Enters Competition

The Lenawee Soil Conservation District has entered the national Soil Conservation Awards program sponsored by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company of Akron.

Members of the Lenawee District will compete against other soil conservation districts in the state.

Non-partisan judging committees, selected from Michigan's outstanding exponents of the soil conservation movement, will determine the state's outstanding district for the period May 1, 1958 to April 30, 1959 on a basis of total points scored in performance of regular district duties.

Members of the Lenawee District governing body who will compete for the Goodyear award are: Hal Benner, Clayton; Lloyd Ruesink, Adrian R. 3; Leland Brighton, Brooklyn; Clarence Kleidint, Jasper; and Clarence Ehlert, Palmyra.

4-H Camp Opens in Another Week

Grand Opening Day for the 4-H Camp will be June 29 with seven full weeks of camping experience continuing through August 16.

For those 14 years and older, camp begins July 13 through 19 or July 20 through the 26.

A bus will transport those from the county to the campsite and home.

Young people from seven counties will enjoy the parties, ceremonials, camp crafts, water sports and other activities as well as the planning experience of campers.

The cost of the week's camp is $15, five to be sent in with the application.

Turkey Trot— Without Music

Swifty Fisher has a new way to move his turkeys to a fresh feeding place, twice a week.

He constructed a "rolling" fence by welding wheels to his fence posts. Each wheel has a sturdy braking device to keep the fence from moving, once a suitable range is found.

Swifty explains, "this solves the problem of taking down woven wire, pulling up posts and re-setting them again." Now, he just hooks his tractors to both ends of the fence, and rolls it away.

From where I sit, progress never happens when you "close your eyes" to new methods or ideas. That's true in a community, too. All of us should be open-minded about our neighbors' opinions even if they differ from our own. For instance, I like a cold glass of beer on a summer evening, my neighbor always chooses iced-tea. But we respect each other's preferences and don't "fence in" each other's ideas.

"Can I get a bank loan on my life insurance?"

Usually, yes, if your policies have a cash surrender or "loanable" value. You merely add your signature to an assignment form and a note, and leave your policies with the bank as collateral. The proceeds of the loan are made available promptly, without red tape — and your policies remain in full force. A bank loan on your life insurance provides quick cash when you need to borrow, at lowest borrowing cost. Our bank invites such loans: See us about this easy, economical way to obtain credit!

History Is Given of Cemetery Group

A carefully prepared program was planned for the 50th anniversary of the Macon Cemetery Association.

But rain cancelled the arrangements, therefore a short history of the group is found printed here.

In 1906 the Women's Cemetery Association was formed with the following ladies as its officers:

President—Myra Camburn.

First vice-president—Ellen Mills.

Second vice-president—Anna Hatch.

Third vice-president—Mary Niblack.

Treasurer—Anna Richmond.

Recording treasurer—Blanche Mills.

Recording secretary—Persis Hatch.

FIFTEEN MEMBERS made up the first meeting when committees were appointed to secure members and the Constitution was formed by Hattie Sage, Addie Crittenden, Maude Day and Blanche Mills.

During the years land has been purchased, chapel and rest rooms built, memorial trees planted, new drives laid out, lots plotted and flag holders purchased for soldier's graves.

The first board of directors was elected in 1910 consisting of seven members and that same year the first Memorial Day service was held.

In 1916 the original Cemetery Association and the Women's Association were united and reincorporated with nine directors, new by-laws were drafted and a map of the cemetery was made.

A Memorial Fund was established, now known as Perpetual Care.

☆

IN 1931, HENRY FORD drove a well for the Association and more land was purchased to the east.

Lizzie Davenport, Mayme Pennington and many others have contributed much to the projects of the Association, serving as officers and directors, working on committees and preparing the Memorial Day services.

Allen Collins served as sexton for 37 years.

Clarence Hall has served as sexton for the last 40 years and the community is grateful to him for his diligence in caring for the cemetery and making sure that the services are carefully planned for each Memorial Day.

His work keeps the cemetery a source of pride to those who reside in the area.

Cows Don't Need Extra Hay, Silage

Dairy cows grazing top quality grass-legume pastures this summer don't need extra hay or silage.

In fact, according to research at Michigan State University, milk production isn't kept enough higher to pay the cost of the supplemental feeding.

In recent tests feeding of silage appeared to have a greater influence on milk production than feeding hay to groups of dairy cows. Both the silage and hay groups produced slightly more milk than the control group which got only pasture and grain.

The increased production was so slight that it was considered unimportant by the researchers.

There may be some advantage in terms of staving off the usual summer milk production slump by supplementing lower-quality pasture with hay or silage.

Where pasture is poor, hay fed free-choice in the pasture or silage fed after milking will provide additional vital nutrients needed for top milk production.

Plenty of clean fresh water available to cows while on pasture will also help keep milk production up.

Through My Window

A MOST UNNERVING DAY

A soft, sobbing whimper attracted our attention. It was a pitiful sound, almost like the frightened cry of a sick or lost puppy. We quickly discovered, however, that it was not an animal crying, it was a Blue Jay.

Perched atop the suet holder which stands at one corner of the bird feeder was a beautiful blue and white Blue Jay. On the bird feeder proper was a Grackle complete with evil yellow eyes and sharp pointed cruel bill.

As the Black Thief gobbled one sunflower seed after another the Blue Jay became more and more distraught.

The Grackle was paying absolutely no attention to the Jay and that, of course, was a direct insult to the Jay's dignity. Being by nature bold and aggressive they are the bullies of the feeding stations. They swoop down for lunch and all other bird diners quickly fly away.

It there is something at the feeder which the Jays know cannot be intimidated they, the Blue Jays, stay away. As with all tyrants they will not risk a showdown without being sure of the outcome.

This particular Blue Jay had apparently not realized the Grackle was on the feeder or perhaps he had just overestimated his own powers. Whatever the reason, it was plain that he had blundered into something he could not handle.

From Mr. Blue Jay's bewildered attitude and sobbing whimpers it was obvious that things were not going as they should and he was at a complete loss as to how the situation could be remedied.

☆

HAD THE GRACKLE and Blue Jay been characters of a comic strip it was easy to imagine that the thoughts in the bracket above the Jay's head would read something like,

"Oh, my, what do I do now? (sob) Why doesn't that black thing leave? (sob). Doesn't he know I'm a Blue Jay!! (sob) Other birds fly away when Blue Jays come around. Why doesn't he leave like he should? (sob) etc., etc."

So it went for several minutes. The Grackle showed no sign of deferring to or even acknowledging the presence of another bird so finally, in utter desperation, the Blue Jay left. He flew into the nearby maple tree and dejectedly waited the Grackle's departure.

It is usually satisfying to watch a bully start something he cannot finish but the spectacle of this particular Blue Jay knuckling under to the Grackle was tragic.

He was so visibly unhappy at not upholding the family tradition and yet he was, on this particular day at least, completely unable to cope with the situation. A Blue Jay should be arrogant and haughty, not meek and submissive.

☆

THE DEFEAT by the Grackle was not the last of our Blue Jay's woes. When at last the feeder was empty he swooped down, strutted around making a big show and thus reinflating his ego, I suppose, and then settled down to lunch.

Hardly had he selected a tasty appetizer before, scrambling up the feeder post came a big bushy tailed squirrel.

Of course, not even the most superior Blue Jay could be foolhardy enough to argue with a squirrel. There was nothing for our friend to do but make another retreat to the maple tree.

In time the squirrel ate his fill and once again our timid Blue Jay came back. This was just not his day, however, and soon his meal was again interrupted. The intruder this time was a fellow Jay!

As the other bird approached, oh, how we rooted for the Jay on the feeder. It was to no avail —he just wasn't up to fighting it out and once again he took to the trees.

The second Blue Jay was typical. He swaggered and pranced about oozing self confidence. His arrogant attitude forestalled all attempts to usurp his place at the feeder. In fact, several birds —a Grackle included — started for the station but quickly changed their minds when they saw by whom it was occupied.

Our sad little Jay sat in the tree taking in the whole performance and I'm sure doing much self-denunciation. We could almost hear him thinking aloud, "Now that is how a Blue Jay should act. When my chance comes I'll go down there and show them who is boss."

☆

WELL, HIS CHANCE came and when for the third time the feeder was empty he once again started down. Unfortunately someone else had the same idea and just as the Blue Jay arranged himself for a leisurely meal in flew a Mourning Dove.

Foiled again—back to the tree. Another humilating defeat.

"But other Blue Jays have fled from Mourning Doves," reasoned the timid one so he decided to try again. This time nothing was going amiss, he pulled himself together and summoned all his courage for a final victorious assault.

Fate deemed otherwise, however, and it is sad to relate but this time friend Jay met with the unkindest cut of all. Two measly sparrows and an obnoxious Bow Bird unceremoniously drove him off. With spirit completely broken and the last remnant of self-confidence torn away our timid Blue Jay left.

It was depressing to see such a high-flying spirit broken. He knew what a Blue Jay should be but, on what I'am sure, was the most tragic afternoon of his life, he just couldn't rise to the occasion.

Fortunately the next day he was back and as bold and brassy as the best Blue Jay. It was such a relief—we are often angry at their mean overbearing attitude but believe me, it's better that way. The afternoon that we watched the Blue Jay behave in such an un-Blue-Jay-like manner was as unnerving for us as it was for him.

Swimming Classes Held at 'Pit'

For the eighth consecutive season, Duane K. Furbush will conduct classes in all phases of swimming from the beginners through junior and senior lifesaving and advanced swimming, at the "Pit."

American Red Cross cards for the various classifications may be earned as tests are successfully passed.

Enrollment for classes will be taken all this week at "The Pit" during the morning hours. Prospective students may enroll at later dates, but this is not encouraged.

Special emphasis will be placed on advanced swimmer classes and lifesaving, but beginner, intermediate and adult classes will be conducted as usual.

Two schedules will be set, Tuesday-Thursday and Wednesday-Friday.

The size of the classes will be strictly limited and individual instruction can be arranged for these days or Mondays and Saturdays.

Poultrymen Must Keep Up on Trends

More complete grade buying of eggs seems to be just around the corner, says Floyd Hicks, extension field poultryman at Michigan State University.

This means that county poultrymen will need to keep up to date on trends in improving egg quality. Here are some of the egg quality upgrading implications listed by County Agricultral Agent John Comstock.

Since strains of birds vary in the incidence of blood and meat spots, and in shell and albumen quality, poultrymen will consider these factors, along with production, in their choice of stock.

The production of clean eggs through good nest and litter management, and four times a day collections will be a paying proposition.

BETTER EGG rooms deserve priority in the poultryman's plans. Experiments are consistent in showing that holding room temperature is the most important factor in maintaining quality.

A 55 to 60 degree F. temperature must be maintained. In many cases this can be done without refrigeration through locating the egg room in a basement and through proper insulation — providing the poultryman knows his conditions there accurately as to temperature and humidity for year around.

A thermometer can be a valuable instrument for the egg room. For above ground egg rooms, mechanical refrigeration will usually be necessary.

Egg packers and buyers will in many cases be starting twice a week farm pick up, and will be using insulated trucks. This practice will probably do more to improve the quality of eggs furnished consumers than any other development, believes Agent Comstock.

"SICKNESS IS A SORT OF OLD AGE."

—*(Author's Name Below)—

Each year new discoveries help to keep old age further away. You can live longer than was expected at your birth.

Your chief problem is to live a more sickness-free life, because each illness ages. Modern medicine and pharmacy now have valuable aids to keep you healthy. Serious sickness often can and should be prevented.

If you always consult your physician at the beginning of a sickness, before it becomes serious, he will prescribe the one particular medicine that will help you most. You can add many years to a healthier life by using your physician's ability to fight old age.

Mrs. Edith McCulla Buried on Tuesday

Funeral services were held Tuesday at the Green Funeral Home for Edith McCulla who passed away Saturday, at the University Hospital in Ann Arbor where she had been a patient for four weeks.

She was the wife of the late William Robert McCulla, who died April 6 of this year.

They lived at 105 S. Democrat street where they had moved about nine months ago from Detroit.

Mrs. McCulla is survived by two sisters, Mrs. John R. Zeigler of Tecumseh and Mrs. H. R. Zoll of Cleveland; one cousin, Mrs. Paul Rudy of Toledo, and one niece, Mrs. Stuart Costigan of Tecumseh.

Rev. Alvin Brazee officiated and burial was in Brookside cemetery.

Pvt. Edwin Covell Completes Basic

CAMP PENDLETON, Calif — Marine Pvt. Edwin D. Covell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Covell of 507 W. Logan street finished four weeks of individual combat training June 9 at the Marine Corps Base here.

The course included the latest infantry tactics, first aid, demolitions, field fortifications and advanced schooling on weapons.

Trainees learn that all Marines are basically infantrymen, whether they serve as cooks, typists, truck drivers, or with aviation units.

REALTY VIEWS

"We need to sell our house right away," said Mrs. Steele excitedly. "We've got a chance at a big opportunity elsewhere. You sold it to us so you should be able to sell it again."

We listed the house and mentioned we would place a sign on the property.

"O.K.," she said. "But if anyone stops to talk with me, I'm going to tell them they'll have to phone your office for an appointment to see it. I'm not going to let them look at it. I don't even want to be here."

"That's fine with us," I said, "lots of owners feel that way."

"Well it isn't just sentiment on my part," Mrs. Steele said. I believe it will help a sale. To start with, you can explain the house construction and financing better than I can. Also, buyers will be more honest with you as to their reactions. This will give you a chance to answer any objections they might have. Also, you can follow up with them. Whereas, if I called back, they'd think we were overanxious and so they'd demand a lower price."

"You've hit the nail on the head," I replied. I'm surprised you've given the matter that much thought."

"We really want to sell," Mrs. Steele replied. "Get it done for us!"

May we SELL your home, too?

Win Governor's Trophy

The coveted Governor's Trophy was awarded to Boy Scouts of Troop 73 and their Scoutmaster, Howard Wilson, Jr., at the council circle campfire program Saturday evening during the annual Camporee at Camp Kanesatake.

Participation and skills of a large percentage of registered Scouts in the three District events won the trophy for the local troop.

Events were the Klondike Derby held January 4; the Scout Show held February 22 and the Camporee.

The Apache, Hawk, Woodpecker and Rattlesnake patrols each qualified for the Pack and Packing ribbon, also the campsite construction, uniform, camp living and good citizenship ribbons.

The Troop as a unit qualified for the blue ribbon for its camping ability.

☆

THE HAWK PATROL, with Keith Kruse as leader, qualified for the first place ribbon of the Scout skills events by winning the knot-tying contest.

The Apache patrol, with John Oberlin as leader, won first place ribbon in the signaling contest.

Sunday morning the Scouts and Scouters attended church services and at noon the parents of the boys arrived with picnic lunches.

After lunch the troops marched to the main lodge for the final presentation of Troop awards and lowered the flag marking the end of the Camporee.

Scoutmaster Wilson is grateful to all parents for their help and cooperation in making the weekend a success.

Delegates Give Report of Assembly Held in St. Louis

Mrs. Carlos Jones and Mrs. James D. Nixon gave accounts Wednesday of the Fifth National Assembly of the WSCS, which they attended recently in St. Louis.

Mrs. Irvin Twyford of Mather, Pennsylvania and Mrs. Robert Bonner accompanied them.

Devotions were presented by Mrs. Frank Lasky.

During the meeting it was announced that Mrs. Fred Nash and Mrs. Clyde Smith will attend the School of Missions at Albion, July 7 to 11, as delegates of the local organization.

No meetings will be held during July and August but regular sessions will resume in September.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Viola Mark, Mrs. Ernest Robison and Mrs. Marian Elliott.

ANSWERS

1. (a) The face-down position enables you to float while you are relieving the cramped muscles.
2. (c) Boats usually float.
3. (b) This maneuver takes you away from the current and conserves your energy so you can swim back to shore in a straight line.
4. (a) and (c) Either way will take you out of a hole. If you use (c) you will continue to push up and down, in a bobbing manner, until you're clear.
5. (b) and (c) Even if a lifeguard could concentrate on a single individual, if you swim out, you must get back. This might overtax your ability.
6. (a) The easiest and safest rescue technique is to extend your reach, whether by an arm, leg, or a reaching pole. Time is the important factor, therefore (b) would be a secondary answer. Swiming rescues should be a last resort unless a person is trained.

What Is Your Swimming IQ?

The Red Cross says "there's no better sport to save your life" than to enjoy swimming and boating—with safety. From its 40 years' experience in this field the Red Cross offers the following check-list to allow you to grade yourself on how water proof you are:

1. You are swimming in open water and get a severe cramp in your leg. You should:
   - (a) Swim to shore as quickly as posible ☐
   - sage the aching part ☐
   - (b) Swim to shore as quickly as possible ☐
   - (c) Tread water and call for help ☐
2. You are out in a boat in rough water and the boat capsizes. You should:
   - (a) Get away from the boat, tread water and call for help ☐
   - (b) Try to swim to shore ☐
   - (c) Hang on to the boat ☐
3. You are swimming in heavy surf and find yourself being carried out to sea. You should:
   - (a) Swim towards shore at an angle ☐
   - (b) Swim to one side and not against the current ☐
   - (c) Stop swimming and float with the current ☐
4. You are walking out into the water and you step into a deep hole. You should:
   - (a) Drop your head forward and move your arms under water dog-paddle style ☐
   - (b) Throw up your hand and yell for help ☐
   - (c) Sink to the bottom and push off with your feet to bring yourself up ☐
5. You want to test your endurance with some distance swimming. You should:
   - (a) Ask the lifeguard to keep an eye on you ☐
   - (b) Swim parallel to shore ☐
   - (c) Arrange for a boat to accompany you ☐
6. You are climbing up a pool ladder when you notice someone in trouble behind you, about 4 feet from the side of the pool. You should:
   - (a) Hold onto the ladder and extend your leg back for him to reach ☐
   - (b) Call the lifeguard ☐
   - (c) Swim out to him and bring him back to the side ☐

Helzerman, Osburn Vie for Board Post

The names of John G. (Jack) Osburn and Dr. Ralph F. Helzerman will be on the ballot for board of education member when the polls open July 7 for the school election.

The following information should help qualified voters to know their board of education candidates.

DR. RALPH HELZERMAN

Incumbent Helzerman is seeking his fifth term on the board. Born in Toledo, Dr. Helzerman has lived most of his life in Tecumseh.

He was graduated from THS in 1926 as salutatorian and from the University of Michigan School of Medicine in 1935.

His internship was served at Hurley Hospital in Flint and he was a member of the Air Force Medical Corps in WW II.

He and his wife, Edna, live at 612 West Chicago Boulevard, and have three children, Sylvia, a junior at MSU; Marilyn a senior at THS and Ralph, a junior at Tecumseh high.

Dr. Helzerman is a past trustee of the Presbyterian Church and a member of the Lenawee County and State Medical Associations. He is a Knight Templar and senior member of the Herrick Memorial Hospital staff.

JACK OSBURN

Born in Tecumseh, Mr. Osburn was graduated from Tecumseh high school in 1943.

He and his wife, Aline, live at 8931 Mathews Highway and have three children, Michael J., Jay Thomas and Sharie Ann, all of whom attend St. Elizabeth's.

Mr. Osburn served in the Armed Forces in WWII. He has been active in area organizations, having been president of the Chamber of Commerce, first president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, and a member of the American Legion.

He has also served on the Tecumseh Recreation Board and for two years as chairman of the Community Fund Drive.

For the past five years he has been a realtor and he and Delbert King recently occupied their new office on North Evans street.

VIEWS REMAINS— Six-year-old Tommy Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Moore of Tipton, looks at the remains of Mrs. Winnie Johnston's car, which hit a truck, then rammed a utility pole Tuesday.

70-Year-Old Hits Pole

A 70-year-old Lake Orion widow heading by auto for Montpelier, Ohio, ended up instead in Herrick Memorial Hospital Tuesday noon.

Mrs. Winnie Johnston's car went out of control as she was crossing M-50 at Billington's Corner.

It hit a truck driven by Carl Gary, of Adrian, then made a sweeping turn off the road and onto the approach of the Lenawee Hills cemetery, crashing into a utility pole.

Mrs. Johnston was taken to the local hospital, suffering from head injuries and a fracture of a facial bone.

Her condition Wednesday morning was described by the hospital as "fair."

Mrs. Johnston was going to the Montpelier home of a sister-in-law who is ill.

Supposition is that when Mrs. Johnston saw the truck she went for the brake, but hit the accelerator instead.

Radio Owner Is Found

By GRETTA PORTER

As a result of a letter which was printed in last week's Herald Lonnie Penrod once more has his radio.

Perhaps you recall that postmaster Jack Metcalf rerceived a note from Don Peabody of Delta, Ohio, saying that a hitch-hiking soldier from Tecumseh had left a radio in his car.

Mr. Peabody had given Lonnie a ride and not until he arrived home did he find a radio in his car which Lonnie had left behind.

Not knowing the GI's name, Mr. Peabody wrote a description of him and his family from things they had talked about during the short time they rode together.

This week The Herald received a note of thanks from Lonnie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Penrod. Their son was home from Barksdale Air Force Base in Shreveport, La., for the weekend.

The Penrods said that many people, including their family doctor and an attorney friend, wrote Mr. Peabody to give him Lonnie's address.

Last wekend Lonnie took a trip to Delta, thanked Mr. Peabody and got his radio. He reported that the Peabody's are "a nice young farm couple."

And so, thanks to the combined efforts of Mr. Peabody, Jack Metcalf and many kind area people, A/2C Lonnie Penrod returned to Shreveport, La., with his radio.

THE Long & Short OF IT

IN THESE HURLY-BURLY times, folks often forget the displays of courtesy that once were such a part of our heritage.

Something happened last week which showed maybe it all hasn't been forgotten.

As 18-year-old Eduardo Tomaz was busily cutting the lawn at the St. Elizabeth rectory aboard the parish tractor, a funeral slowly proceded up Union and into Brookside cemetery.

Spotting the hearse passing by, Eduardo stopped the tractor, stepped off it and removed his hat in silent reverence.

TWO WEEKS AGO WE ISsued a plea for copies of our May 15 edition. Seems we had accidentally destroyed our usual 25 file copies.

Monday morning's mail produced one all the way from Indio, California, sent to us by subscribers Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Mansfield. To them, we say thanks, also to others who were kind enough to return copies.

DURING LENT, THE KROGER company's Toledo division ran a contest among stores to see which ones did the best jobs on fish sales.

Prizes would be given managers of the winning stores.

Tecumseh's outlet finished on top of its division and Dick Meyer is currently enjoying the reward.

Dick and four other managers were whisked onto an American Airlines plane Sunday evening at Willow Run, flown to Gloucester, Mass., where they're being treated to three days of deep-sea fishing.

During Dick's absence, Jim Everingham is in charge of the store.

☆

BILL DAVENPORT, WHO has been flying since 1939, scored a "first" the past weekend.

He brought a Civil Air Patrol two-seater down on a Mackinaw City pier, which is a scant 900 feet long and about as wide as Evans street.

Another CAP airman wasn't quite as lucky, catching a wing on a utility pole. He escaped the mishap uninjured.

The pair had orders to land on the pier and exhibit the ships as a CAP promotion.

Bill said during the last 10 seconds of the landing he lost 10 pounds.

It will probably be the last time any planes will be authorized to touch down on the pier.

☆

WHILE ON THE SUBJECT OF aircraft, the Tecumseh Exchange club is going full blast on its annual Dawn Patrol breakfast July 6.

About 300 guests are expected, with ships coming from all over the midwest. They'll start landing here about 4:30 a.m. keep coming in until noon.

Club members will be busy preparing husky breakfasts for their guests and they invite area folks to come over for the meal.

Several naval planes from Grosse Ile will fly in to give demonstrations on air rescue.

TECUMSEHITES WHO TAKE the Toledo Blade were treated to quite a chunk of reading about Meyers Aircraft last week.

Ralph Smith of the paper's staff did a lengthy and interesting piece, which was illustrated with four pictures.

The Herald furnished three of the photos used.

CARL IS PRESIDENT

Carl Lamb was elected president of the Lenawee and Hillsdale Conty Pharmaceutical Association Tuesday night at Adrian. Steven Walsh is the new treasurer. Both pharmacists are employed at Hodge's Drug Store.

Owner Offers Reward for Plane

Anyone finding a model airplane with numerals 26513 on one wing may claim a reward from Cecil Hand, 309 W. Shawnee street.

The solid red model is worth a considerable sum of money to Mr. Hand as he has more than 200 hours of working time in it, as well as the cost of materials.

He lost control of the plane as he was flying it at Meyers Airport this week and it flew off in the direction of the Clinton-Macon road, east of M-52.

Mr. Hand has won one trophy with the model and with several other contests coming up, one Sunday, he is most anxious to hear of its whereabouts.

Kris Korte Enters Area Corn Contest

Kris Korte of rural Clinton is another of the area farmers competing in the corn-growing contest sponsored by the Tecumseh adult farmers' class.

MEASURE CORN—Paul Burns, adults ag teacher, measures row of Kris Korte's corn.

Fifteen members of the class have entered the competition, which was organized for the purpose of creating interest in corn-growing methods.

Each contestant has planted one acre of corn for the contest. It will be picked in the fall by Paul Burns, instructor for the adult class, and Wilfred Kaufman, a member of the class.

Mr. Korte prepared his corn ground by using the conventional plow, disc, drag method. He used 150 pounds of 12-12-12 fertilizer per acre and plowed down manure. For the contest he used Funks seed corn, spaced 14 inches apart in the row.

Mr. Korte has three sons who assist him with his farm work. Roger and Ronald are taking vocational agriculture at Tecumseh high school now.

Main income on the Korte farm is from dairy. The herd includes 36 milk cows, two bulls and 33 heifers. The Korte's also have 300 White Rock hens on their 185-acre farm, 45 of these acres being planted in corn.

Adult Swim Class Begins on Tuesday

An adult beginners swimming class starts July 1, according to Carl Hale, Tecumseh pool director.

Sessions are going to be Tuesday and Thursday afternoons from 5 to 6.

Cost for the class is $3 per person and students may sign up at the pool or at the first gathering on Tuesday.

Drive-In Church Presenting Film

Saturday at 8:30 p.m. and Sunday at 9:15 p.m., the Devils Lake Drive-In Church will present on screen, the award winning film, "Seventeen".

The church is located near Manitou Beach. The public is invited and there is no admission charge. The Drive-In is undenominational and non-sectarian.

Van's Bakery Grand Opening 'Big Success'

Area people downed nearly 700 cups of coffee, not to mention numerous rolls on Friday and Saturday at the grand opening of the newly remodeled Van's Bakery.

According to Joe Church, owner and manager of the shop, the event "was a big success with over 1,000 people dropping in" during the opening.

Decorated cakes were given to Mrs. Wayland Kahle of Tipton, Mrs. William Dettman of Britton, Ed Brown of 110 North Oneida street, Mrs. Margaret Lamson of 148 East Chicago boulevard and Mrs. Aurila Shipley of rural Tecumseh.

Other cake winners included Mrs. William Rodgers of 705 Occidental Road, Mrs. Owen Fisher of 210 Adrian street, Mrs. R. J. Loughney of 106 East Kilbuck street, June Stoner of 739 North Union Street and Mrs. Barbara Opel of 303 Maple Street.

Chamber Means 'Town Working Together'

"A Chamber of Commerce is not an individual, not a board of directors, not a group of people acting on a committee, but the whole town working together."

So Don Murphy, new Tecumseh Chamber executive secretary, told an over-flow crowd at last week's "Meet Murph" banquet in Tecumseh Country Club.

"When we get this in Tecumseh there is no telling where we will go or to what end we reach," he continued.

"Accomplishment is only the result of effort, effort put forth by every last citizen in Tecumseh.

"Why the surface is merely scratched, the potential is terrific," the new secretary added.

Mr. Murphy further defined a Chamber of Commerce as "an organization that pools the talents of its members to accomplish collectively those things that would be impossible for an individual to do . . . the hidden force behind, and pushing to get done, the things that the ordinary citizen thinks just happen."

Bigness alone doesn't make a city great, he explained, it takes people working together, creating a unity which never can be defeated, that accomplishes this goal.

Mr. Murphy was the key speaker of the evening in a program MCed by Dr. Richard Coak, Chamber president.

Tom Riordan, co-publisher of The Herald, told of the membership campaign, which reached its quota of 100 in a month's time, each business and professional person paying his first year's dues of $100 in advance so that a budget of $10,000 could be available.

He recounted the efforts of Dick Eggleston, owner of Eggleston's Jewelry, to bring the Chamber movement back to Tecumseh.

Group singing was led by Chuck Butler.

Linda Sisson, Robert Martin Exchange Vows Saturday

White gladioli and carnations filled the altar vases of the First Baptist Church Saturday evening when Linda Sisson became the bride of Robert James Martin in a beautiful candle light ceremony at 7:30 p.m.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Llewllyn Sisson of 9500 Newburg Road and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clare Martin of East Logan street in Tecumseh.

Lighted candelabra flanked the altar and tall white hampers of white blossoms and natural greens formed the background. Each window held an arrangement of white candles and greens to soften the setting.

The traditional white aisle runner was laid preceding the bridal party and the family pews were marked with white satin bows and greens.

☆

REV. B. O. BASHORE, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony and Mrs. James Danforth accompanied by Mrs. Herbert Dillon at the organ sang, "Because", "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her parents, was gowned in chantilly lace over tulle and Italian silk taffeta. The gown featured a full circular skirt which swept into a chapel train and a large back bow and streamers which gave a bustle effect. The rounded neckline and short sleeves of the lace bodice were sparkled with sequins and pearls.

She wore matching lace mitts, a single strand of pearls and a lace cap which held in place her double finger tip veil. She carried a cascade arrangement of white roses and lilies of the valley interspersed with strands of miniature ivy.

☆

MRS. PRISCILLA BROWN was her sister's matron of honor and Marjorie Martin, Carol Stepp, Mrs. Harold Dresch and Mrs. Joseph Gregory were the bridesmaids. Each wore a princess style dress of blue crystalette over taffetta of ballerina length featuring a scoop necked bodice top and godets in the skirt of matching lace with a pert bow finishing the waist line. All wore large tulle picture hats and short white gloves.

The gowns were Maude Bell originals.

Mrs. Brown carried a white wicker basket filled with a modern arrangement of pale pink carnations with tiny pink rosebuds in the center.

☆

THE FOUR BRIDESMAIDS carried identical white baskets filled with pink carnations and white daisies.

Little Dawn Sisson, niece of the bride, was the flower girl in white nylon over blue taffeta and Dana Martin, cousin of the groom was ring bearer. Dawn carried a miniature basket filled with daisies and pink rose buds and wore a circlet of the same flowers in her hair.

Mrs. Sisson chose a gown of mauve lace with white accessories for her daughter's wedding and she wore a corsage of Eucharis lilies and pink rosettes. The groom's mother wore blue lace and silk with white accessories and a corsage of white rosebuds.

A reception was held for the 225 guests in the Youth House with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sheldon as host and hostess. Pink and white blossoms were used in decorating throughout with window arrangments of pink candles and greens.

☆

A TIERED wedding cake centered the bride's table encircled with a bridal wreath of pink carnations and daisies. It was flanked on either side by tall silver candelabra holding pink tapers. Those assisting at the reception wore corsages of pink carnations.

Aunts of the bride and groom, Mrs. Clifford Curran and Mrs. Mitchell Mobley poured at the reception; Sharon Martin had charge of the guest book; Marcia Bashore had charge of the gifts; Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie Davis served at the punch bowl; Mrs. Ted Sisson and Mrs. Jerry Barton served cake and Mrs. Vaughn Curtis was plate hostess.

The bride changed to a dress of turquoise and white silk with white accessories for a wedding trip into northern Michigan. When they return they will be at home in rural Adrian.

Both of the newly-weds are graduates of Tecumseh high school and the bride will graduate from the Edward Sparrow School of Nursing in September.

The rehearsal dinner was held at the home of the groom's parents Friday evening.

MRS. ROBERT J. MARTIN

Friends Church Is Setting for Manley–Kilbourn Wedding

Five attendants in pink preceded Marilyn Ruth Manley down the aisle Friday evening at the Tecumseh Friends Church when she became the bride of Willis L. Kilbourn.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Manley of 107 West Kilbuck street and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George O. Kilbourn of 610 West Kilbuck street.

Rev. Edward Escolme performed the ceremony at 7:30 p.m. assisted by Rev. Paul Brantingham before an altar enhanced with hampers of peonies, palms and candelabra.

Mrs. Ashley Chase, cousin of the bride, accompanied at the organ as Dalton VanValkenburg and Sharon Muhn sang a duet, "Savior Like a Shepherd Lead Us." Miss Muhn sang "Oh Day of Golden Promise" and Mr. VanValkenburg sang "The Wedding Prayer" after the mothers were seated.

☆

THE BRIDE, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of imported French Chantilly lace over white taffeta made by her aunt, Mrs. Sheldon Chase.

The lace bodice featured a sabrina neckline formed of the self scalloped lace and long fitted sleeves forming scalloped points over the hands. A full gathered taffeta floor length skirt hung from a basque waistline and was worn over a hoop, enhanced by a self scalloped overskirt of the lace.

Her finger tip veil of illusion, with hand appliqued rose buds from the lace, fell from a crown of seed pearls and rhinestones. She wore a pearl choker, the gift of the groom, and carried a white lace covered Bible topped with a petite crescent of white butterfly roses and a lavendar lipped white orchid with tufts of white tulle streamers tied in a lovers' knot.

☆

THE MAID of honor, Gerry Hirsch, wore a gown of deep pink crystallete over pink taffeta designed with a fitted bodice, short sleeves and a scooped neckline featuring a rolled collar fastened at the back with a bow and long streamers falling to the hemline. The skirt featured unpressed pleats and a basque waist.

A short pink veil fell from a tiara covered with tiny pink flowers and featuring heart shaped pearl clips at the side. She carried an intricately patterned lace fan adorned with a white orchid and pink roses with loops of white satin ribbon.

The bridesmaids, Carolyn and Marjorie Chase, and the junior bridesmaid, Victoria Manley, all wore gowns of lighter pink in the same design as that of the maid of honor and head dresses the same. They wore white gloves and shoes and carried white fans accented with pink roses. Each wore a pearl choker, the gift of the bride.

☆

KATHRYN MANLEY was the flower girl in a floor length gown of pink nylon flocked with tiny white flowers. It featured a full skirt worn over a hoop and a pink taffeta sash tied in a bow at the back. She wore a fine gold chain with a single pearl pendant, white shoes and gloves.

Lee Vescelius was best man while Robert Manley and Robert Hirsch seated the guests.

The wedding was solemnized on the 23rd anniversary of the wedding of the groom's parents. Mrs. Kilbourn wore a navy blue gown of eyelet lined with light blue with navy accessories and a white cymbidium corsage. The bride's mother chose a blue sheath with white accessories and wore a yellow cymbidium corsage.

☆

HOSTESS AT the church was Mrs. Naomi Sallows and at the reception held in the church basement following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Charles Manley Jr. of Adrian and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Oswalt of Alliance, Ohio, were hosts.

Others assisting at the reception were Mrs. Melvin Muhn, Mrs. Herbert Murphy, Mrs. Robert Baird, Mrs. Walter Wiemer, Mrs. John Kelly, Mrs. Perry Hayden, Mabel Lockwood, Mrs. Percy Slater, Mrs. Harry Dundan and Mrs. Allen Bordine.

The double tiered cake was cut and served by Mrs. R. E. Hirsch, Janet Oswalt and Judy Kempf had charge of the gifts, Kay McClure, the guest book, and Marjorie Van Valkenburg, Linda Kelly, Vonnie Penrod and Lois and Joyce Brugger also assisted.

For their wedding trip into northern Michigan the bride wore navy blue with white accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Both young people are graduates of Tecumseh high school this year. They will make their home in Tecumseh.

The rehearsal dinner was served buffet style at the home of the groom's parents with Mrs. Dorman Vescelius and Mrs. Paul Brantingham assisting.

By the Golden Rule

"He was a fellow who didn't say much and I don't think he had an enemy in the world," so one friend of Ray Sluyter said of the Tecumseh businessman who passed away suddenly last week.

At 58, Ray was the sort of person who got keen enjoyment out of living. If there were a dozen persons in the room with Ray, you'd scarcely hear him, but his eyes would dance with enjoyment as the others chattered away.

Ray loved the out-of-doors and we guess that was why he liked golf so much. He was the first to admit that he wouldn't break any records, but he played the game as if shooting for a title.

On some green, after a rash of putts, Ray's ball would at last find its way into the cup, he'd grin, "I guess there's a hole there after all."

We could all take a chapter out of Ray Sluyter's book — enjoy life for what it is, forget how difficult our particular lot is and refuse to say something about another we wouldn't like said about ourselves.

Not Even One Mistake

Most Americans are good drivers — the high traffic toll notwithstanding.

This pat on the back for the average motorist comes from the National Safety Council as it opens its annual appeal for Fourth of July holiday safety.

The Council makes a good point: with upwards of 70 million vehicles whizzing past each other only a couple of feet apart, the average driver must make 20 to 50 decisions an hour, many of them literally involving life or death.

Last year's all-time low death rate of 5.9 fatalities per 100 million miles of travel proves that most drivers made the right decisions.

Most of us want to be good drivers. We pride ourselves on our skill and common sense. We obey the law. We don't want to hurt ourselves, our families or the stranger in the other car. Then why do we have accidents? Carelessness?

Carelessness is a catch-all word that covers a multitude of sins. Good drivers that we are most of the time, every one who has ever been behind the wheel of a car remembers the near misses — and our accident toll is made up of those that didn't miss.

We get tired. We burn up at some minor rudeness by another driver. We drive a little too fast. We take a chance in passing. We think a couple of drinks can't do any harm. Or due to any one of a hundred distractions, we let our attention waver from the road for an instant beyond recall.

The National Safety Council estimates that more than 45 million cars will be on the roads over the three day Fourth of July holiday. So don't be a good driver most of the time. You can't afford to make even one mistake.

The engagement of Georgia Mae Campbell is being announced by her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Campbell of 605 W. Cummins street, to Eugene Guy Gallant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gallant, Sr. of 729 North Main street in Adrian. The date for the wedding is July 5.

Tecumseh Resident Wins $3,600 Auto

One of 20 national winners of 1958 Mercury automobiles in the Ed Sullivan TV contest is a Tecumseh resident.

She's Mrs. Edgar Randall, 609 Murray drive, who with her husband, moved here shortly after seeing her name chosen from the giant drum during the May 19 Sullivan show.

The car was awarded Tuesday —a pink, four-door sedan worth $3,600 — by the George Underwood Lincoln-Mercury agency, where she had obtained her entry blank.

The Randalls had lived on a farm north of Clinton, but with Mr. Randall working for Tecumseh Equipment, they decided to buy a home here.

The fact he was employed by a firm which sells a Ford-made product — the Edsel auto — had the Randalls in wonderment if Mrs. Randall would be given the car.

Last week, the agency which ran the contest for Mercury visited the Randalls. When it was established Mr. Randall's sole duties at Tecumseh Equipment were with the International Harvester farm equipment division, the all-clear was sounded.

Until she was given the Mercury, Mrs. Randall's only other prize-winning was a gallon of paint.

Kiwanis Members Entertain Wives

Kiwanis members entertained their wives Monday evening at Schumm's Restaurant near Chelsea. Each lady received a corsage for the occasion.

Carl Leighty, of the Ely Lilly Co., spoke last Wednesday at the Kiwanis Club luncheon. The speaker showed a film on infantile paralysis entitled, "Survival Is Not Enough."

He told the group that much Salk vaccine is being destroyed because not enough people take advantage of the drug.

Guest at the luncheon was Donald Murphy, new executive secreary of the Chamber of Commerce.

Episcopal Group Travels To Detroit

Twenty-three Church School children and adults from St. Peter's Episcopal Church attended the worship services at St. Paul's Cathedral in Detroit Sunday.

From there they crossed on the Ambassador bridge and went to Tecumseh, Ontario where they enjoyed a picnic dinner. They returned by way of the tunnel.

The adults going were Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs Barber, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crosby and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Cooper.

Board Scans Budget Needs for Next Year

The Tecumseh Community Chest Board met at 8 p.m. on Monday in the United Savings Bank for routine business and the study of budgets for its agencies.

Walter Nichols was elected to fill the unexpired term of Frank Rice and Mrs. Barnard Fero was elected to fill the unexpired term of Kenneth Hall. Both were present at the meeting.

The budgets of the following agencies have been received: Chamber of Commerce for the Band Festival and the Community Parties for Children, Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, The Tecumseh Girl Scout Association and the Tecumseh Service Club.

Since the other agencies had failed to submit their budgets, the board adjourned to meet again July 7 for the same purpose.

General discussion was held on "Would you like to have another set of twins?"

Mrs. Donald Hardcastle won the surprise package.

The next meeting will be in Deerfield, July 15 at the home of Mrs. James Forsythe.

You Told Us

BY DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

The Vanishing Coffee Hour is enormously popular in Tecumseh and the surrounding area, giving old-fashioned visiting in the neighborhoods a chance for a comeback.

Time for visiting just isn't to be had in the modern age unless one makes it and that's what the gals are doing.

It's most pleasant to chat a bit over a cup of coffee these sool mornings we are having and what a satisfaction it gives one to know they are helping increase the fund for the new recovery room at the hospital.

Just one kink in the rope of this well-organized program, the hostesses are not leaving the proceeds at the bank very consistsently.

In all probability they are holding it until the termination of several other parties which they hope to give and then will turn all of it in together.

It is suggested by the chairman, Mrs. Florence Fuller, that proceeds be turned in as soon after each party as possible so that some report may be made to the public which is offering its whole hearted cooperation.

So far about 113 ladies have been hostesses for 316 guests at coffee hours.

√

Besides drinking coffee and attending the many weddings taking place in Tecumseh the residents are busy with various activities including summer camps. Rev. and Mrs. James D. Nixon are counselors this week at the Judson Collins Camp on Wamplers Lake owned and operated by the Methodist Church.

√

Mrs. Vira Bancroft is spending the week with her son and wife, Rev. and Mrs. Charles Bancroft in Barberton, Ohio. Her daughter, Mrs. Helen Walker, will leave Thursday to spend several days in the same home.

√

Pfc. and Mrs. Robert Hall have returned to Granite City, Illinois after a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hall.

Pfc. Hall is stationed with the Corps of Engineers in Granite City.

√

Mrs. Orman Lamkin has returned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hall after spending some time with another daughter, Mrs. Harold Harrison in Royal Oak.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Filter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Filter, Mr. and Mrs. William Spreeman and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spreeman spent Sunday with Mrs. Arthur Bamm of near Jackson.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Creger were in Ann Arbor Sunday afternoon to visit their daughter, Mrs. Raymond Service, who recently underwent surgery in St. Joseph Hospital.

√

Owen Partridge will serve on the Admissions and Budgets Committee of the Lenawee County United Fund and will attend their first meeting next Wednesday evening.

√

Sharlene Hoffmeister left Monday morning to go to Camp Shaw in the Upper Peninsula near Chatham for the week.

Among the parents who visited their sons attending Boys State in Lansing last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. John Dewey, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Laine Holden, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Walters and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Champanois.

√

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Larsen have returned from a trip through the Upper Peninsula where Mr. Larsen was representing the Grand Chapter of the Royal Arch Masons of Michigan. They also spent a week at their cottage at Burt Lake.

√

Mrs. Truman Rentschler spent Tuesday in Ann Arbor attending the 11th Annual Conference on Aging in the Michigan Union.

√

Word has been received by the parents of Sally Rentschler that she arrived safely in England last week. She expects to spend the summer touring the British Isles and several countries of Europe.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Phibbs were guests of their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Phibbs of Adrian.

√

Cletus S. Smith, manager of the Talon, Inc. plant, arrived home from Herrick Memorial Hospital Friday. He has been a patient there since suffering a heart attack recently, but his condition is much improved. He is able to be about his home and will return to the Hospital for a check-up Friday.

√

One young man of our acquaintance wonders what the world is coming to. He read that our forefathers called the day following Saturday in the week, Holy Sabbath; our grandfathers called it the Sabbath, mother and dad call it Sunday and now we call it the weekend. Certainly this is food for thought.

√

Teachers and assistants of the Vacation Bible School of the Tecumseh Church of the Nazarene enjoyed dinner together at Don's Grill Friday, treating Mrs. Arthur Holdridge who was the superintendent.

Those attending were Mrs. Holdridge, Mrs. Harold Lawhead, Rev. and Mrs. Dale Harvey, Mrs. Oliver Heberlein, Judy Harvey,

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenzie are chaperoning a group of girls from this year's graduating class while they vacation at a cottage at Wamplers Lake this week.

The girls are Carolyn La Londe, Olive Grace, Joyce Wilbar, Diane Socks, Diane Fox, Martha Owen, Carol Rutherford, Norma Jewell, Dotie Dotson, Peggy Newell and Joyce Partridge.

√

A family gathering was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Champanois Monday evening to celebrate the second wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Aylesworth and the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Champanois. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. Myron Dermyer were guests.

Britton FFA Gains Finals

LANSING — The Britton chapter has advanced to the final round of 47 in the 1958 best chapter contest of the Michigan Future Farmers of America, state FFA headquarters announced today.

Preliminary judging has reduced the field of 245 chapters in the 15th annual Michigan competition sponsored by A & P Food Stores in cooperation with the state FFA. Qualifiers include chapters from Cassopolis, Marshall and Caro, which were tops last year and represented Michigan in the National FFA contest.

Final winners in the contest involving approximately 11,000 farm boys will be selected by the Michigan Association Executive Committee on year-long farming, organizational and program activities of chapters.

Gold and Silver awards and Michigan's representatives in the National contest will be announced late in July. The Britton chapter won a gold award in the 1957 state contest.

Vote on Property Sale July 7

On July 7 voters of School District 11 will be asked to vote on propositions concerning the sale of certain unused school property.

If a favorable vote is received the board of education plans to use money from the sale to renovate and furnish Central school as a junior high for the school term beginning in September.

The bond issue voted last spring included no funds for this project.

Among the nine pieces of property to be voted on are: Culbertson school, Lamkin school, Tipton school, Pink chool, Grubb school, Paragon school, Lanning school, Kelly school and Colvin school.

The board of education plans to close all one-room rural schools in the district effective this month.

☆

DUE TO LACK of funds to renovate Central as a junior high school, the board has asked the district to vote favorably on the sale of these pieces of property.

In order to ballot in the July 7 election, each person voting must be a United States citizen, over 21-years of age, having resided in Michigan for at least six months and in the school district the 30 days prior to the election.

Only persons registered as electors in the township or city in which they reside are eligible to vote.

Voters will cast ballots in the agriculture laboratory of the Tecumseh high school building between 7 a.m. and 8 p.m.

BABE RUTH LEAGUE

On Thursday, the Eagles defeated the Indians, 6 to 0, behind the one-hit pitching of Steve Kruger.

In the second game, the Products handed VFW its first defeat by whitewashing them 9 to 0 as Jon Cook pitched a no-hit game.

Monday, the Indians lost a tough game to VFW, 3 to 2. Mike Tucker drove Jack Wraight in with the winning run after two were out in the last inning.

Dennis Harrison was the losing hurler and Jack Wraight the winner.

In the night-cap, the Eagles overcame a five run deficit to tie the Tecumseh Products 5 to 5. Tim Whitney and Mike Robison made all five of the Products hits off Wayne Davis and Steve Kruger and Mike held the Eagles to one hit.

Local Men Lose to State Champs by Slim Margin

The main event at the official opening of the Pythian Recreation Center at Burt Lake last weekend was a contest between the state champions in Ritualistic 3rd Rank, Allen Lodge No. 152 and El-Mecca Temple No. 63 8th Order Knights.

Local 8th order men to take active part in this challenge play-off were Royal Prince, Garth Hall and Royal Visier, Clayton Greenwald who made the challenge to meet the state champions for the official opening of the Center.

El-Mecca lost the contest by 16 words out of a possible 3200.

All members of the El-Mecca and Allen Lodge enjoyed meeting with friends and families of those present at the grand opening.

Camp Demands in State Parks Top Old Records

LANSING—Rapidly increasing use of Michigan's 59 state parks and recreation areas indicates new attendance and camping records will be set this year.

Through June 1, some 2,817,751 persons visited state parks — an increase of almost 19 percent over totals for the same period last year.

Camping showed even larger growth, with 5,946 camping permits issued through the first five months of the year—a jump of about 77 percent over last year's levels.

"Keeping pace with this tremendous rush is next to impossible," said Arthur C. Elmer, chief of the Conservation Department's parks division. "This is the heaviest attendance we have ever recorded at this time of year and we can expect even greater use of parks during summer months if good weather continues."

Elmer pointed out that overcrowding creates additional problems this year in many parks where maintenance staffs are reduced.

"We need all the cooperation we can get from park users because we just don't have the manpower to handle repair and maintenance work as quickly as in former years," Elmer said. "The public can do its share by helping to keep parks as clean as possible and by considerate use of picnic tables, stoves, sanitary facilities and other equipment."

Britton FFA Entertains 6 from Nebraska

Britton FFA was host to six Franklin, Nebraska, FFA boys and two advisors the first week of June.

They arrived the afternoon of June 2 and set up their sleeping cots in the shop and cooked their meals in the Ag office.

That evening they attended the Britton Chapter meeting. On June 3, they toured the Ford Rotunda and Ford Motor Co. Rouge plant at Dearborn.

Returning home at five, they were the guests of some of the Britton boys for supper and the evening, while the advisors were guests of Jack Anderson.

On June 4 they went to Greenfield Village and the museum. They left early the following day to go to Canada by way of the tunnel. They planned to go along the edge of Canada to the Soo and then home through Wisconsin and Minnesota.

This prefix name is granted and will be recorded by The Holstein-Friesian Association of America. Over 1,050 prefixes were reserved for breeders in 1957.

Marda Gene Duncan's

Through My Window

It all happened last summer. We awoke one morning and knew that they had gone. The little house which we had watched so closely suddenly had an empty, nobody-lives-here-anymore look.

They had gone as quickly as they came. It was about four weeks before this on a warm summer afternoon that we first noticed two little brown birds eyeing the wren house.

For several days they inspected the house from every angle. Finally, deciding it was to their liking, they signed the lease and moved in. Thus began our adventure with Mr. and Mrs. Wren.

From early morning till late in the evening we were treated to the loveliest of bird calls. Such long and complicated trills from such little birds.

All during his wife's confinement Mr. Wren hovered near by and lovingly serenaced his mate. Was he showing tender concern for her well being or merely proclaiming to the whole world that he was about to become a father?

☆

SUDDENLY THE eggs were hatched and then such activity. Feeding the new family proved to be a full time job for both parents. They quickly devised a workable schedule however and a production-line type feeding operation was soon in full swing.

The youngsters must have had enormous appetites because the parent wrens were shuttling in and out constantly. One would fly in, bill bulging with tasty insects, and hardly have enough time to feed the hungry brood before the other mate would be patiently sitting on a nearby branch, waiting his turn.

Although feeding the hungry youngsters took most of their time, the parents occasionally took a few minutes out for a short chat. Sitting side by side on a limb, not far from their snug little home, they would converse in their lovely wren language.

As they whistled and sang together, we wondered if their conversation, like that of human parents, centered around the new family.

☆

THE DAY we had our first glimpse of a baby wren was a red letter day indeed. Although we had merely a quick look at a bill so tiny that it was barely visible, it was tremendously exciting. Now the parents showed strong protective instincts.

The unwary bird who accidentally (or maybe it wasn't so accidental) flew to close to the wren's house was immediately driven off.

Frolicsome squirrels were quickly given to understand that this particular tree was definitely off limits.

Undaunted by the ridiculous difference in size, the scrappy little wrens even did their best to keep humans away. If anyone walked too close to 'their tree' what a commotion it caused; noisy and excited scolding made it all too clear that people were definitely unwanted visitors.

☆

ONE CHEERLESS, muggy afternoon tragedy almost struck. A summer thunderstorm was imminent and for some unexplained reason both parents were away. All of a sudden we noticed something very small and very dark lying in the grass. Was it a piece of bark, a dead leaf, a tiny twig? No—one of our baby wrens had fallen.

When after several minutes, Mr. and Mrs. Wren failed to appear, we decided it was up to us to start rescue proceedings. The baby wren was so tiny that he made no attempt to hop away from the helping hand which slowly reached down to pick him up.

Dad gently placed him back in his little house apparently none the worse for his premature venture into the outside world.

By now we knew the wrens were fast approaching the time when they would leave the house for good. Daily their little voices were getting stronger and their frequent appearance in the doorway showed their rapid growth. Oh, how we longed to see their first flight instruction.

☆

APPARENTLY this was not to be, because one morning we awoke to find the wren house, which only the day before had been full of friendly songs, silent and deserted. They say that once wrens have used a house and found it successful it will be used over and over again.

Well, the little redwod house is just as it was last year. The vacancy sign is out and we anxiously wait new tenants. The wrens are around, we often hear their lovely music, but as yet none have started housekeeping.

Nitrogen Will Help Increase Corn Yields

Putting needed nitrogen on corn now can pay big dividends in higher yields this fall. In fact, an investment of $1 in nitrogen will return from $2 to $5 in extra corn.

According to Louis C. Hall, county agricultural agent, it takes about 1½ pounds of nitrogen for each bushel of corn. If this amount isn't available, yields will be reduced.

The advantage of applying most of the nitrogen to the crop now is that it's easy to tell about how much is needed. By checking the plant population, a farmer can get an idea of what kind of yields he can shoot for.

If the average space between stalks is less than 11 inches, a 100 bushel yield can probably be topped on good corn land. If the space averages at least 13 inches, about 75 bushels will be about the maximum yield.

Just how much nitrogen to be sidedressed on corn depends on the condition of the land and amount of nutrients applied before or at the start of the growing season as well as the stalk population, Hall points out.

Farmers can pick up a copy of "Corn Nitrogen Guide" at the county extension office in Adrian. Information on sidedressing corn is also available in Extension Bulletin 159, "Fertilizer Recommendations for Michigan Crops."

Francis Gruber in Heavy Mortars

MUNICH, Germany — Army Pfc. Francis E. Gruber, son of Frank G. Gruber, rural, Tecumseh, recently participated in a field training exercise conducted by the 11th Airborne Division's 502d Infantry in Germany.

Gruber, a fire direction chart-operator in the infantry's heavy mortar battery, entered the Army in February 1957 and completed basic combat training at Fort Bragg, N.C. He arrived in Europe last November.

The 23-year-old soldier was graduated from St. Mary's high school, Adrian, in 1952 and attended the Milwaukee School of Engineering.

One Reason For Our Better Health . . .

Graphs and charts are not meaningless. They usually show a trend — or prove a point. Thus the line showing the growth of the use of prescription drugs parallels that of our longevity and general health—and means something.

It means that prescription medicines are doing their work — much better. It means that your frequent visit to your Doctor is good. Prescription medicines have been proven effective in many ways — in behalf of your continued good health.

Frisbees Are Invading Tecumseh Skies

By GRETTA PORTER

"Capital thrust!"

If you see a fast flying disc soar through the air followed by this cry, you'll know that a game of Frisbee is in progress.

Played on college and university campuses all over the nation, Frisbee was first introduced at Ivy League schools.

It was so named because originally Mrs. Frisbee's pie plates were used. Now a Frisbee is an unbreakable disc, usually made of a plastic material.

The Frisbee is thrown with a flick of the wrist known as a "thrust." When a player demonstrates a particularly fine toss his opponents compliment him with the remark "capital thrust."

THE FRISBEE has a curled edge and is meant to be caught with the thumb on top while other fingers "grasp" the disc on the under side. A good catch is met with the cheer "splendid grasp."

There are two unbreakable rules in Frisbee. First, you must grasp the Frisbee with only one hand, and, secondly, you may take no more than two steps to either side.

As for scoring, there are two ways of gaining a point (game is a tally pre-determined by the players). If the opponent misses a thrust without taking two steps it is the thruster's point and if a player thrusts the Frisbee out of the reasonable reach of his opponent it is the opponent's point.

☆

ONCE A DEGREE of skill is acquired the player can direct the Frisbee in various slants—curving from right to left or left to right.

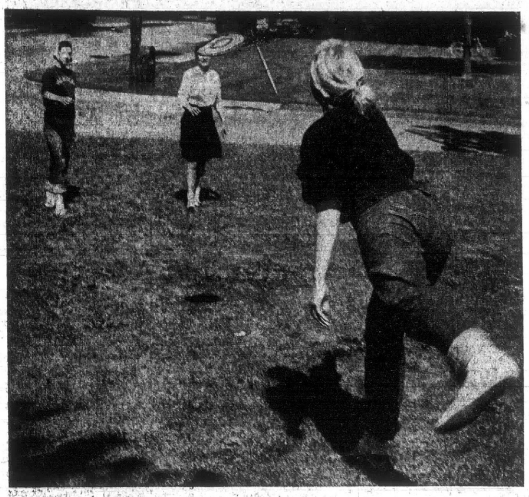
This game can be played with teams in a larger group instead of the usual circle.

Oponents usually stand about 30 feet apart.

Frisbee has become increasingly popular in Midwestern and especially Michigan colleges and universities and Tecumseh students have been bringing it home with them this summer vacation.

It is not unusual to hear fraternities and sororities challenging rivals to a few games of Frisbee before dinner. It is a pleasant interlude in the busy student's life.

Frisbee is not just for college students, however, for the game is popular among all sets and more and more plastic discs are being spotted sailing through Tecumseh skies.



ON ITS WAY — Brenda lets fly with Frisbee (note arrow) to her opponents. It's a tricky fellow to catch, must be nabbed with one hand. This is a game for young and old, especially the worn-out, old athlete who still likes competition.

PROPER STANCE — Frisbee expert Brenda Porter prepares to make a "thrust" with the small plastic disc. It takes a cross-body toss, mainly with the wrist. Players should avoid getting "too much arm" into the pitch. Frisbee can be made to curve two ways, go out and come back by varied wrist action.

Plow-planting corn not only saves money on seed bed preparation costs but yields are a little better, reports Michigan State University soils specialists. In 1957 comparison tests, plow-planted corn yielded an average of 11 bushels more per acre over conventional methods.

Dail Phone System Sought by Morenci

By fall of 1959 Morenci might have dial phone equipment installed and ready for use if the Michigan Public Service Commission gives the go-ahead signal.

Approximate cost of the conversion will be $220,000, according to Don Carlson, manager of the Morenci Home Telephone Company.

A new building, central office equipment, telephones and line improvements are included in the estimated cost.

Present plans call for retaining a switchboard for toll service.

FFA Officers Attend Camp

Six officers and advisor, Jack Anderson, attended Regional FFA officer's gathering at Camp Palmer, Ohio, recently.

Those attending were Barry Brablec, president; Cal Rohrback, vice-president; Larry Ivan, treasurer; Jerry Papworth, secretary; Jerry Dicks, reporter; and Jerry McCrate, sentinal.

Officers meetings and general sessions were held and organized and instructional recreation were enjoyed by all.

In the election of officers, Jerry McCrate was chosen regional sentinal for 1958-'59. This year Larry Wagner was regional president and Russell Spaulding was regional advisor and therefore had charge of the camp.

Tecumseh CAP Will Participate in Airshow

Adrian Airport will be the scene of the first annual Jaycee Airshow Sunday from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m.

Being sponsored by the Adrian Junior Chamber of Commerce, the event will feature the Cole Brothers Air Show, known as the "last of the barnstormers."

Ground displays will be set up. Tecumseh, Adrian, Willis, Monroe, Addison-Manitou Beach, Ypsilanti and Ann Arbor squadrons of Group 17 of the Civil Air Patrol are helping to line up the Airshow.

Some 300 CAP members from all over the state will handle air traffic, field security and communications on the day of the show.

Jehovah's Witnesses Ready for Convention

Jehovah's Witnesses from the Tecumseh Congregation announce plans are under way to attend an international convention in New York City this summer.

Kenneth Ball, presiding minister of the local group, said the convention could well be the largest in the history of Jehovah's Witnesses. It is scheduled for July 27 through August 3 and will be held in Yankee Stadium and the Polo Grounds simultaneously.

The last international convention, attended by many Tecumseh Witnesses, was held in 1953 in Yankee Stadium and reached a peak attendance of 165,000 including the overflow audiences.

FORT LEONARD WOOD, Missouri—Army Pvt. Val D. Spangler, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grenval W. Spangler, 207 E. Pottawatamie, recently completed eight weeks of basic combat training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

Spangler is a 1956 graduate of Tecumseh high school. He attended the University of Michigan.

'Bags' Turned into 'Sacks' for State Fair

Never will the sack dress be so appropriately named as at the Michigan State Fair this year when Michigan women enter the National Cotton Bag Sewing Contest.

Creating smart apparel and unusual household accessories from feed or flour bags will be a challenge to all women who enter the contest, in the opinion of Mrs. Polly Luers, director of Home Arts.

Cash prizes, totalling $100 and a sewing machine, will be awarded at the Michigan State Fair, August 29 through September 7. The grand prize winner will become an automatic finalist to compete in the nation-wide contest.

☆

ENTRY CLASSIFICATIONS include mother-daughter dresses, brunch coat, kitchen apron and two potholders, man's or boy's sport shirt, pillow cases, luncheon set, stuffed toy and crib quilt.

The 1957 Michigan champion was Mrs. Marion Becker of Almont, who received first awards for her entries in the kitchen apron, kitchen curtains and stuffed toy catagories.

Further information and entry blanks may be obtained from the Home Arts Department, Michigan State Fair, Detroit 3, Michigan. All needlework entries must be submitted by Friday, August 22.

Snappy-Snippers Picnic at Lake; Hold Members Tea

The Snappy-Snippers 4-H Club enjoyed a picnic recently at the State Park at Wamplers Lake. They were accompanied by Nancy Smith and Camilla Grigg as life guards and Mrs. Howard Morris and Mrs. John Surratt, their leaders.

Evaluation Day with Alice Lord in attendance was held June 17 in the Baptist Youth House. It was also a tea for the members and their mothers with Mrs. Don Nettleman and her daughter, Dorothy Jean, and Mrs. Kenneth Hooten and her daughter, Nancy, as hostesses.

All members and their mothers were present except one.

REALTY VIEWS

"Now that your 2 story house is sold," I said to Mrs. Morlay, "what are you going to do?"

"On account of my bad heart," replied the silver-haired lady, "the doctor says I've got to eliminate stair steps. He says to find a small home on one floor, with a convenient arrangement, so that I don't have to take any unnecessary steps. Is this an impossible request?"

"No," I replied. "I think I know just the house for you. An out-of-state owner wants to sell a late model home in a nice district, with a small yard. It has an exceptionally good traffic pattern. You can go from the bedrooms to the living room, or to the kitchen, or to the outside, without taking needless steps. A small central hallway makes it ideal for you."

She looked it over. "It's just exactly what I had in mind," she said with a broad smile. "And so much better than trying to get by in a cramped apartment house. If my son likes it too, I'll take it."

The son liked it, and Mrs. Morley is exceedingly well pleased with her conveniently-arranged home.

Prepare Field for Next Year's Potato Crop

Getting ready for the 1959 crop of potatoes in 1958 is good business, especially if preparations are aimed at reducing the weed population.

This is where a summer fallow program can profitably fit into the potato growing picture, according to D. L. Clanahan, farm crops specialist at Michigan State University.

Summer fallowing a sod field the year before it is to be planted to potatoes controls grasses and other weeds. A minimum of cultivation is necessary during the following potato growing season. In fields infested with quack grass, this has been a "must" operation, Clanahan says.

In a summer fallow program, start working the surface with a field cultivator set rather shallow. Do this immediately after hay has been harvested.

If the cultivator is deep at first, too much sod will be torn loose and it will start rolling and may even plug the machine. Work the field first one way and then the other at weekly intervals for six-eight weeks to break up the sod and work it into the soil. It may be desirable to work field twice at first.

Along in August, sow fall rye with 300-400 pounds of a complete fertilizer. Rye gives a winter cover crop and green manure for the potatoes the following year.

Booklet Gives Data on Swimming, Fishing

LANSING — "Michigan State Forest Campgrounds," a new directory, is now available from the Conservation Department's forestry division.

The 16-page publication includes general information on Michigan's 23 state forests, tips for campers, a summary of rules governing use of state lands and a complete listing of all state forest campgrounds.

In addition to locations, the directory also indicates the type of fishing and swimming available in the area.

Interested persons can obtain the publication by sending a post card to Michigan Conservation Department, Forestry Division, Lansing 26.

Luncheon Winners

Mrs. Paul Maves and Mrs. Marvin Watkins were hostesses for the recent Country Club luncheon.

Mrs. Hugh Walters won first place at bridge and Mrs. William Rumpf was first place canasta winner.

Bridge table prize winners were Mrs. William Reinhardt, Mrs. John Thompson, Mrs. Harry Graham of Macon and Mrs. Leland Hubbard of Onsted.

Unfortunately, although some are helpful, most home treatments temporarily mask troubles that only the skilled diagnosis of a physician can uncover. Painful symptoms may be relieved, only to reoccur later when a cure is more difficult.

You actually save money and sickness time when you depend on your physician and the specific medicines he prescribes.

Poison Ivy Can Be Knocked Out Easily

Pesky poison ivy can be knocked out easily and quickly this summer with several chemicals, says L. G. Hall, county agricultural agent.

The agent states that there are several chemicals that can do the job. But he recommends ammonium sulfamate or aminotriazole.

If ammonium sulfamate is used, spray a mixture of one pound of the dry chemical in one gallon of water. This quantity will treat from 100 to 500 square feet of growth. At least 90 percent of the leaves should be wet by the spray to insure good control.

This ammonium sulfamate material is not poisonous to animal life and does not present a fire hazard, Hall points out. But grasses will be stunted and all woody plants hit by the spray may be killed. Grasses will generally recover.

☆

FOUR POUNDS of a commercial product containing 50 percent amino-triazole in 100 gallons of water will give excellent control of poison ivy. For smaller amounts use two tablespoons in a gallon of water.

Apply this material as a spray when the ivy is in full leaf. Spray drift may cause yellowing of certain crops such as alfalfa and corn, Hall cautions.

Best results from chemicals can be obtained when the compound is applied with a pressure sprayer such as a knapsack, barrel or power sprayer.

For smaller patches and isolated plants or in locations where the use of chemicals might damage desirable plants, remove the top growth with a grub-hoe or spade, the agent says.

Let Grass-Legume Dry Before Placing It into Storage

Using the direct-cut method to put up grass-legume silage to save one trip over a field usually doesn't pay off, believes John Comstock, county agricultural agent.

If the forage is cut at the ideal time—early bloom stage—it will contain too much water to make good silage in an upright silo. Besides, valuable nutrients will be lost through seepage, Mr. Comstock explains.

Farmers can expect to get a higher quality of silage if they mow, rake and then let the forage wilt down to about 70 percent moisture before ensiling, the agent thinks. Wilting time of two to three hours in good weather gives excess water a chance to evaporate.

If forage is dry enough to make good silage when harvested with a direct-cut machine, the main advantages of making grass-legume silage are lost.

Feeding value of the material is not only reduced because of being more mature, but the second crop of hay will be smaller because of a shorter growing season.
